LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Agent for the Democrat.—Amira Gay, Esq has consented to act as our Agent in receiving and receipting subscriptions for the North Branch Democrat. All monies paid him either on subscription or for advertising will be duly accounted for and credited the same as if paid to us.

Canal Opened!—The water is now let into the upper division of the North Branch Canal: and we begin to hear an occasional mellow toot from the merry boatman's horn.

Godey's Lady's Book.—for May has been received by us; it is, as usual, ahead of all periodicals of its class; both in its literary matter and its fashion plates and other embelishments

Price $3. a year—Two copies, for $5.—Address L. A. Godey, No. 323, Chestnut, St. Philadelphia.

Hon Wm M Platt—has removed from this place to Towanda, Bradford Co. His office, however will be kept open at this place; his old clients will find us, when not otherwise engaged at the old stand, ready and willing to accommodate them.

Stage Upset.—The Hack running between this place and the R. R. Depot was upset on Monday evening by a vicious horse which had been put on that day. One passenger only was slightly injured. This is the first accident of the kind that has ever, to our knowledge, happened on this line; though it has run daily, for a number of years.

R. R. Bridge Burned.—The Rail Road Bridge across the Lackawanna River at Scranton was accidently burned on Friday last. This accident however, only delayed the mail and passengers north for one trip; as ample arrangements have been made to forward both, by carrying them across the stream by omnibusses provided by the company.—The bridge will be rebuilt in a few days.

The Bell-Ringers are Coming.—The Blaisdell Brothers—the Swiss Bell-Ringers—give one of their novel and interesting musical entertainments at Union Hall, in this place, to-morrow, (Thursday) evening, Price of Admission 25 cts. This troupe at its visit to this place, some two years since, gave such entire satisfaction, that we now bespeak for them a crowded house. "The Blaisdell Brothers" with their aids—solo Violinists, Harpists, ballad singers &c., furnish an entertainment well deserving of the patronage of all lovers of good music—Go and hear them.

"The Oldest Inhabitant"—is now about ready to declare that he never know a later, or more unfavorable Spring for farming operations than the present one. The winter's snows had hardly ceased shining through the trees on the mountain tops, when on yesterday morning we awoke and found the tops of the hills in sight of this place covered—not with the verdure of spring, as we thought we had a right to expect—but with the snow white mantle of winter. As we write this the rain pats remorselessly on the heads of the pedestrians in the streets. When this will cease, and we shall have something like spring weather, He who reigns above can only tell.

Married.

MYERS-STEPHENS.—By E. N. Bacon at the House of the brides father in Nicholson April 28th., Mr. Apollos L. Myers to Miss. Eliza Catharine Stephens both of Nicholson.

BALDWIN—PRATT.—Also, by the same at the Hotel of S. D. Bacon, May 2nd., Mr. Jared R. Baldwin, of Luzerne County, to Mrs. Anne Pratt of Nicholson, Wyoming County.

Luzerne papers please copy.

Died.

ROSS.—In Tunkhannock Borough, on Tuesday morning the 3d inst., Jennie Eldridge daughter of Richard P. and Mary E. Ross. Aged 7 years 2 months and 22 days.

"Earth is all vanity,
False as 'tis fleeting;
Grief is in all its joys,
Smiles with tears meeting;
Our brightest hopes decay,
Pass like morn's gems away;
Too fair on earth to stay,
Where all is fleeting."

FASSETT—At Windham township, Wyoming Co. Pa., Henry W. Fassett.

One of the most melancholy accidents that it has fallen to our lot to record, is that of the death of Mr. Fassett, while attempting to draw the wiper from a gun which he had been cleaning out and which he had just loaded. The gun was discharged, and the whole load, together with the wiper, driven through his body. He staggered a few steps, exclaiming: "I am a dead man," and fell down a corpse. He leaves a wife and a number of small children to mourn his untimely loss, and with whom we sincerely sympathize in their bereavement. Mr. Fassett was one of our very best and most enterprising citizens. By his death society has lost an estimable and valued member, and his family a kind and indulgent husband and father.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL PHOTOGRAPHS.

—BY—

REV. ALFRED TAYLOR.

With an Introduction by Professor John S. Hart, L. L. D., of Philadelphia. The character and unfoldings of the Sunday-school are fast becoming an element of national history. To a hopeful extent, this Christian organization moulding the characters of our children and youth; and its impressions on the minds of the masses are hardly less potential and abiding than the teachings of the Pulpit. This volume is both timely and suggestive. It is a complete mirror of the Sunday-school, disclosing its workings, and giving a graphic insight into the characteristics of Superintendents, Teachers, Scholars, and Sunday-school Orators. Every chapter of the work is as keen in the delineation of character as the edge of a hellield razor. The book will create a stir; and, if its suggestions are heeded, a reformation. It is a fitting accompaniment to "Our Sunday-school, and how we Conduct it," by Waldo Ablott, and both works are an acquisition to the religious literature of the age. We give below a few items of contents, the better to give the readers of this advertisement a foretaste of the good things in store for them:

THE FIDGETY SUPERINTENDENT.
THE HEAVY SUPERINTENDENT.
THE CONSEQUENTIAL SUPERINTENDENT.
THE SUCCESSFUL SUPERINTENDENT.
THE SHALLOW TEACHER.
THE ARGUMENTATIVE TEACHER.
THE INEXPERIENCED TEACHER.
THE DULL TEACHER.
THE DISAGREEABLE TEACHER.
THE AMIABLE TEACHER.
THE REGULARLY LATE TEACHER.
THE EXCELLENT TEACHER.
THE MISCHIEVOUS SCHOLAR.
THE PRECOCIOUS SCHOLAR.
THE TOO BIG SCHOLAR.
THE FIRST-RATE SCHOLAR.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL SPEECH-MAKING.

THE POMPOUS SPEAKER.
THE LONG-WINDED SPEAKER.
AT THE CONVENTION.
THE EMPTY MAN.
THE DULL SPEAKER.
THE TALKING SUPERINTENDENT.
THE STUPED CHILDREN.
THE PERIPATETIC BORE.
THE APOLOGETIC SPEAKER.
THE UNTIMELY SPEAKER.
THE RIDICULOUS SPEAKER.
IN THE PULPIT.
THE TRULY ELOQUENT SPEAKER.
AND THE SPEECH PLEASED THE LORD."

Price 85 cents. Sent, prepaid, on receipt of price. Three copies sent to any editor who inserts this advertisement twice.

☞ A discount of 20 per cent will be given to any Sunday-school ordering twelve or more copies.

The Publishers of The Age could easily fill their columns with the unsought and most liberal commendations of the press throughout the country; but they prefer that it should stand altogether upon claims to public confidence, well known and established. They believe it has acquired this reputation by the candor, fearlessness and independence with which it has been conducted, through times of extraordinary confusion of ideas on public subjects, and latterly of almost unexampled public trial. It is now, and will be, as heretofore, the supporter of truly national principles, opposed alike to radicalism and fanaticism in every form, and devoted to the maintenance of good government, law and order.

The Publishers of The Age conceive that it thus renders peculiar services and has peculiar claims upon all men by whom its principles are valued, and who, by the proper means, look to promote and secure the Constitutional restoration of the Union.—These can best show their sense of the untiring efforts of the publishers, in behalf of this great and unparallelled cause, by earnestly sustaining this paper in all its business relations.
