FAREWELL SURPRISE.

A very pleasant surprise was given at the home of W. C. Lovell, Glencoe, Tuesday evening, 11th inst., when a number of his friends called to spend the evening.
Mr. Lovell leaves shortly for near Charleston, W. Va., where he has secured employment. The furniture was nearly all packed for shipment, and the young folks soon had the largest room cleared and spent the evening dancing old-fashioned country dances, while the older men occupied another room and talked politics, etc. The children also had a department to themselves, while the housewives took possession of the kitchen and dining-room.
At midnight came the call for refreshments, when oysters, chicken and all other delicacies of the season were served.
The guests, numbering about fifty, departed early Wednesday morning after having spent a delightful occasion.
FOR RENT—The house now occupied by R. D. Pfabner on Broadway street will be for rent by May 1st. For particulars call up or write F. T. Jones, Boswell, Pa. mch20-tf

MISS HATTIE MORRELL, a 1 413 Beachley St., Meyersdale.

Miss Zella Sides, one of the accomplished clerks in the Miller & Collins Department Store, was treated to a genuine surprise on Friday evening by her mother, Mrs. Christian Sides, at the family residence on Large street. Saturday having been the day that marked the anniversary of Miss Sides' birth, and it being impossible for the event to be held on that day, Mrs. Sides provided a most delicious lunch to be served on the previous evening. At the supper hour one of the lady clerks in the store, by a ruse, managed to detain Miss Sides long enough for the remainder of the ladies to assemble at the Sides residence. Imagine the young lady's surprise upon entering her home to find a jolly crowd to receive her. The affair was a complete surprise. Following the lunch games and music were indulged in and a most delightful evening was spent. The following were present:—Misses Lena Sinsell, Mary Yeager, Lillian Baer, Ada Mitchell, Hulda Powell, Myrtle Smiley, and Mesdames Walter Koontz and Ward Dull.
