Hotel That is Unique.

At Miramar, on the island of Mallorca, in the Mediterranean, is a free hotel, where accommodations may be had for three days, upon application to the agents of the Archduke Luis Salavator of Austria. It is a beautiful spot, and the entire neighborhood is full of attractions to the traveler. Attendants in charge look after the welfare of guests, who must, however, provide for their own food. Beds, linen and table appointments they receive gratis, and bread and wine can be obtained very reasonably. It is said that this provision is due to the gratification the Austrian owners felt, years ago, when they first came to live at Miramar. Such peace and such loveliness, they felt, should be shared by all lovers of nature who passed that way.

THAW ESCAPES FROM MATTEAWAN.

DARING DASH FOR LIBERTY MADE BY SLAYER OF SANFORD WHITE, WITH CONFEDERATES.

Matteawan, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Harry K. Thaw, the slayer of Stanford White, escaped from the hospital for the criminal insane here at 7:45 o'clock this morning. A dash for liberty through an open gate, a dash into the open door of a powerful automobile that stood quivering outside, and a flight like a rocket for the Connecticut state line 30 miles away accomplished his escape.

Tonight he is still at large and the hospital authorities feel certain that he was outside the state. Once beyond its boundaries, Thaw is free. Only months, perhaps years, of litigation can bring him back to Matteawan and then only in one event—that he be adjudged insane in the state to which he has fled.

Five confederates manned the car in which Thaw escaped and a big black limousine which trailed it past the asylum gate. The police have their descriptions and the names under which they registered at a local hotel Friday night and are seeking them.

The hospital authorities believe Thaw has fled to the shore of Long Island Sound and boarded a yacht waiting with steam up to rush him to Europe.

A reward of $500 for Thaw's apprehension has been offered by Dr. R. F. C. Keib, superintendent of the asylum. Howard H. Barnum, the attendant at the gate past whom Thaw flashed in his break for freedom, is under arrest and other arrests are expected to follow in the rigid investigation begun by Dr. Keib.

STORY OF THE ESCAPE.

The shades were drawn in the dormitories and the inmates were getting their second sleep when Thaw left his room this morning. He was fully dressed. The milkman's cart was rumbling on the road outside as he walked through the outer court or yard of the asylum grounds. Barnum, pacing back and forth when Thaw closed the storeroom door behind him and apparently did not grasp the significance of Thaw's early rising.

Long years of residence at the asylum and repeated declarations by Thaw that he would never attempt to obtain his freedom except by legal means has established the madman's status as a "trustee."

There was little out of the ordinary in his appearance, even at so early an hour, in the courtyard and if Barnum saw him—as to this no one, save the hospital authorities, could say to night and they refused to talk—he raised no question.

CAR WAITING FOR HIM.

A six cylinder Packard touring car, black and 60 horsepower, followed by a limousine, also black, loafed lazily along the road as the milkman drew near the gate. Thaw, standing a few feet away apparently unconcerned, waited till Barnum unlocked the gate and swung it wide to let the milkman enter. At the same moment the two cars drew up on the further side of the road, opposite the gate and stood still their engines throbbing. As Barnum stepped aside for the milkman to drive inside the grounds, he heard the crunch beneath Thaw's feet, and looking up, saw the madman flash past him straight into one of the waiting cars. With a shout Barnum started in pursuit, but a flying leap landed Thaw safe within the car. The great wheels were slowly turning before the keeper had fairly reached the roadway. They were throwing up a cloud of dust before he had gone 25 feet.

Down the roadway the cars sped in a whirling cloud of dust that quickly blotted them from sight. For a moment Barnum shaded his eyes with his hand and watched them, with the first blot on his career of 20 years as keeper, he dashed madly back into the grounds and locked the gate.

"THAW'S GONE," THE CRY.

"Thaw's gone—escaped!" he shouted, bursting into Dr. Keib's presence. And in a moment the hunt was on. The great black car flashed like a thunderbolt through Stormville, 10 miles east of Matteawan, along the road to the Connecticut line. Early risers in the little hamlet saw three men—and Thaw—crouching low to escape the sweep of their rush through the air. They were going 70 miles an hour. They were ten minutes out of Matteawan.

Stormville marveled at their speed and watched them melt away in the dust of the state road. The limousine had been left behind. At the speed which the black car traveled through Stormville, he should have reached the state line within half an hour.

THAW IN PRISON IN CANADA

Harry K. Thaw, cut short in his flight from Matteawan, N. Y. by arrest just over the international line from New Hampshire, prepared in his cell in the county jail to fight against being sent back to the United States.
