NEGRO SUFFRAGE AND EQUALITY.

Over all creation, In the church and forum, Black and white are rated Equal ad valorem, Worth is estimated By the form and figure; W-nt you feel elated, Equal to the "nigger?"

Everywhere we see it, Though we do not like it, In amalgamation Black and white united. We are not fastidious— Can put up with either; But protect us, Heaven, From a race of neither!

Velvet headed preachers, Kinky-headed lawyers, Curly-headed teachers, Woolly head employers, Mingling everywhere, Neither white nor black— Neither wool nor hair!

Women clad in sable, White as white can be— Kinky-headed baby, Dancing on the knee! Little ebony beauty, Just the very figure Of the woman's husband— North Carolina nigger!

See that high official, And his lovely bride, In an open buggy, Seated side by side; He of Massachusetts, Haughty to as Hades, She a Guinea sable, Black as sea of spades

Over all creation, In the church and forum, Black and white are rated Equal ad valorem Worth is estimated By the form and figure; W-nt you feel elated, Equal to the "nigger?"

PRACTICAL JOKING.—A few days since, writes an attorney as I was sitting with brother C—in his office in Court Square, a client came in and said: "Square, D—W—, the stable, shaved me dreadfully, yesterday, and I want to come up with him.

"State your case," says C.— Client: "I asked him how much he'd charge me for a horse to go to Delham. He said one dollar and a half. I paid him one dollar and a half, and he said he wanted another dollar and a half for coming back, and made me pay it."

Client: "I gave him some legal advice, which the client immediately acted upon as follows:— He went to the stable and said: "How much will you charge me for a horse and wagon to go to Salem?" "Stabler replied, "Five dollars."

Client: "I gave him some legal advice, which the client immediately acted upon as follows:— He went to the stable and said: "How much will you charge me for a horse and wagon to go to Salem?" "Stabler replied, "Five dollars."

WON'T PASS FOR AN ANGEL.—A Vagrant called at a house on Sunday and begged for a drink of cider. The lady of the house refused to give him any. He reminded her of the oft quoted remark that "she might entertain an angel unaware." "Yes," she said, "but angels don't go about drinking cider on Sunday."

A lady, bathing at Guilford, Conn., on Saturday, came near being drowned, but was rescued by her husband. On reaching the shore, her first exclamation was—"Will the salt water hurt my waterfall?"

A lady came in great haste into a drug store, and, half out of breath, exclaimed, "Mother sent me down to the shotecary pop to get a thimbleful of naltzeric. Bub's as thick as dicken't—not expected to live from one end to t'other!"

"What do you ask for that article?" inquired Obadiah of a young Miss, "Fifteen shillings." "Ain't you a little dear?" "Why," she replied, blushing, "all the young men tell me so."

If a rich man wishes to live in health," wrote Sir W. Temple, "he must live like a poor man."

Woman has found her true "sphere" at last; it is about twenty-seven feet round, made of hoops.
