WORKS OF NATURE .- In a state of health the intestinal canal may be compared to a river whose waters flow over the adjoining land, through the channels nature or art has made, and improve their qualities ; so long as it runs on smoothly the channels are kept pure and healthy ; if the course of the river is stopped, then the water in the canals is no longer pure, but soon becomes stagnant. There is but one law of circulation in nature. When there is a superabundance of humorial fluid in the intestinal tubes, and costiveness takes place, it flows back into the blood vessels, and infiltrates itself into the circulation. To establish the free course of the river, we must remove the obstructions which stop its free course, and those of its tributury streams .--With the body, follow the same natural principl remove the obsiructions from the bowels with BRANDRETH'S PILLS, which never injurt, but are always effectual for the perfect cleansing of the system from from foulness or disease. Remember never suffer a drop of blood to be taken from you .--Evacuate the humors as often and as long as they are deranged, or as long as ysu are sick.

Dr. SCHENCK'S PULMONICH SYRUP.

This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. SCHENCK, the Proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most tormidable aspect, and when speedy death "ppeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounc d his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the discuse has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the discases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. SCHENCK makes profess onal visits to several of the larger cities A NEW STOCK of WATCHES and weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor conusmptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in

· few months healthy, robust persons. DR SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED accompany each so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. SCHENCK, but when it is convenient it is best to see him He gives advice free but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three d llars.

Please observe, when pur hasing. that the two likenesses of the Doctor-one when in the last stage of Consumptio ., and the other as he now is, 'in perfect health-are on the Government stamp Seld by all Druggists and Dealers. Price $150 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Letters for adwice should always be directed to Dr Schenck's Principal Office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphis. Pa.
