TO ADVERTISERS. The circulation of the PHILADELPHIA AGE, which is steadily and rapidly growing, makes it at least as valuable a medium for advertising as any other commercial and business newspaper in PHILADELPHIA and the fact that it reaches a large class of commercial readers, scattered over a vast extent of country, who do not take any other Philadelphia paper, commands it to an extraordinary degree, as a means of communicating with the public not possessed by any other journal published in this city.

TAE AGE IS NOW ESTABLISHED ON A SURE AND PERMANENT FOUNDATION. The Publishers could easily fill their columns with the (enough) and most liberal commendations of the press throughout the country; but they prefer that it should stand altogether upon claims to public confidence well-known and established. It will be, as heretofore, the supporter of true National, Conservative, Democratic, Union principles, opposed alike to radicalism and fanaticism in every form, and devoted to the maintenance of Good Government, Law, and Order.
