A MOTHER'S GRAVE.

Earth has some sacred spots where we feel like loosening the shoes from our feet, and treading with holy reverence; where common words of pleasure are unfitting; places where friendship's hands have lingered in each other, where vows have been plighted prayers offered and tears of parting shed. Oh, how the thoughts hover around such places, and travel back through immeasurable space to visit them. But of all the spots on this green earth, none is so sacred as that where rests, waiting the resurrection, those who once loved and cherished. Hence, in all ages the better portion of mankind have chosen the loved spots they have loved to wander at eventide to meditate and weep alone. But among the charnel houses of the dead if there is one spot more sacred than the rest, it is a mother's grave, there she sleeps the mother of our infancy—she whose heart was a stranger to every other feeling but love, and who could always find excuses for us when we could find none for ourselves. There she sleeps, and we love the very earth for her sake.

Wise and Otherwise.

A PRIVATE in one of the regiments at Salamanca cried out during the hottest part of the action "Och, murder, I'm kilt entirely!" "Are you wounded?" inquired an officer near him. "Wounded, is it, your honor?" replied the gallant Emeraldal, "by jabsers, I'm worse than kilt out and out; wasn't I waiting for the last quarter of an hour for a pull at Jim Murphy's pipe, and there, now, it's shot out of his mouth!"

A CLOWN employed to draw timber from a wood, met with an oak trunk of so large a size, that the tackle he made use of to place it on the carriage broke twice. Hodge flung his hat on the ground, and scratching his head with vexation, exclaimed, "Darn the hogs that didn't eat thee when thee was an acorn, and then I should not have had this trouble with thee!"

"I'll bet a sheep," said Mr. Jenkins to his better half, "that our boy Otho is going crazy, for he is grinning at the plough, and he is grinning at the barn, and he is grinning at the table, and he is grinning to himself wherever he goes." "Poh!" replied the old woman, "don't you know he got a love-letter this morning?"

AN IRISHMAN recently handed in to the telegraph office a despatch intended to inform another Emeraldal, employed upon the public works in a neighboring town of the decease of a friend. It reads thus: "Barney come home; I died last night."

A NEGRO preacher referring to the judgment day, in his sermon, said: "Bredderin and sisters, in dat day, de Lord shall divide de sheep from de goats, and bress de Lord, we know who wears de wool!"

"Have the jury agreed?" asked a judge of a court attache he met upon the stairs with a pail in his hand. "Oh, yis," replied Pat, "they have agrado to send out for a half a gallon."

As incurable old bachelor, one who seemingly rejoices in his infirmity, describes marriage as "a female despotism tempered by puddings."

A western editor has just married a girl named Church, and says he feels happier since he joined Church than he ever did before.

The head of an old man, like a mountain top, whitens as it gets nearer heaven.

It is a sorrowful sight to see the miser going bowed beneath his burden of wealth just to have death unload him.

The man who courted a n investigation says it isn't half as good as courting an affectionate girl.

To grow up to the skies we must be planted low in the dust.

Early marriages, like early cabbages, are tender productions.

Enjoy your own life without comparing it with that of another.

The greatest miracle ever wrought by love is the reformation of a coquette.

He that prudently keeps his mouth shut will be taken for a man of understanding.

Why should we speak ill since it is as easy to speak good words as bad ones.

I would sooner be right on the dung hill that wrong on the throne.

We love Women as women love babies—all the better for their weakness.

It is singular that the article we wish to buy is never so good as the one we wish to sell.

When a young lady takes the helm of a boat, it is generally for a miss steery us purpose.

If a newspaper editor stops the press to an ounce what shall he do to a pound.

PROSPECTUS OF

"The Age,"

A NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER TO BE PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY IN THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, BY A. J. GLOSSBRENNER & Co.

The "Age" will advocate the principles and policy of the Democratic party, and will, therefore, necessarily favor the restoration of the Union, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and that of this Commonwealth. It will freely and fairly discuss all legitimate subjects of contemporary concern, including of course, and pre-eminently at this time all questions connected with the existing unhappy condition of our country. It will fearlessly criticize the public acts of public servants, and defend the legal and constitutional rights of individual citizens and of sovereign states, against assaults from any quarter. It will seek to awaken the minds of the people to a proper sense of the actual condition of the Republic—to present to them, truthfully, the fearful perils in which we stand as a nation—to exhibit the magnitude of the task that lies before them, and to inspire them with patriotic determination to apply THE REMEDY for our national ills.

In brief, it will, in all things, aim to be the faithful exponent of Democratic principles, and to render itself worthy to be an organ of the Democratic party, under whose auspices our country prospered so long and so well. The restoration of that party—the party of the CONSTITUTION and the UNION—is the policy of the Legislature and executive government of this State, and of the Union, and we believe to be necessary to avert anarchy, and the utter ruin of the Republic. To contribute to that restoration will be our highest aim. The News, Library, Commercial, and other departments, will receive due attention, and will be so conducted as to make "THE AGE" worthy of the support of the general reader.

The present state of the preparatory arrangements warrants the expectation, that the first number of the Daily will appear before the close of the coming month, (February, 1863.) The Weekly will be issued soon thereafter.

LETTER "A" FAMILY SEWING MACHINE

With all the Recent Improvements, Is the Best and Cheapest and Most Beautiful of all Sewing Machines. This Machine will sew anything, from the running of a tuck in Tulle to the making of an overcoat—anything from Pilot or Beaver Cloth, down to the softest Gauze or Gossamer Tissue, and is ever ready to do its work to perfection. It can feel, hem, bind, gather, tuck, quilt, and has capacity for a great variety of ornamental work. This is not the only Machine that can hem, fell, bind, or so forth, but it will do so better than any other Machine. The Letter "A" Family Sewing Machine may be had in a great variety of cabinet cases. The Folding Case, which is now becoming so popular, is as its name implies, one that can be folded into a box or case which, when opened, makes a beautiful, substantial, and spacious table for the work to rest upon. The case is of every imaginable design—plain as the wood grew in its native forest, or as elaborately finished as art can make them. The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk twist, thread, needles, oil, &c., of the very best quality. Send for a copy of "Singer & Co's Gazette," I. M. SINGER & CO., 438 Broadway, N. Y.

Registers Office Tunkh: week July 6th 1863

The peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of the multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein the fluid becomes impure, and is incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending from parents to children, until the third and fourth generations; indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The disease which it originates takes various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcersous sores; in the stomach and bowels, it causes biliousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz. purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.
