Justice to our soldiers. Reselved, That in the future, as in the past we will adhere with unswerving fidelity to the Union of our strength, security, and happiness as a peo-ple, and as a frame work of government equally senducive to the welfare and prosperity of all #e

States, both Northern and Southern.

Resolved, That this Convention does explicitly de clare, as the sense of the American people, that af er for r years of failure to restore the ginion by the experiment of war, during which, under the pretense of a military necessity or war rower higher than the Constitution, the Constitution itself has been disregarded in every part, and public liberty and private right alike trodden down, and the material prosperity of the country essentially impaired justice humanity, liberty, and the public welfare demand that immediate efforts be made for a cessation of hostilities with a view to an ultimate Convention of all the States, or other peaceble means, to the end that, at the earliest practicable moment, peace may be restored on the basis of the Federal Union of the States.

Reioleed, That the direct interference of the military authority of the United States in the recent elections held in Kentucky, Maryland, Missourin and Deleware was a shameful violation of the Constitution, and a repetition of such acts in the approaching e ection will be held as revolutionary and resisted with all the means and power under

Resolved, That the aim and object of the Democratic party is to preserve the Federal Unio the rights of the States unimpaired; and they he reby declare that they consider the administrative us urpation of extraordinary and dangerous powers not granted by the Constitution, the subversion of the civil by military arrest, imprisonment, trial, and sentence of American citizens in States, where civil law exists in full force, the suppression of freedom of speech, and of the press, the denial of the right of sylum, the open and avowed disregard of State rights, the employment of unusual test oaths, and the interference with and the denial of the right of the people to bear arms, as calculated to prevent a restoration of the Union and the perpetuation of a government deriving its just powers from the consent of the governed

Resolved, That the shameful disregard of the Admini stration to its duty in respect to our fellow citi-zens who now and long have been prisoners of wa in a suffering condition. doserves the severest rep robation on the score alike of public and comm humanity.

Resolved, That the sympathy of the Democratic party is heartily and carnestly extended to the sol-diery of our army who are and have been, in the field, under the flag of our country, and in the event of our attaining power they will receive all the care, protect ion, regard and kindness that the brave soldiers of the Republic have so nobly earn-

After two years bard work "fight ing copperheads with other weapons " finding the "varmints" still increasing - Billy Button has coucleded to respond to the call (draft) made upon him two years ago, which he sneakingly and ignonimously shirked He goes however under the slight stimulus of a bounty of 1200, for a part of which he throws boy of his, some fifteen or or sixteen years old. If Billy is no more efficient with the musket than he is with the goose quill, the Rebs will not have much to fear from him. Of course those who have been obliged to go into the service when drafted; and those who have served in the army for three long, bloody years, for less than one third the pay that this ninay receives for one, will purdown this last brilliant "flank movement," to the score of disinterested patriotism.

The Nation Rejoices.

The nomination of McClellan and Pendleton has met with unfounded enthusiasm throughout the entire county. All the papers are filled with accounts of rejoicings, bell-ringings, salutes, Bongres, processions, &c. &c., in honor of the event. MOUS-THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDING.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31. - The Convention re-ac sembled at 10 o'clock this morning. The wigwam was densely packed and the crowd outside was greater than ever. Rev. Dr. Halsey, of Chicago.

Mr. Wickliffe, of Kentucky, said that the to day and the 4th of March next which wil! make it proper for the Democracyof the coun, try to meet in convention again. He therefore moved the following restlution, which was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, that this convention shall not be dissolved by adjournment at the close of its business, but shall remain organized, subject to be called at any time and place that the Executive National Committee shall design

The following communication was presented from the National Democratic Committee by Mr. Lawrence of Rhode Island.

"At a meeting of the National Democrats Committee, held at the Sherman House, in the city of Chicago, on the 31st of August, 1864, the following resolution was adopted:

"WHEREAS, A respectful devotion to the memory of Stephen A. Dougles, the great statesman of the West, was the crowning motive which induced the committee to concur in calling the National Convention in the in the city of Chicago.

