Look Out .-- Well executed counterfeits of the new five dollar national bank bills are now in circulation. They can be detected by the flags of the company around Columbus, on the back of the note The genuine has a cross, and other characters, while in the counterfeits there are none; the flags are blurred.

Strumous or Scrofulous affections are the curse, the blight, the potato rot of mankind. They Capital Stock, are vile and filthy as well as fatal They arise from contamination and impurity of the blood, and are to be seen all around us everywhere. One quarter of all we meet are tainted with them, and one quarter of these die of them; die foolishly too, because they are curable. AYER'S SABSAPARILLA cleanses out the Scrofulous corruption from the blood, renders it pure and healthy, and effectually expurgates the foul contamination from the system. No longer groan under your Scrofulous disord rs, since the irresistible AYER has provided his masterly combination of curative virtues that he calls SARSAP ARILLA - Democrat, Waterbury, Ct.

WANTED. $27.60 per day.

AGENTS wanted, ladies and gentlemen, in every County in the United States, to sell the Ink Powders of the American Ink Company. The powder sells for forty cents per package, and will make ink enough to fill fifty bottles of the size usually retailed at ten to fill fifty bottles of the size usually retailed at ten cents per bottle. A smart agent can sell a gross of it a day, and clear $27.60. The ink can be made from the powder in three minutes in common boiling water. It is a perfect black ink, the best in the world. It flows easily, does not corrode the pen a particle, never gums up, is not injured by freezing, and its color will last for ever. Every family in America will buy it, as a package will last a family for years, and ink can be made in small quantities as wanted. With each gross we send a thousand circulars, with testimonials from clergymen lawyers teachers merchants, commercial colleges, editors, teachers merchants, commercial cilleger, editors, &c., and the agent's name on the bills, Only one person will be made agent for a county. The first one sending $30 for a gross of the powder will receive it by return express, together with one thousand oir culars and the right to sell in the county he or she designates. If others send for the same county, the money will be returned to them tree of expense. To make sure, one had better designate several counties either of which he or she will take. Send for trade list and circulars if you dare run the risk of waiting, or send the money for a gross. Letters addressed to the Mayor, Postmaster. cashiers of the banks, or the express agents of this city, will show that the business is honorably and squarely conducted. An Ink Powder will be sent by mail to any address, free of charge, on receipt of forty cents.

other of failed, held it, unshaken of fortune, to a duty self-imposed.

I shall have to follow it through a checkered experience, in a tale commingled of great misfortunes, great follies and great glories; but from first to last it will appear that, amid many buffets of fortunes. through "winter and rough weather," the Army of the Potomac never gave up but made a good fight, and finally reached the goal.

of this drama there will be no other here than the Army of the Potomac itself; for it would seem that in this war of the People it was decreed there should arise no imperial presence to become the central figure and cynosure of men's eyes. Napoleon, in an outburst of haughty eloquence, exclaims that in the great armies of history the Commander was everything. This proud apotheosis has no application for the Army of the Potomac. And one must think—seeing it never hadds great, and generally had medseeing it never hadia great, and generally had mediocre commanders—it was that it might be said, that wherever it won it owed not to genius, but bought
