

TUNKHANNOCK, PA Wednesday, Oct. 18, 1865.

We acknowledge ourselves under obligations to the editor of the Republican. for quoting so liberally from the old files of Democrat, for the past three or four weeks. He will doubtless find it greatly to his advantage, and far more satisfictory to his readers, to make up his paper hereafter entirely from the Democrat.

We protest, however, against his mixing up and diluting our articles with his namby pamby milk and-water nonsense. By pablishing them without comment, he would avoid the contrast, and appear less ridiculous. Besides, the association is rather too humil iating to us.

The nincompuop editor of the nigger equality organ of this place well knowing that our sense of propriety forbade us to ad vocate claims to the suffrages of the people, through the colums of our own paper, for the past fe w weeks previous to our election attacked us with impunity. Oblivious of the fact that there were other candidates equally opposed to his infamous doctrines, he poured ced to six years' imprisonment and hard laout all the via's of his wrath and invective upon a "Northern Rebel aspiring to office", as he styled us.

It is difficult to estimate exactly the influence exerted over the result by his frantic appeals to the people, to defeat us. Judging of it by a standard he would doubtless fix himself, we do not hesitate to declare that our majority was thereby reduced hundreds -perhaps thousands. Being so reduced, we received, as will be seen, no greater vote than the rest of our candidates. Shame on you, Billy ! How could you do so nau shty a thing?

The Election.

So far as we have been able to learn, the entire republican vote, not only in this coun ty, but throughout the State, was polled at the recent election. By means of their secret leagues, or some other instrumentality, they are enabled to make sure of the attendance of every member of their party at the elections, while we have the most indubita ble evidence of unaccountable neglect on part of democrats to turn out. This neglect seems even more apparent in some other counties of this State than in Wyoming ; and yet, in some of the townships in our own county, nearly or quite one fourth of the democratic voters failed to attend the recent election. Acting under the impression that it was not an important one, they have al lowed the republicans to carry the State, by a comparatively small majority, when by doing their duty to themselves and the Country we should have triumphed by a much larger one. This was a terrible mistake, while the miserable issue of negro suffrage continues to agitate the country, no election can be unimportant. The denial of the republican State Committee that negro suffrage was involved in the contest will be found to have been a cheat. Indeed, Greeley so declared it before the day of clection; and rebuked the Committee on account of its dishonest attempt to disguise the real issue. That attempt, however, will not pre went them from insisting that Pennsylvania has decided in tavor of Negro Suffrage ; and yet, had the republicans placed themselves fairly and squarely upon that issue no sane man believes that they could have carried the State. The democratic party of this State may thank itself for its recent defeat. Little Wymoing is all right yet ; but the vote was too close to justify such neglect in the future as characterized the action of the democracy in some of the townships at the late election. THE New York Tribune' affects to speak as an oracle of the abolition party, and en deavors to throw obstacles in the way of the peaceful restoration of the Southern States. It does not endorse the policy of the President. From an atticle which appeared in its colums a few days ago, we cut the following

ATTEMPTED E-CAPE OF DR. MUDD - The fficers of the steamship Daniel Wel.ster, fr. m New Orleans on the 221 ult., report that during the landing of prisoners at Dry Tortugas, Dr. Mudd attempted to escape, and was found in the coal bunkers of the steamer Thomas Scott, and put to hard labor wheeling sand. The Tribune has the following particular The prisoners at the Tortugas are allowed the liberty of the island, except on the day of a vessel's departure. At night they are expected to sieep within the fort. The night previous to the return of the Thomas Scott, Dr. Mudd slept outside the fort, in a shed and the next morning he quietly walked on board the steamer, immed ately disappeared into the lowest deck and sent a firemen for Quartermaster Kelly. This was the last that was seen of him. Soon after he was missed from the fort, and an officer and squad sent John P Lini down to search the vessel, On the very bot-Jacob M. (a tom of the vessel lay a platform resting on two cross-beams; the officer thrust his Silas E Snep sword under one side, and a colored soldier Geo Landon inserted his bayonet under the other. The roar of pain that immediately rose told that both sword and bayonet had reached their C. S G bert mark ; the platform was raised, and Dr. Modd arose and returned to his status of a captive prisoner. He was immediately taken to the fort and the thumb screws applied to Lewis Cook, him, and under the presare of pain he ac knowledged that Kelly, with whom he had formed an acquaintance within a few uave. had agreed to help him to escape on the promise of receiving Mudd's gold watch. Kelly was thereupon marched to the fort, a drum head court martial held, and he was senten-bor in the Toriugas. The vessel then sail d without Mudd or Kelly, and the papers were forwarded to Washington for confirmation.

