Don't Forget to come and see the Great Menagerie and Circus at this place on Saturday next .---The opportunity to see so fine a collection of animals may not occur again in years. Bring along the good 'omen and the little 'uns, and give them one day of pleasure and sight seeing.

Hon, Heister Clymer, the Hon, Montgomery Blair --- and other distinguished speakers will be present at the Democratic Mass Meeting to be held at 1 unkhannock, on Taesday the 18th inst Let the Democratic, conservative, union loving citizens of the county, turn out en masse:

Circulate the Democrat .- - Will not our readers take the pains to ask some one of their neigh bors to subscribe for this paper ? If each of our feaders will send us just one name, there will be more Democratic papers to read, more to lend, and more good, resulting. We kindly ask our readers to aid is the circulation of the Democrat, to get every man to subscribe, who is able to pay for it, and it you meet men who are too poor to pay for one, lend it to him, ask him to send it to his family, to his brother taxpayers, or send us the names of such persons and we will supply them. Let us all work together in the good cause of dealing blows to the abolition disunion enemies of the country.

Dr Franklin--in his autobiography, gives a graphic account of his purchase, when a boy, of a musical instrument in the shape of a whistle-how he emptied his pockets to secure the coveted prize -how he went home making all sorts of discordant sounds --- how he eventually learned "that he had paid to o dear for his whistle." In reading this story we should bear in mind that the writer lived in the city of Boston, and made his purchase more than a hundred years ago. Had be lived in these times and in this vicinity, he could have purchased anything 2nd best, in this vicinity, he could have purchased anything in the shape of a musical instrument, from a Grand Piane, down to a tin whistle, without incurring the risk of paying too dear for it. But then the world would have lost the henefit of that great practical lesson which Franklin drew from his boyhood experience. People, now-adays, who read the story and profit by the lesson, purchase all their musical instruments, sheet music and everything in that line, at the New Music store of L. B. Powell, in the city of Luzerne Democratic Convention .-- The Democracy of Luzerne met at Wilkes-Barre, on Tuesday of last week and placed in nomination the fellowing ticket.

For Congress .-- Hon. Chas. Dennison. Associate Judges --- Thomas Collins, of Dunmore, and Hon. George P. Steele, of Wilkes-barre, Assembly ... D. S. Koon, of Pittsten, Capt. Wm. Brennan, of Carbondale, and James McHenry, New Columbia.

Recorder, --- Charles Erath. Register .-- John Lynch, Commissioner .-- W. W. Smith, Auditor, --- B. D. Koons.

The Republican Convention which came of at this place on Monday last, was a decidedly rich affair, both as to what it did and what it did'nt .--Want of space prevents us from noticing its doing this week further than giving a simple list of its nominations which were as follows:

For Congress,
Representative,
Sheriff, Ulyses Mercur. Jacob Kennedy, R. W Banatyne. " Prothonotary I. S Little. ler, J. B. Edwards. " Register & Treasurer, Chas. Harding. " Commissioner, Chas, Frear, " Coroner,
" Auditor, C A Dana. T A. Miller.

The Circus-so-called-traveling under the name, style and title of "The Great International," on Saturday last, came, saw and "skedaddled."-They came looking, about as we had anticipated and advertised that they would; they saw the smallest crowd ever seen in this place at a circus and left, "animal" of them, with drooping caudal ap pendage. It began to dawn upon their obtuse minds, for the first time, that there were such things as Newspapers in these back woods. The idea didn't strike them forcibly enough however to induce a visit to the editor. Their clown declared us to be a meaner man than himself; which, if within forty rods of the truth, establishes the fact that we are Best three coarse wool lambs, mean enough for everything laid down in the "Pirate's Own Book," or, anything under heaven, ex Best boar, cept perhaps traveling with such a caravan of sneak thieves and mountebanks. Of couse we didn't attend Our devil---being an imp of darkness---did, in the evening, and more than confirmed our epinion of the affair, Although a moral sort of a devil, and though accompanied by a little temale angel of light Best coop Shanghais, and beauty, he came home "danging" and "darning" as only a deluded (printer's) devil would dang and darn at being fooled out of the last dollar in the printer's exchequer.