" Now, Therefore, it is the deliberate conviction of this committee that, had his life been spared his gigantic grasp of mind ,taken in connection with his declaration that war is disunion,-a declaration which time has proved the wisdom of- would long since have estored the power of the Federal compact, and avoided the terrible loss of life which nothing can compensate, and that bitterness of feeling so much to be depolred, which is a will adhere with unswerving fidelity to the Union under the Constitution as the only solid foundation greater barrier to the restoration of peace and union.

THOS. B. FLORENCE, Chairman. " Wm. Finn, F. A. Atken, Secretaries.

The President then stated the question before the Convention to be on ordering the previous question to proceed to the nomina tion of a candidate for the Presidency, and it was ordered without dissent.

The vote was then taken by States the chairman of each delegation announcing the vote when the States were called.

The final result was announced as follows Maine 7 for McClellan New Hampshire - 5 for McClellan-Verment-5 for McClellan. Ma-sachusetts-12 for McClellan. Rhede Island 4 for McClellan. Oregon-5 for McCelllan, Total-for Gen. George B. McClellan, 2024 for Thomas H. Seymour, Conn. 231.

In announcing the vote for New York Mr, Church said that New York regretted to pass by her favorite son, but she stands now as she has ever stood, ready to sacrifice her dearest personal preference for the pub lic good, Holding it to be her duty above all others to do all in her power to rescue the country from the tyrauny that oppre sses it having full confidence in the Democracy, the ability and patriotism of General George B. McClellan, New York gives him her entire electoral vote.

Several delegate having cast their votes in by a sort of "chattelhood" arrangement, a for Horatio Seymour, when the call of States had been gone through with. Governor Seymour remarked that as some gentlemen had done him the honor to name him for nomination, it would be affectation to say that their expression of preference did not give him pleasure; but he owed it to himsel f to say that many months ago he advised his friends in New York that; for various reasons, private and public, he could not be a candidate for nomination

Having made that auno uncement he would lack the honor of a min, he would do great injustice to those friends to permit his name to be used, as a member of the New York delegation he personally thought it advisable to support an eminent jurist of that State for nomination; but he was not actuated in in this by any doubt of the ability or patrictism of tee distinguished gedtlsman who has been placed in nomination. He knew that General McClellan did not seek the nomination. He knew that able officer had declared that it would be more agreea-What a bright picture does it present, in ble to him to resume his position in the army ; but he will not honor any less the high position assigned him by the great majority

M.E B.M.

He desired to add a few words in reference to Maryland and her honored delegation (Mr. Harris) because he (Seymour) did not adjourned : understand the purport of his remarks, and he now desired to say that that high-toned gentleman was in apable of taking a position in this Convention, participating in its deliberations, while refusing to abide by its de-THE NOMINATIONS MADE UNANI- cisions.

We are now appealing to the American people to unite and save our country. Let us not look back. It is with the present that we have to deal, Let bygones be bygones. As one Immediately after the Conventions was who did not support him in the New York called to order, and a prayer was offered by delegation, and as one who knows the man well, he felt bound to do him this justice. He (Governor Seymour) would piedge his delegates from the West were of the opinion life that when General McClellan is placed in that circumstances may occur between noon the Presidential chair he will devote all his energies to the best interests of his country, and to securing never again to be invaded all the rights and privileges of the people under the laws and the Constitution.

The President then announced the vote, which was received with deafening cheers, the delegates and the audiance joining, the the band playing and the cheering lasting for several minutes.

Immediately after the nomination a banner on which was painted the portrait of Mc-Clellan and bearing as a motto: " If I cannot have command of my own men, let me $25. share their fate on the field of battle," was, run up behind the President's platform and was welcomed with enthusiastic cheers.

A communication was received from the Chairman of the German People Association of New York claiming to represent 200.000 citizens accompanied by resolutions pledging the same pay as United States troops, and mont, Chase, Seward and Weed, the party port of the Chicago nominee.

