Woman—The morning star of infancy—the day star of manhood—the evening star of age. Bless our stars!

Our "devil" says that getting in love is something like getting drunk; the more a fellow does it, the more he wants to.

"My gracious!" exclaimed an urchin in New York, on beholding an English carriage with three footmen in livery. "Well, if it don't take three British to make one nigger!"

When Simpkins' wife kicked him out of bed, says he, "See here, now, you'd better not do that again; if you do, it will cause a colic."

"Excuse the freedom of the press," as the editor said when he hugged his neighbor's wife.

BRIGHAM YOUNG'S MOTTO.—"Quick returns and small prophets."

"William, my son, how came you to muddy your dress so?" William pauses a moment thoughtfully, then looking the governor in the face, soberly asks: "Father, what am I made of?" "Dust, the Bible says: 'dust thou art, and unto dust thou shalt return.'" "Well, father, if I am dust, how can I help being muddy when it rains on me?"

SECRET TESTIMONY.—The following is said to be a part of the suppressed testimony offered at the trial of the assassins:

Judge—Mr. Murphy, were you at Ford's Theatre on the night of the assassination?

Mr. Murphy—I was, indeed, your honor.

Judge—Did you see J. Wilkes Booth jump from the box after shooting the President?

Mr. Murphy—Bad 'cess to him, I did, your honor.

Judge—Did you hear what he said, and if so what was it?

Mr. Murphy—I heard what he said very well your honor, and all he said was: "I'm sick, send for Meginnis." (Sic Semper Tyrannis.)

THE TENDER PASSION.—Thackeray says that "when a man is in love with one woman in a family, it is astonishing how fond he becomes of every one connected with it. He ingratiates himself with the maids; he runs on errands for the daughters; he gives and lends money to the young son at college; he puts little dogs which he would kick otherwise; he smiles at old stories, which would make him break out in yawns if were uttered by any one but papa; he drinks sweet Port wine, for which he would curse the steward and the whole committee at a club; he bears even with the cantankerous old maiden aunt; he beats time when the darling little Fanny performs her piece on the piano; and smiles when wicked, little Bobby upsets the coffee on his shirt."

At a recent election, a merchant presented himself at the polls, accompanied by a well known physician, when with a view to avoid taking his turn in the long row of voters, the physician interceded for his friend and requested that the crowd would give him the head of the line, on the ground of being under medical treatment. The merchant looked as if he was in the prime of health, when Fred. Walter, penetrating the dodge, spoke out:

"I say, doctor is that man under your treatment?" "Yes, sir," said the doctor, with exquisite politeness, "he is now under my treatment." "Then, gentlemen," exclaimed Fred. "let the man vote at once; he'll never have another chance."

A St. Johnsville minister came down to Dorp one day, a good many years ago; and among others to whom he condescended to deal out spiritual intelligence was an aged negro. "Cuff," he said, "have you ever thought of death?" "Yes, sah," was the reply, "an I've spoke to old Place." "But what of your soul, Cuff?" asked the minister solemnly; "do you know that if that's not saved, you will go to hell?" "What's dat?" asked the negro. "It is a lake of fire and brimstone, Cuff." The response was slightly unsatisfactory. "How de debil you know? You never been dar?"

NATIVITY OF THE PENNSYLVANIA DELEGATION WHO SIGNED THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.—

George Clymer, born in Philadelphia. Benjamin Franklin, born in Boston. Robert Morris, born in Lancashire, England. John Morton, born in Delaware county, Pennsylvania. Benjamin Rush, born in Philadelphia. George Ross, born in Newcastle, Delaware. James Smith, born in Ireland. George Taylor, born in Ireland. James Wilson, born in Scotland. Pennsylvania contributed nine of the fifty six signers representing thirteen States, being the largest number of signers from any one State, Virginia having seven signers, New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, five signers each. Of the Pennsylvania delegation, three were born within the State; two were born in Ireland; one was born in Delaware, one in Massachusetts, one in England, and one in Scotland. Five were born in the United States and four in the British Isles.

A couple of old toppers in some way got into a quarrel, and, for some time, hurled all the approved blackguardism of the pot-house at each other, when one of them, determining to extinguish the other immediately, exclaimed—"Go, I have no more to say; I scorn you as I do glass of water!"
