From Rev. J Newton Brown, D. D. Editor of th Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge Although not disposed to favor or recommend Pa ent Medicines in general, through distrust of theing e-lients and effects, I yet know of no sufficien reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he ma, thus contaibu the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofand' German Bitters prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for this city, because I was prejudiced against them fit many years, under the impression that they were hiefly an airobolic mixture. I am included to my friend Robert Sho maker. Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragem in the try them when suffering from great and long continued detility.
