VALUABLE STEAM FLOORING MILL FOR SALE.

That large Five Story Stone Mill known as is the Borough of Pittston, Luzerne Co. Pa, situated is the heart of the Wyoming and Lackawanna Coal Fields, certainly possesses advantages of lo-eality, water and railroad communications that no her mill can compete with.

It has a water communication from its very door to Baltimore, Md on the one side, and Euffalo, N. Y. on the other, while communication is had by railroad with all parts of the country, and a bridge spanning the Susquehanna brings the grain of Wy-oming valley and all business crossing the river

The de case of JAMES MOTT, Esq., its proprie-tor, is the cause of this valuable property being thrown on the market. Mr. Mott, as is well known ras a practical miller, and after the destruction of his old mill by fire, conceived the idea of erecting a model mill, and from his ample means built the present structure. furnished with engine, four run of atone and modern machinery, in the most ample manner. He built it on a rock, on which its massive manner. He built to a rock, on which its massive foundation rests, and rises five stories high from the canal, the grinding floor being the middle story. It is the most solid structure in the county, and was ever after reviewed with hon st pride, and justly, too, as an enduring monument of the owner's indus-

The storage capacity of the mill is enormous, and four, grain, &c., are loaded and unloaded from canal boats by improved elevators. There is machinery to convey grain to any part of the mill it is required. A home market offers a ready sale for required. A home market offers a ready and all the bran, shorts, and mill stuff manufactured, at good prices.

There is a Lot, Dwelling-House and Barn, suitable for the miller, and a Store and Lot adjoining the Mill property, which will be sold with it if de-

If not sold before the 20th of March it will be of-fered for rent. Every practical business man who investigates the desirableness of its location and the permanence of its structure must be fully convinced that this is a most favorable opportunity to make a sure and profitable investment, and affords a rare sure and profitable investment, and affords a rare chance to accumulate a fortune.

The terms, if desired, might be one-quarter down, with ten equal yearly payments, with interest on whole sum of unforced payments annually.

Further particulars can be learned by adds essing either of the subscribers.
