

Miscellaneous.

HINTS TO YOUNG GENTLEMEN.

Don't give up your seat in the cars when you are tired with your day's work to a pert young miss who has been amusing herself with a little shopping...

Don't talk literature and the fine arts of the pretty girls of your acquaintance until you are sure they know the difference between Thompson's Seasons and Thompson's Arithmetic...

Don't accept a young lady's invitation to do shopping with her unless you have previously measured the length of your purse.

Don't believe any woman an angel. If you feel any symptoms of that disease, take a dose of sage tea and go to bed—it is a much malady as the small pox...

Remember all this advice, sir, and you may make rather less of a fool of yourself than you would otherwise.

The so-called instinct of animals—the ass which perceives the angel's presence sooner than the prophet—ought to be regarded as the greatest miracle of creation.

Senator Chandler, in one of his boozey flights, declares that "the mildest law he could pass, would be to cast every traitor into the sea."

A cat and a large family of kittens were the only occupants of Fort Snater when taken possession of by the Federal troops.

If you miss a train you don't have to wait for it—and that's a comfort.

A man can't be old but once, and that's a consolation.

Human existence hinges upon trifles—what's beauty without soap?

A person should be just before he is generous.

Men slip on water when it is frozen and on whiskey when it isn't.

Why is necessity like a great many lawyers? Because it knows no law.

Some ladies use paint as fillders do rosin—to aid them in drawing a beau.

The gentleman of the law are general accounted grave people, yet smiles are a common thing at the bar.

We love ourselves notwithstanding our faults and we ought to love our friends in like manner.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates from thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Address the publishers.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When one tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what attitude to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and even destroyed, this has gained friends by every trial conferred benefits on the afflicted that can never be forgotten, and has restored to life and health thousands who were once thought to be beyond the reach of human aid.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SASSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value. Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. and sold by Sam'l. Stark Tunkhannock, and all dealers in medicine everywhere.
