Sinton Williams, formerly Register and Recorder of this County, was taken suddenly ill at Nicholson, on Friday last; and continuing to grow worse, died on Monday. His disease was supposed to have been congestion of the lungs.

Another Draft for this county, took place a day or two since. We have been unable to procure a list of the victims There seems to be litt le or no probability that any man, who is liable, will escape the draft under the 300,000 call; which will soon take place.

"Vote for Lincoln and avoid the draft."

Thanks .-- The undersigned would most respectfully return their thanks to the numerous friends that so generously donated to them on the afternoon an I evening of Jan. 26, at Meshoppen. We assure you, we shall ever remember you and that visit with pleasure, and we pledge ourselves to continue to labor to keep and merit your future love and es-A, O. WARREN. S. U. WARREN.

On Farlough .-- L'eut. D. C. Kitchen, of the 3rd New York Independent Battery-our whilen correspondent-is now on a short visit to his wife and friends at this place. CLINT's acknowledged ability, and courteous demeanor towards his con panions, as well as bravery and good conduct in the orduous and trying duties of the field, has secured him, what is called in soldier phrase, "a soft position." That he may escape contact with hostile rebel bullets, and return from the wars for the third and last time, is the earnest and heartfelt wish of his numerous friends.

Rev. Rutan's Donation .-- The friends and neighbors of the unfortunate Rev. A. RUTAN, of Fairmount township, Luzerne county -who has been sentenced by this miserably contemptible Administration to a fine of two hundred dollars and confinement of six months in Fort Mifflin, because he is a Democrat-last week made Mr. Rutan's poor Family a Donation visit and gave them a cash present of about FIVE adelphia. Pa. HENDRED DOLLARS. This act was most just and commendable. Justice will ultimately triumph .-Co'umbia Derrocrat, Exeunt Schooney !-- We notice by a late Montrose paper that the Rev. A. H. Schoonmaker announces his intention of "removing to the West." He advertises his personal effects for sale, at the public Auction. Among the articles he enumerates for sale, at the parsonage, we find book cases furniture, silver plated harnesses &c. &c. but, nary a pitcher. Can it be possible that he is going to take that pitcher "clean out West" to bury it? We hope his reverence will at least leave a lock of his wig with some one east of the Rocky Mountains .-It would be such a precious memento!

Obituary,

In Sterlingville. Wyoming County. Pa, Jan. 10. 1865, GEORGE HOLLENBACK STERLING, in the 21st year of his age. "Death Joves a shining mark."

The death of this young Sol lier of the Republic, adds another to the already numerous families made desolate by he ravages of war, and carried sadness to the hearts of his many friends. To his memory, his family and his friends, a short record of his career is due. Lieut. Sterling was born Dec. 8, 1844. Sept. 21,

1861, being then not quite seventeen years of age, he enlisted as a private in Company B. of the 52nd Regt. of the P, V. On the arrival of his Regt. at Washington, he was detailed as Adjutant a nd Colonel's c'e k. and in this capacity went through all the hardships and all the dangers of the Peninsula

When the army retu rned to Yorktown, Mr. Ster-Fing was made Sergeant Major of his Regt. and went with it to the Department of the South, and was in all the battles on Morris Island, including the siege of Fort Wagner. Here be was appointed Adjutant and remained in this capacity until the spring of 1864; when at the special request of Gen Terry, now the hero of Fort Fisher, he was detailed by the War Department as his Aid de Camp.

From this time onward, M. Sterling was with the army of the James, participating in all the battles fought by that army under Gen. Butler.

The 10th of July, 1864, having been sent by Gen Butler, on private business to Philadel phia, he was taken prisoner on the same raid with Gen. Franklin, near Gunpowder Creek ; and after a long, weary march, reached Columbia S, C, where he was confined until Dec 8th, 1864, his birth day, when he was released on parole.

An i now, the hopes of his family and friends self. rose high. Their anxiety ceased, their apprehenslons were allayed. His health was apparently good, and an henorable career was before him.

But, Alas for human hopes! Searcely had he time to exchange congratulations with relations and friends before fierce disease set in and hurried him to the grave. Thus has passed away from us another young, hopeful, generous spirit. a precious

LOVE-In Mehoopany on Thursda 7 February, 2d. William. son of John Jr, and E. A, Love, aged 5 years, 2 months and 23 days.

Our William is calmly sleeping In the grave. And above his lonely pillow Violets wave,

Very sad and weary was he He's at rest. Grieve no more oh loved ones for him God knows best.

Knew that he was tired and wearv Of earths strife. So he in his kindness took him From this life.

But our hearts are cometimes lonely Now he's gone. Though we know the angels garments He's put on.

And we miss his voice at even By the hearth. And we never more shall hear it Upon earth.

Pure was his heart and gentle As the dove. God took him up to Heaven, Because of love.

Calm he sleeps his white hands folded O'er his breast. Hush! speak not so loud I pray you Let him rest.

Then weep ye no longer for him He is free, From all the world, sunkindness, Pain and misery,

So William we will leave the sleeping, Here in peace. Thou art resting we'll not grieve At thy release.

Surely burn the stars at even. In the sky. So we'll surely meet thee William By and by.
