

Local and Personal.

Local items are about as scarce as "skinned cats" in this region. We can only turn up about one a week. We hope to find both more abundant hereafter.

Showers have been so frequent during the past week, in this part of the "vineyard" that the gathering of hay, and grain crops has been seriously interrupted.

Everything needed in the line of Family Groceries at fair prices, can always be found at the Grocery store of Buck & Fitts, on Bridge street.

Files of Goods of every description are being constantly received and sold at Bunnel & Banatyne's new store, at Stark's Brick Block.

Lime and Cement with a general assortment of goods, at the lowest cash figures, can be had at Sitzer & Co's. store, on Bridge street.

Col. E. W. Smith we learn has been appointed Postmaster at Townsend. Of course the "kicked out" radical is now a "skinned cat" of the most lively kind. Let the skinning process go on. It will be nothing to those slimy hidden fellows—after they get used to it.

A Serenade was given on Saturday evening last by the band, Geo. S. Tutton Esq., their leader, on his return from a two week's trip to the West—Though owing to the absence of his mellow horn, the music was but indifferently played, the attempt was fully appreciated by their very critical listeners. In a later part of the evening, P. M. Osterhout Esq.—a very liberal contributor to the band funds, was given a few "toots"
