

Miscellaneous.

AN APOLOGY.—"Did you say I wasn't fit to carry swill to swine, Mr. Brown?" "I did, sir."

Two years ago (writes a correspondent) at the Spring term of the District Court, at Topeka, Kansas, Judge Rush Elmore presiding, a witness was called upon the stand.

A Connecticut editor, having got into a controversy with a contemporary congratulated himself that his head was safe from a "donkey's heels."

One of the German almanacs says that a young girl is a fishing rod, the eyes are the hooks, the smile is the bait, the lover is the gudgeon and the marriage the butter in which he is fried.

Adam was fond of his jokes, and when he saw his sons and daughters marry one another, he drily remarked to Eve that if there had been an apple, there would have been no pairing.

The editor of a denominational paper at the West says: "A man needs grace to edit a religious paper properly at any time, but especially when he has the rheumatism."

That was a smart youngster who, hearing his mother remark that she was fond of music, exclaimed, "Then why don't you buy me a drum?"

What is the best tar for making the wheels of life run smoothly? The altar.

If you in lager-beer find no bliss, and loathe cigars—no child to kiss—no wife to love—no gal to hug—don't seek oblivion in the jug; and if you haven't any sister, just ask some chap to lend you his, her spark for a little while—then "splice," and all the best will come in nice.

A Toast.—"Here's to internal improvements!" as Dobbs said when he swallowed a dose of salts.

The boy who was told that the best cure for the palpitation of the heart was to quit kissing the girls, said, "If that's the only remedy, I say let her palpitate!"

The "Perrinam county" debating club, out in Indiana, are debating the question, "Which is the proudest, a girl with her first baby, or a woman with her first baby?"

An editor in Western N. Y. is in a bad fix. He dunned a subscriber for his subscription, which he refused to pay, and threatened to flog the editor if he stopped the paper.

A dancing master was taken up lately in New York, for robbing a fellow border. He said he commenced by cheating a printer, and after that, everything rascally came easy to him.

Among the curiosities lately placed in a museum is a mosquito's bladder, containing the souls of twenty-four government contractors, and the fortunes of twelve editors. It is nearly half full.

At the other evening one gentleman pointed out a dandified individual to a friend as a sculptor.

"What!" said his friend, "such a looking chap as that a sculptor? Surely you must be mistaken."

"He may not be the kind of one you mean," said the informant, "but I know that he chiseled a tailor out of a suit of clothes last week."

"See here, Musther," said an Irish lad of seven summers, who was treading by a dog, if you don't take that dog away, I'll eat up your apples."

A woman applied for a free ride on the railroad near Troy, N. Y., on the ground that she had three husbands in the army.

"You quarrel with your wife, my friend and why do you not think and wish alike?" "God knows we do," said poor Caudle; "each of us wants to be master."

Manhood: how lost, how restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure without medicine of SPERMATORRHOEA, or seminal weakness, involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents. The celebrated author, in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Address the publishers, CHAS. J. C. KLINE & CO. 127 Bowery, New York, Post Office box 4, 566 v4-a78-1y
