OBITUARY

Written on the Death of

NELLIE HARDING.

Listen, do you not hear them singing? Do you not hear the sweet melody not of earth? 'Tis Nellie's voice joining in the; heavenly chorus.—Nellie is dead; yes, she is gone: but where? The silent tomb has indeed opened to receive its own.—True, dust has returned to dust. But, though the pain-racked body is cold in death, is not her spirit reveling in the golden streets of the beautiful city? Does not her voice rise with a thousand corresponding ones, in singing praises unto Him who gave and who taketh away? How truly has been said, "How silent and yet how powerful is the grave?" How true, also, how nearly right were those who rejoiced at the death and mourned at the birth of such Kind parents think of this. Listen and catch angel whispers calling you home. Life is show. Soon we shall all be as is Little Nellie—in the grave. But where will our spirits be? Will they be dwelling above in the Mansion eternal?—Shall we hear the Master's voice, saying "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of the Lord?" God grant it may be thus. Yes, dear friends think of this, and prepare for the Master's coming COM.

In pursuance of an Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act relating to the Elections of this Commonwealth," passed the 2d of July, A. D, 1839.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

"That the Inspectors and Judges chosen as aforesaid shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the districts to which, they respectively belong. before nine o'clock on the morning of the second Tuesday in October, in each and every year, and each of said Inspectors shall appoint one clerk who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

"In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Inspectors shall not attend on the day of Election he, the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Judge at the preceeding election shall act as Inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend, the person elected Judge shall appoint an Inspector in his place; and in case the person elected Judge shall not attend, then the Inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a Judge in his place, and if any vacancy shall continue in the Board for the space of one hour after the time fixed for the opening the election of the qualified voters of the township. ward or district, for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

"In all cases where the names of a person claiming to vote is not to be found on the list furnished by the Commissioners and Assessors, or his right to vote whether found therein or not is objected to by any qualified citizen it shall be the duty of the Inspectors to examine such persons on oath as to his qualifications and if he claims to have resided in the State for one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof; but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness who shall be a qualified elector that has resided within the district for more than ten days immediately preceeding the election, and shall also himself swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling is within the district and that he did not move into the district for the purpose of voting therein.

Every person dualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof, if required, of his residence and payment of taxes as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside

"If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election in this Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager either by verbal proclamaiion thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement challenge or invite any person or persons to make such a bet or wager, upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to bet.

"If any person not by law qualified shall fraudulently vote at any election within this Commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified shall vote out of his proper district, or if any person knowing the want of such qualification shall aid or procure such person or persons offending shall on conviction be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars and be imprisoned for a term not exceeding three months.

"If any person shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently more than once on the same day or shall fraudulently fold and deliver to the Inspectors two tickets together with the intention to illegally vote, or shall vote the same or if any person shall advise or procue other so to do he or they so offending shall on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars and be imprisoned for any term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

"If any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth agreeable to law (excepting the sons of qualified citizens,) shall appear at any place of election for the purpose of issuing tickets or influencing citizens qualified to vote, he shall on conviction forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

"That any person except justices of the peace who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise—a subordinate officer or agent—who is or who shall be employed under the legislative, executive of judiciary department of this State or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district is by law incapable of holding or exercising, at the same time, the office of appointment of Judge, Inspector or, Clerk of any election within this Commonwealth and that no Inspector, Judge or other officer of any such election, shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for.

"No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid, other than white freeman of the age of 21 years or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote, at least ten days immediately preceeding such election, and within two years have paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before election. But a citizen of the United States, who has previously been a qualified voter of this State, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district, and paid taxes aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months, provided that, the white freeman citizens of the United States between the ages of 21 and 22 years and having resided in this State one year, and in the election district 10 days as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote although they shall not have paid taxes.

"No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the Commissioners as aforesaid unless first he produces a receipt for the payment within 2 years of State or County tax assessed agreeably to the Constitution and give satisfactory evidence, either on his oath or affirmation of another that he has paid such tax or on failure to produce a receipt shall make oath to the paymrnt thereof; or second, if he claims a right to vote, by being an elector between the age of 21 and 22 years, he shall dispose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application and make such proof of residence in his district as required by this Act, and that he does verily believe from the account given him that he is of the aforesaid age, and give such other evidence as is required by this Act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the Inspectors, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid a tax. of the word 'age' if he shall be permitted to vote on account of his age, and neither case the reason of such vote shall be called out to the clerks, who shall name it in the list of voters kept by them.

