The prospective bride and bridegroom and a chaperon were roused from their slumbers between 3 and 4 o'clock and the eloping pair were placed under arrest. The information was withdrawn when the girl consented to return home in an auto with her father, while the young man and chaperon had to be content with returning home by way of train. The trio had planned to leave for Cumberland.

The eloping girl is Miss Catherine Nager, aged 17 years, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nager, of Latrobe. The father is a prominent merchant. The lad is Charles Sugfrid aged 19 years, a coke drawer of Latrobe.

Member as Spokesman.

The third episode can be presented if in class by a student, or if the review is a general one by the whole school. Let some particular class select one of its members as spokesman. This embraces lessons VII and VIII and is a gracious revelation of God's protecting care and also his abundant supply for our every need. In this section is another and a most beautiful suggestion of that "living bread" so freely provided for all who will accept.

Coming now to the last great episode of this quarter, the events in connection with the giving of the law, we embrace lessons IX, X, XI and XII. Before God gave them the various commandments he sought to emphasize his majesty and his holiness by the smoking mountain, etc. We then have two lessons on the decalogue, a most fitting arrangement inasmuch as the first part deals with the God-side of life—man's relation to his creator—and the second part has to do with man's relations to his brother man. The last lesson is a terrible illustration of this dual fact. The utter inability of the natural heart to fulfill its high sounding promises, its exceeding sinfulness, and the necessity of right relations with him who alone can keep it pure is, it seems to us, the important lesson of the setting up of the golden calf.

The two reading lessons give us the true light of the divine patience and the divine persistence.

The golden text is also an epitome of the spirit of these lessons.

Outline:

1. Moses (a) Training, Lesson I; (b) Fugitive, Lesson II; (c) Called, Lesson III.

2. Pharaoh (a) Commanded, Lesson IV; (b) Humbled, Lesson V; (c) Conquered, Lesson VI.

3. Flight (a) Deliverance, Lesson VII; (b) Fed, Lesson VIII.

4. Law (a) Holiness and Majesty, Lesson IX; (b) Commandments, Lessons X, XI; (c) Apostasy (Golden Calf), Lesson XII.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 28

REVIEW.
Deliverance and Disobedience.

READING LESSON ONLY—Nehemiah 9:9-21. See also Acts 7:30-34.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger and plenteous in mercy."—Neh. 9:17 (Am. R. V.)

The lessons for the past quarter begin with the deliverance of the child Moses and end with the apostasy of the golden calf and cover a period of approximately 80 years. In almost every lesson there is something prophetic or typical of Christ, but two things may be mentioned with special emphasis, viz., the passover, lesson VI, see 1 Cor. 5:7, and the bread from heaven, lesson VIII, see Matt. 26:26, 1 Cor. 11:23, 24.

For the younger classes a most fascinating story can be told when presenting this review. Describe Miriam watching the ark, Pharaoh's daughter copying the ark, sending the babe to his mother and later adopting it as her son. Tell of the day when Moses made his great choice, of the time he thought he could free his brethren, but failed, not yet having the necessary power from God. Then the 40 years as a shepherd (John 10:14), the revelation at Horeb, the conflict at Pharaoh's court, the passover, and the flight by night, the crossing of the Red sea, the gift of the quails and the manna and that dramatic scene of the giving of the law. Enough is here presented to more than occupy the lesson period.

Four Episodes.

For the older classes. The lessons of this quarter seem to group themselves into four general episodes: (1) Moses, his salvation, education, flight and call; (2) Pharaoh, his pride, humiliation and the passover; (3) the flight, at the Red sea, being fed in the wilderness, and (4) the law, God's holiness, his commandments and the great apostasy.

The following brief review is suggested: Have one class member tell of the steps leading up to the Israelitish slavery in Egypt. Let another pupil present either orally or written, an account of the life of Moses up to the time of his appearing before Pharaoh with his apparently audacious request, "Let my people go." Let that student not only recite the historical facts but also show God's dealing with this son of an obscure slave. He might illustrate by alluding to others whom God has raised up to "do exploits" in his dealings with men, Daniel 11:32. This will cover four lessons. Another pupil should then present as concisely as possible that remarkable conflict which God, through his representative Moses, worked out with Pharaoh. This whole episode was treated as lesson V, the text being Ps. 105:23-36, and in lesson VI the record of the passover. This latter, the great feast of the Jews and Christ who is our passover ought to be carefully and yet emphatically presented. Let us not neglect to present the Bible teaching on this, one of the greatest truths ever revealed to man by a gracious, loving, heavenly father, Heb. 9:22.
