WYOMING FILM'S HISTORICAL WILD WEST COMING.

Advance car No. 1 of the great Wyoming Film's Historical Wild West Exhibition was in Meyersdale billing this town and surrounding country with flaming posters, lithographs, etc., heralding the appearance of the show Monday, May 12. As this is one of America's foremost tented aggregations and exhibits only in the large cities where it has established an un-sullied reputation for superior excellence in every particular, our residents can expect something of great magnitude. The show is transported upon its own special train of double length cars and carries over 250 Cow-boys, Indians, Frontiersmen, South American Gauchos, Mexican Vaqueros, Russian Cossacks, genuine Arabs, and a score of bright eyed Senoritas and dashing dandies, rosy cheeked Western beauties, 300 horses, buffaloes, Texas steers, elk, burros, stage coaches, prairie schooners, Indian travoys, etc. Everything complete to furnish a true and realistic portrayal of all incidents, happenings and pastimes of the West as it was in the early days and as it is at present, in all making one of the most interesting, instructive, amusing exhibitions of its kind in the entire world. It is a performance for ladies, gentlemen and children, and is strictly moral in every particular.

A feature of this season is the true to the portrayal of the famous Mountain Meadow Massacre, in which the entire company takes part, and in which is vividly represented the actual hardships experienced by the pioneers of early days.

See the grand street parade at 10 o'clock morning of the day of exhibition and worth going miles to witness. Two performances daily, rain or shine, afternoon at 2 and night at 8. New specially constructed storm proof tents protect the audiences from the elements at all time.
