From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Al hough not disposed to favor or recommend Patnt Medicines in general, through distrust of their ngredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient easons why a man may not testify to the benefits he oelieves himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitlers, prepared by Dr. C M Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an aicoholic mixture. I am indebted to my chiefly an aicoholic mixture. Eag., for the removal of the benefit of others. friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragemens this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the pr sent year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for limiting the to the pres of them.
