

Miscellaneous

Barnum was travelling once on board of one of the river steamers when they feed you for a moderate outlay (seventy five cents a meal) very sumptuously, but the portions supplied are usually of microscopic dimensions.

WHERE DID THAT MAN GO?—In a certain hotel in this village there is employed a butler, who is in the habit of taking his "tod" pretty freely, but always makes it a point never to drink in the presence of his employer.

THE REASON WHY—Three or four times a couple appeared before a clergyman for marriage, but the bridegroom was drunk, and the reverend gentleman refused to tie the knot.

A letter from Raleigh N. C. says that a good story is told of a gallant brigadier who made a visit to the Asylum of the Deaf and Dumb at this place, he being so much delighted that he sent his band over the same evening to serenade the inmates.

NO DOUBT OF IT.—As one of our deputy sheriffs, a day or two since, was speaking of taking a man to prison, he said he would much rather take a lady.

"How long will it take me to go to Richmond?" asked an eager officer at the City Point of a veteran brigadier holding command there, soon after we got the good news.

A young lady was told by a married lady that she had better precipitate herself off the Niagara Fall into the basin beneath than marry.

A young lady objected to a negro's carrying her across a mudhole, because she thought herself too heavy.

Both the murderer, had invested eighty dollars in one share of western oil land when he died it was worth fifteen thousand dollars.

A young lady refused to go into the Water-viet Arsenal the other day, because she heard that some of the muskets were without breeches.

A widow of Sonora, Mexico, who has 150,000 acres of land and three daughters, wants some smart Yankee to come and marry one of the girls and superintend her farm.

Some wretched Benedict perpetrates the following:—Why is a bridegroom worth more than a bride? Because she is given away and he is sold.

BETTER TIMES.—A New York dealer heads his advertisement—"we are on the home stretch—poor folks can buy a shirt once more."

Nevada, "the baby State" of the Union, produced last year, fifteen millions in silver. That child of Uncle Sam's was certainly born with a silver spoon in its mouth.

The best dowry to advance the marriage of a young lady is to have in her countenance mildness; in her speech wisdom, and in her behavior modesty.

Passage from the diary of late physician—"The fellow got well before I came."

"If we can't hear, it aint for the lack of ears," as the ass said to the corn-field.

When is butter like Irish children? Ans. When it is made into little pats.

When is a cat like a tea pot? When your tea's in it.

Why does a duck go under the water?—For divers reason.

What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossett.

Idleness is the mint to coin mischief.
