Two Crust Lemon Pie.
This pie is similar to the common lemon pie only in name. To make the dough for the crust, mix thoroughly one cupful of flour, a pinch of salt and two heaping tablespoonsful of lard. Add one tablespoonful of cold water. Line the pie pan or plate with the crust. The filling consists of half a lemon minced very fine, the juice of the remaining half, half a cupful of sugar, half a cupful of water, one large tablespoonful of dark molasses and one tablespoonful of flour. The peculiar flavor of this pie can be obtained only by mixing the ingredients in the crust. But in stirring them, great care must be taken not to break the crust which is unusually short when made by this rule. Cover the pie with the op crust, and bake it in a quick oven

Novel Massage Cream.
PERFECT SKIN FOOD THAT REMOVES WRINKLES AND CLEARS COMPLEXION.
The most delicate skin will quickly respond to the soothing and tonic effects of Hokara and when this pure skin cream is used, pimples are soon a thing of the past.
As a massage cream or after shaving it is unequalled, removing all irritations, and making the skin soft and velvety.
Apply a little to the hands or face after washing and surprise yourself with the dead skin that comes off.
Hokara is the only antiseptic massage cream, and pimples, eczema and all skin blemishes soon disappear when it is used.
Although far superior to the ordinary massage creams and sold on a guarantee of "best you ever used or money back," yet the price is a trifle, only 25c for a liberal jar; larger size 50c.
Sold on guarantee by S. E. Thorley, at the City Drug Store.

Somerset County Club, State College, Pa.
State College, Pa., June 6, 1913.
The Examinations are over here and every one is either busy preparing for commencement or packing up to go home.
Somerset County is represented in the graduating class by Mr. Lloyd F. Engle, of Elk Lick. Mr. Engle has been one of the most popular men in his class and was president of the Athletic Association during the past year. He completed the Animal Husbandry Course with additional credits in the Dairy Husbandry course. After commencement he will go to Long Island to become Superintendent of a large dairy farm producing certified milk for New York City, market.
Messrs. Alvin and Pius Glessner have returned home for vacation. Ira Long of Stoyestown, Parker Miller of Friedens, O. G. Gondor of Boswell, and W. A. Marshall of Berlin, will return to their homes June 7th. John Lowery will return to Somerset about June 12th.
Mr. C. W. Dupstadt will take a trip to Boston and Buffalo to visit some of the leading stockfarmers in Northern Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, and New York after which he will return to Somerset.
Mr. C. W. Kurtz of Berlin, is going to spend the early part of the summer at the Forestry Camp at Shamokin.
About two thousand farmers from the southern part of the state visited the College and Experiment station yesterday, which was set apart as Farmers day. This was the fourth Farmers day held during the year and was the largest crowd at the college during the year. The most of the afternoon was spent in looking over the experiment farm.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR JUNE 15
JACOB BEFORE PHARAOH

LESSON TEXT—Gen. 47:1-12.
GOLDEN TEXT—"To them that love God all things work together for good." Rom. 8:28, R. V.