Mr, Vallandigham moved that the nomina tion of George B. McClellan be made the quanimous sense of the Convention, which was seconded by Mr. McKeon.

Governor Powell briefly addressed the Convention pledging his most earnest efforts for the success of the ticket.

Juge Allen of Ohio, and others made brief speeches, and the question was then taken on making the nomination unanimous which was declared carried amid deafening applause

Mr. Wickliffe offered a resolution to the effect that Kentucky expects the first acts of McClellan, when inaugurated in March next. will be to open the Lincoln prison doors and set the captives free.

The Convention then proceeded to vote for Vice President. The first ballot resulted as follows:

James Guthrie, 651; George H. Pendle on, 541; Danie, W Voorhees, 13; Geo. W. Cass, 26; August Dodge, 9; J. D. Caton, 16: Governor Powoll, 321; John S. Phelps,

On the second ballot New York threw its stating that its former vote for Guthrie was are in the hands of the State Printer, and will against his wishes. The other candidates be printed, by the authority of the Legislature were then withdrawn and Mr. Pendleton of at an early day. The militia of Pennsylvania, Ohio was unanimously nominated.

He could only promise to devote himself in the future as in the past to the great principles which lie at the foundation of our Government, the rights of the State and liberties of the people, In the future as in the past he would be faithful to the great principles of Democracy; and strong in their cause with the hearts of mili ions of freedom with them, they will again build up the shattered fragments of the Union and hand it down to the next generation as it was received from the last,

A committee of one from each State was appointed to inform the candidates of their nomination, and request their acceptance.

It was resolved that one person from each State, to be selected by the delegates thereof be appointed to form a National Executive Committee.

It was also resolved that 100 000 cypies of the proceedings of the Convention be printed Resolved, That the Democracy of the country be requested to meet in the differ ent cities, and hold mass ratification meetings on the 17th of September, the anniversary of the adoption of the Federal Constitution.

After a vote of thanks to the officers of the Constitution, with nine cheers for the ticket, the Constitution adjourned, subject to the call of the National Committee.

The Raid on Columbia County,

The news from Camp Benton, Columbia county, is meagre. The grape vine telegraph is not in working order to that point, por in fact from any other near the base of operations of the army. "Intelligent contrabands" report all quiet along the lines about Benton, Stillwater and Iola. The "reliable gentleman" says, that Gen. Couch proposes to fight it out on this line if it takes all summer" to reach Canada obstructions. A " respectable lady" a refugee just arrived, states Couch's men had by a forced march of some 15 miles last Sunday, arrived at the seat of rebellion, but were dismayed and chagrined to fined no enemy. The last report states that a large party of the rank and file were about outflanking a Springhouse while anoth er squad were scouting around a bake-oven.

We have still further news from a White man, who notwithstanding his color looks like a reliable man, who says, it is rumored and believed in certain quarters, that there never was any very great force assembled in the Fishing Creek region, and that the story of the "seven miles of Fortafications,, all grew out of a "stump frolic." One of the residents of that stumpy region having conceived the idea of removing from his fields the huge stumps that so greatly hindered his farming operations, and building with them a "s tump fence" procured a machine and invited his neighbors to help him. While the work was progressing, a very nervous man passing by saw their movements, becoming alarmed est Fishing Creek should secede from the Union, made report to the Union League Head Quarters at Bloomsdurg, from whence notice was issued about that seven miles of Fortifications, - Danville Intelligencer.

We should regret this, for we feel confident that there is such a fast growing sentiment in the Army, and among the people, in favor of Peace, and such increasing opposition to War for the Negro, and to the odious conscription diarts, that the Democracy, with a sound conservative candidate, upon a Peace and State Rights platform, are sure to be successful.

As evidence of & Old Abe's" declining popularity, we quote from some of the promnent Republican Journals in different States. The Albany Statesman says:

"There is only one way to prevent the Democrats from electing the next President. and that is, to have President Lincoln decline the nomination. Divided as the part y now is between the friends of Lincoln, Fre cannot avoid a most humiliating defeat in Novembr."