"If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of an election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interfere with him in the execution of his duty or shall block up or attempt to block the window or avenue or any window where the same may be holden, or shall riotously disturb the peace of such election or shall use or practice any intimidation, threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector to prevent him from voting or to restrain the freedom of choice, such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and be imprisoned for any time not less than one nor more than twelve months; and if it shall be shown to the Court where the trial of such offense shall be had that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district, or township where the offence was committed, and not entitled to a vote therein, then on conviction he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and be imprisoned not less than six months or more than two years.

AN ACT

Regulating the mode of voting at all elections, in the several counties of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth, at all general, township, borough and special elections, are hereby, hereafter, authorized and required to vote, by tickets, printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, severally classified as follows: One ticket shall embrace the names of all judges of courts voted for, and to be labelled, outside, "judiciary;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all state officers voted for, and to be labelled, "state;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all county officers voted for, including office of senator, member, and members of assembly. if voted for, and members of congress if voted for, and be labelled, "county;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all township officers voted for, and be labelled, "township;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all borough officers voted for, and be labelled, "borough;" and each class shall be deposited in separate ballot-boxes.

AND WHEREAS, By the act of the Congress of the United States, enstiled "An act to amend the several acts heretofore passed to provide for the enrolling and calling out the National forces, and for other purposes" and approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, all persons who have deserted the military or naval service of the United States and who have not been discharged, or relieved from the penalty, or disability therein provided, are deemed, and taken, to have voluntarily relinquished, and forfeited their rights of citizenship, and their right to become citizens, and are deprived of exercising any rights of citizens thereof:

AND WHEREAS, Persons, not citizens of the United States, are not, under the Constitution and laws of Pennsylvania, qualified electors of this Commonwealth:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive ballot, or ballots, from any person or persons embraced in the provisions, and subject to the disability, imposed by said act of Congress, approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot, or ballots,

SECTION 2. That if any such judge and inspectors of election, or any one of them shall receive or consent to receive, any such unlawful ballot, or ballots, from any such disqualified person, he, or they, so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, he shall, for each offense, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, in the jail of the proper county, for not less than sixty days.

SEC 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, shall at any election, hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth. vote, or tender to the officers thereof, and offer to vote, a ballot, or ballots, any person, so offending, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall, for each ofiense, be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this act, in the case of officers of election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.

SEC. 4 That if any person shall persuade, or advise, any person, or persons, deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot or ballots, to the officers of any election, hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, or shall persuade, or advise, any such officer to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, such person, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner as is provided in the second section of this act, in the case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot, or ballots

Agreeably to the provisions of the sixty-first section of said Act, every general and special election shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

Pursuant to the provisions contained in the 76th section of the Act, the Judges of the aforesaid districts respectively shall take charge of the certificate or return of the election of their respective districts, and produce them at a meeting of one Judge from each district, at the Court House in the borough of Tunkhannock, on he third day after the day of election, being the 12th day of October next, then and there to do and perform the duties required by law of said Judges. Also, that where a Judge by sickness or unavoidable accident is unable to attend said meeting of Judges then the certificates on return aforesaid shall be taken charge of by one of the inspectors or Clerks of election of said district who shall do and perform the duties required of said Judge unable to attend.

Also, that in the 31st section of said Act, it is enacted, that when two or more counties shall compose a District for the choice of a member or members of the senate of this Commonwealth of the House of Representatives of the United States of this Commonwealth, or President Judge, the Judges of the election in each county having met as aforesaid, the Clerks shall make out a fast statement of all the votes which shall have been given at such election, within the county for every person voted for, as such member or members, or President Judge, which shall be signed by said Judges and attested by the Clerks; and one of the said Judges shall take charge of said certificate and shall produce the same at a meeting of one Judge from each county in such districts as is or may be appointed by law for this purpose, which meeting shall be held the seventh day after the election."

Given under my hand at my office in the Borough of Tunkhannock, the 12th day of Sept. A. D. 1866.

(GOD SAVE THE COMMONWEALTH.)

MANHOOD: how Lost, how Restored.

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.: also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY, and FITS, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the publishers.