1. Joseph and Jacob, vv. 1-6. Joseph's meeting with his aged father is a beautiful picture. Again Judah comes into prominence as a sort of ambassador in leading the old man into this new land and to present him before his son, who now is exalted so highly among the rulers of the earth. In this he is a prophecy of that day when the descendants of Jacob shall gather before Him "whom they pierced." Joseph does not await their coming but "went up to meet them" (46:28) as they passed through the province of Goshen.
It is true that Jacob and his sons came to Egypt at Pharaoh's personal invitation (46:17, 18), yet there were sufficient reasons why Joseph might have been ashamed of, or fearful to associate with, these his kinsmen. His father was a plain countryman. His brothers were not an altogether reputable crowd. And, further, they were shepherds and "every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians" (46:34). But they are his brethren and he was glad to confess them even as Christ will gladly confess us.
Joseph's Great Wisdom.
We have here another evidence of Joseph's great wisdom in that he commands them to remain in Goshen while he goes before them unto Pharaoh to prepare the way. Even so not all are to come at once into Pharaoh's presence (47:2). In Acts 7:13 we read that this cavalcade consisted of three score and fifteen souls, though this probably did not include slaves and other dependents. It is very significant that Joseph secures Goshen for his kinsfolk. It was near himself (46:34); it was separated from all unnecessary contact with the Egyptians (v. 24) and it was a place superior to all others for them as herdsmen (v. 6). Joseph anticipates Pharaoh's question (v. 3) and gave his brothers instruction how to answer, but they seem to have gone somewhat beyond in that they make request that they might dwell in Goshen. Joseph charged them to speak of themselves as keepers of cattle.
II. Jacob and Pharaoh, vv. 7-12. Pharaoh does not seem to be overly enthusiastic over these five brothers whom Joseph presented (v. 5). Aside from the fact that they were Joseph's brothers, there was nothing to commend them. No more have we anything to commend us in the sight of God except that we are Christ's brethren; though that is an abundance.
Pharaoh and Jacob.
The picture of old Jacob in the presence of Pharaoh is striking in one respect at least, the fact that he who came to this land for the blessing of the sustenance of life, should bless Pharaoh. Jacob conferred upon Pharaoh in his blessing more than Pharaoh conferred upon Jacob by the opening of all Egypt to himself and his family. This act upon the part of Jacob is suggestive of the dignity of age, and significant in its revelation of Jacob's relation to, and knowledge of, the purposes of God. Pharaoh inquires as to Jacob's age and he replies that his "pilgrimage" had been 120 years. He who had entered into all the rights of the birthright and the blessing of God's covenant people, exercised those rights when he stands before the great Pharaoh. He had caught the truth that an earthly life is but a pilgrimage.
Conclusion. Not included in our lesson, but in this section, we have set before us Joseph's administration of the affairs of Egypt which give us further insight into the greatness of this man. In the close of the lesson proper, verses 11-12, there is presented to us Joseph's provision for his father and his brethren. This is a type of Christ in His care for us. In the midst of dangers (Jao. 10:10, 28) and famine, and misunderstanding He is ever near. Joseph is now satisfied for he has "his own near unto him. Jesus Christ is longing that we may be with Him in the place which He has gone to prepare for us, John 14:2, 3, 17, 24, though He has not left us comfortless during these day of separation, John 14:23. Joseph fed his brothers on the best the land afforded (v. 11), even so we may have the old corn (Josh. 5:11) and the new wine (Prov. 3:9, 10). We thus see how God is working out His purpose concerning the Hebrew people.
Taken away from the peril into which Judah fell (chapter 38), and the threatened famine, also from the hostility of the other shepherd races among whom they dwell, they are brought into Egypt and are there separated and yet supplied as God's plan develops and they become big enough and ready to be led back into their promised possession—Canaan. God's plan works for both the immediate and the ultimate. The true value of any experience is not within the experience of the hour. The exile of today is the princely possessor of tomorrow.

Studebaker

"Studebaker wagons certainly last a long time"

"I have had this wagon twenty-two years, and during that time it cost me only $6.00 for repairs, and that was for setting two tires."
"And after twenty-two years of daily use in good and bad weather and over all kinds of roads, I will put this wagon against any new wagon of another make that you can buy today."
"Studebaker wagons are built of air-dried lumber and tested iron and steel. Even the paint and varnish are subjected to a laboratory test to insure wearing qualities."
"No wagon made is subjected to as many tests or is more carefully made than a Studebaker. You can buy them of Studebaker dealers everywhere."
"Don't listen to the dealer who wants to sell you a cheap wagon, represented to be 'just as good' as a Studebaker."
Farm wagons, trucks, dump wagons and carts, delivery wagons, buggies, surreys, depot wagons—and harness of all kinds of the same high standard as the Studebaker vehicles.
