From the "Dispatch" of February 25, 1865. We take pleasure in colling the attention of our readers to the announcement of Messrs Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, Silver Ware, and Fancy Goods, in our advertising columns. We are personally acquainted with the members of this firm and know them to be gentlemen of sterling worth and integrity. Their stock of goods for variety and extent, we have scarcely seen paralleled.

From the "Mirror of Fashion," March 1, 1865. Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jeweley, etc., opened on the 15th ult., and we veature to say that no finer display of goods was ever exhibited by any establishment in this city. The ladies througed their bazaar almost to suffocation, although the streets were rendered nearly impassable by the melted snow and slush. We predict for them a wonderful success.

From the "Ledger," February 28 1865. Our lady friends should visit the extensive establishment of Messis. Devaugh & Co. No, 15 Maiden Lane, if they wish to include themselves with a sight which they will long remember. Such a profusion of ciegant Watches, Chains, Rings, Earrings and, in short, of Jewelry of every name, kind and description, we never before witnessed. Their silver and plated ware is superb and almost casts into the shade the other splendid escablishments which have long been the boast of our city. It is estimated that their stock is worth not less than one million of dol-

From the "Tribune" of April 21, 1865. An acquaintance of over 19 years with Messrs. Girard W. Devaugh & Co. warrants us in speaking in the highest terms of them. They are among our oldest Maiden Lane Jewelers and have long enjoyed a wide and enviable reputation.

From the "Staats Zeitung" of April 24, 1865. Many of the hands in our office have speculated in the Enterprise of Messrs. Devaugh & Co., and though none of them have yet realized "a fortune," all express themselves well pleased with their ven ture. Two of them by working after hours have made over $200 each within six weeks.
