RETURNED FROM ALLEGANY HOSPITAL.

Some of the Somerset county patients returned from the Allegany hospital recently.

Earl Dranner, the Garrett boy, was taken to his home on Saturday and will be under the care of Dr. Pollard, until he is restored to health.

Fred Pety returned home to Salisbury on Sunday evening and will be looked after by Dr. A. M. Lichty until he gets up to his normal condition.

Walter Schaffner was brought back to Meyersdale on Sunday afternoon on train No 15. His condition is good, but is still under the care of Dr. Bruce Lichty.

BROKEN NOSE.

C. W. Truxal while using the lawn mower in his lawn on Tuesday evening slipped and struck his nose on the tongue of the mower and fractured a bone in his nose.

DEAL.

Threshing is the popular sport of the season.

Harvey Long of Connellyville, was seen in our vicinity on Tuesday.

Mrs. P. W. Suder, who for the last three weeks was visiting her son at Boston, Mass., has returned home.

Calvin Welmer of this place, wears his hat on the side—its a girl.

Miss Elizabeth Knepp, who had her tonsils and adenoids removed on Monday is getting along nicely.

Quite a few of the Deal people went to Pittsburg on Sunday and all report having had a nice time.

HELPED OUT OF TIGHT PLACE

Woman Worries Now Over Mystery of Taxicab Where Before She Worried About Bill.

"Just as I am beginning to feel that life is unprofitable, dull and stale something happens to reconcile me to existence," said a pretty girl.

"Take the affair of the taxicab; that was about the strangest thing that ever happened to me. I went calling in a taxi. The woman I called on had so much to say and took so much time to say it that the last five minutes of my stay I couldn't listen to a word she said for counting to myself the rate at which that taxicab was eating up money. 'Six dollars and ninety-five cents,' I figured, finally, and bolted desperately. Just as I reached the sidewalk another woman equally desperate shot out of the adjoining apartment house.

"Have you engaged this cab? she said. 'Please let me take it. I am in a great hurry. I cannot wait for another.'

"I have had it for an age," I said. "I owe—"

"That's all right," the woman interrupted. "I will pay it."

"A roll of bills in her hand showed that she was financially equal to the demands of a waiting taxicab. The driver nodded acquiescence in the change of passengers, the woman jumped into the cab and away they went. I went back to make inquiries of my friend, but she could tell me nothing on the subject in which I was then vitally interested—the identity of the woman next door. It was a big apartment house through whose doors a hundred women pass each day, and probably we never shall find out who the woman was or why she was in such a desperate hurry."
