The foregoing, he thinks, are inducements sufficient for every one to come to the Picture Gallery and secure one of these "faithful shadows" -

If not, there are other considerations. How important that you secure a faithful likeness of your friends and relatives ore it is too late. You have all experienced something of the satisfaction afforded in gasing on the Picture of an absent friend; and some of you have known the sad pleasure derived from possessing the likeness of some loved one who has been laid beneath the church yard mound, and felt that

"No price could take from you-A memento so cherished; For, how sacred the shadow, Since the substance has perished."

But you perchance have friends still with you whose pictures you have not yet secured. If so make it the business of to-day, to-morrow may be too late.

Then come to the Picture Gallery in Samuel Stark's Brica Block—third story—a few doors east of Wall's Hotel and secure one of those "faithful shadows"