Crowding the Mourners.

The heavy majority in the new State of Colorado against putting negroes on a civi and political equality with white men, followed by the refusal, by a decided vote, of the people of Connecticut to admit negioes to an equality with themselves, is crowding the Radical mourners rather hard just now. The people are determined that this shall remain a white man's government, and hat there shall be no civil and political equality of the white and black races in this country Colorado and Connecticut have applied two breaks to retard the progress of the Radical negro-equality locomotive. The ac tion of these two States will result in great good to the country. It will encourage President Johnson to press to consummation his restoration policy, while it will, at at the same time, give the Radical to understand that the people will not submit to their scheme for governing the South, and placing whites and blacks on an equality ---Cincinnati Inquirer.

Browalow and the Colored Soldiers.

Parson Bronlow, it seems, has been in colision with soldiers of the colored persuasion. and don't like it. The following is a description of the affair, from the Governor's own State of Georgia; George A. Trenholm, in ton Commonwealth calls for the impeachment "One half of all the colored soldiers in uni forms, in East Tennessee, have no respect for that Uniform, and do not appreciate its dignity and importance. Two of them in full uriform, sometime since, up n & narrow sidewalk in this city, knockel the writer of this article into the gutter, throwing him upon his hands and knees. He was trying to get out of the way and they saw it, but being feeble, and leaning upon a staff, he moved too slow for their ideas of progress. I made no complaint, but concluded that these colored roffians had not "learned to respect the uniform of the army " and went my way-not I was worsted in the encounter, which I had not brought about, but sought to prevent Soldiers and officers wearing the Federal Uni form ought all to be gentlemen, no matter what their color, but the only two colored soldiers I ever encountered did not prove to be of that siripe. We were in hopes that we could say "all this week, but we are sorry to say that we After two weeks of soberness and quiet, the bucket of good resolutions was kicked over and the whole mess wasted It seemed as if all muture was miling at the reformation that was taking place in Tunkhannock. The woods doffed their sober mantle of green and bedecked themselves with their gayest and most variegated apparel, and the pleasant days of Indian Summer, gladdened the hearts of all. We do not suppose that all this display was made solely on this account, bat have an idea that the leaves of the maples took a deeper tinge of red. (perhaps the rud-ly glow that was wont to ornament the now paling noses of some was transferred to them.) and the oaks and beach trees assumed a still brighter hue of orange. If dame nature in her exultation was gui ty of this little piece of vanity, she will now "hide her diminished head in shame," over what occurred on Saturday night. Some payple would have undoabtedly thought it funny. Perhaps it was. She rose from her delicious sleep, And put away her soft brown hair, And in a tone as low and deep As loves first whisper, breathed a prayer. Her snow-white hands together pressed, Her blue eyes sheltered in the lid, The folded linen on the breast. Just swelling with the charms it hid And from her long and flow Escaped a bare and snowy foot, Whos step upon the earth did press Like a new sn w-flake soft and And then, from slumbers soft and mate; Like a young spirit fresh from Heaven; She bowed that light and matchless form, And humbly prayed to be forgiven."

Connecticut has voted on the question of striking the word "white" from her Constitution, and the popular verdict is against negro suffrage and equality. The amendment is defeated by a large majority. There was no mistaking the issue in that State. The Republicans took open ground in favor of negro suffrage. Their journals all urged the into a virtual mejority by vallifying the black adoption of the amendment as of vital importance to the success of the party in the great struggle for negro suffrage and equality. They were assisted in the canvass by a large ma jority of the clergy, who appealed to their con gregations to vote for the amendment. All that wealth and influence could go, was dony in favor of the measure. The politicians declared that if Connecticut withheld the elec we franchise from the African, it was in va in tto insist upon negro suffrage in the Southern States, preliminary to the a imission of their representatives to Congress.

The voters of Connecticut turned a deat ear to these appeals, and refused to strike the word "white" from their State Consti tution, , By so doing, they endorsed the Pres ident's restoration policy, and took ground in favor of reunion with the Southern States under the Constitution. It is plain that the people are disgusted with the radicals. They wish for repose, that the country may recov er from the eff-cts of the struggle from which it is emerging. Hence the defeat of the ne gro party in Colorado and in Connesticut.
