

iors against the Democratic judges lies in this: The constitutional objection against the camp vote was first raised by Republicans, in order to secure the office of Sheriff of Philadelphia to the Republican candidate.

The rejection of the camp vote did secure the office to the Republican candidate, Mr. Thompson and he holds it now.

Judge Allison, Judge Reed, Judge Strong, all decided against the camp vote; but the abuse is all directed against the Democratic candidates; yet they were the judges who in the decision showed that no party feeling could sway them from doing what they knew to be their duty.

In giving the decision of the Court against the camp vote, Judge Woodward was not forgetful of the honor due to our gallant soldiers. He said:

"It is due to our citizen soldiery to add, however, in respect to the cases of fraud that have been before us, that no soldier was implicated. The frauds were perpetrated in every instance by political speculators, who prowled around the military camps, watching for opportunities to destroy true ballots and substitute false ones, to forge and falsify returns, and to cheat citizen and soldier alike out of the fair and equal election provided for by law."

Nor was he found wanting at a later period, when the gallant Army of the Potomac, inferior far in numbers, confronted the hosts of our invaders on the soil of Pennsylvania.

While bungling mismanagement delayed her own militia until New York and New Jersey got the start of us, Judge Woodward, with his two sons in the field, gave all the weight of his position and character to the call to arms. He said:

"There ought to be such an instant uprising of young men, in response to this call, as shall be sufficient to secure the public safety, and to teach the world that no hostile foot can, with impunity, tread the soil of Pennsylvania."

The Democratic party has been as much belied to you as its candidates. But many of you are Democrats, all of you have camped and marched and fought side by side with Democrats, in the service of the Union.

Of its principles we can make no statement so authoritative as its platform. We cite to you from the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That the soldiers composing our armies merit the warmest thanks of the nation. Their country called, and nobly did they respond. Living, they shall know a nation's care; and dying, they shall live in our memories, and monuments shall be raised to teach posterity to honor the patriots and heroes who offered their lives at their country's altar.

"Resolved, That the Democracy of Pennsylvania ever has been true to the cause of the Union. It was in the name, and for the sake of the Union, that our party was made; that we denounce the least intimation that the Democratic party entertains now or ever has entertained, or ever can entertain, the slightest sympathy with the present gigantic rebellion, or with traitors in arms against the government, or would ever consent to peace upon any terms involving a dismemberment of the Union, as utterly unjust; and in proof of this, we point with exultation to the lavish contributions to the war in blood and treasure heretofore, and now being made by the hundreds of thousands of Democratic citizens, who were among the first to fly to the rescue of the Union and peril their lives in its defence."

CHARLES J. BIDDLE, Chairman.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16, 1863.

Musical.—The fourth monthly meeting of the "Wyoming County Musical Association" will be held in Tunkhannock Boro., the 26th of Sept. Do not forget the last Saturday of this month. Let there be a full attendance, as there is business of importance to be transacted.

Democratic Meeting.
We have been requested to announce that a Democratic Meeting will be held at LITTLE MEMOPAN CENTRE, on Saturday next. A number of able speakers have engaged to be present and address the meeting.

Let the people turn out en masse; and hear the important issues, now pending honestly and fairly discussed.

The heavy rain of last week did great injury to the crops, roads and bridges of the county. The aqueduct of the canal at this place was so much injured as to suspend operations on it for probably two weeks.

The work of repairing is being vigorously pushed forward.
