INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 9.

ABSTINENCE FOR OTHERS' SAKE.

(World's Temperance Sunday.)
LESSON TEXT—Rom. 14:7-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—"It is not good to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth." Rom. 14:21.

Paul was in Corinth, a city of luxury, learning and licentiousness when he wrote this letter to the believers in Rome, a letter of profound logic and ethics as well as a profound study in psychology and philosophy.

I. None of us liveth to himself," vv. 7-11. Paul begins this chapter by giving a caution as to doubtful disputations, "judgments upon thoughts," whether it be in the matter of eating herbs or meats, or in the observance of set days. Who are we but fellow servants (v. 4) of God? About such things as habits and observance of days we must each be assured in our own minds, (v. 5), but while that is true yet, "none liveth to himself" (v. 7), for "we are the Lord's" (v. 8). He is the universal Lord, both of the living and the dead, (v. 9). What folly, therefore, for any believer to set himself up in judgment upon his brother.

Four Things Suggested.
II. "Give an account to God," vv. 12-18. Verse 12 suggests four things: (1) A universal summons, "each one of us," great and small, obscure or famous, each one must appear, none overlooked, none excused, none excused. (2) A particular summons, "each one of us," not en masse, but as separate units. (3) A purposeful summons, "to give account," not of others but each of himself. It will not be "blind justice" that shall await us there, but a holy God, one who knows all, sees all, every thought and imagination of the human heart (Gen. 6:5) and whose judgment will be righteous. (4) A rightful summons, because of its source, "before God," and shall not the Judge of the whole earth do right? No excuse because of the failure of others will avail, no subterfuge be acceptable, "strict justice" will condemn. Man-made laws and ordinances as to what we eat or what days we may observe will then be revealed in the white light of the God whose name is love. In the light of such a prospect how pertinent therefore that we turn (v. 13), from judging others and look well to our own conduct, lest that conduct become a rock of stumbling to other and weaker brethren.

Another Law.
III. "Follow after things which make for peace," vv. 19-23. To follow that which shall edify is to exercise the "law of liberty." James in his epistle (1:25; 2:12) tells us to look into this law and to continue therein for by it we shall be judged, yet there is still another law, "the royal law" (2:8, Matt. 22:36-40), the fulfilling of which will settle every question of man's relation to man. We should so use our liberty that it be not evil spoken of or become a rock of stumbling to any. Whether or not the kingdom of God be in us, or we in the kingdom, depends not upon the scrupulous observance of ordinance either as to eating, or the observance of days, but rather in the manifest righteousness of our lives and in having peace in our hearts, ch. 16:13, being filled with "joy in the Holy Spirit" v. 17. Therefore, if to eat meat shall cause my brother to stumble or to be made weak (v. 21) "I will eat no flesh for evermore," I. Cor. 8:13.

All of this leads up to the true principle of total abstinence as revealed in verse 21, "It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth or is offended." This does not alone apply to the Great American Juggernaut, the commercialized liquor traffic, which, according to the United States Supreme court, has no legal ground upon which to stand. When the members of the church of God are governed by this principle it will not be long before the liquor problem among many other questions that are troubling us will be settled. The real question will not be "Is it wrong?" but rather, "How will it affect my brother?" All meats are clean, we know that, Acts 10:15, but we also know that many cannot eat, cannot participate in our acts, with a clear conscience because in so-taking part there comes before the mind of the weaker brother the evil associations and practices which so frequently accompany such acts or such eating. Our indulgence, no matter how innocent and entirely harmless it may be to us, is therefore not to be thought of. This settles the drink question, the tobacco habit, dancing, card playing, theater going, and such questionable amusements.

For once teach a temperance lesson not on the ground of the harrowing effects of this awful traffic, but try to show that intemperance is largely the result of selfishness. Show how less selfishness in our social relations would help to keep men away from the saloon. Less selfishness in money would keep us from accepting bloody tax money. Less selfishness on the part of churches by activities during the week would keep children and young people from growing familiar with and finally embracing the monster vice. Many ancient authorities insert after Ch. 14, Ch. 16:25-27.

More Bottles Sold Each Year.
It is easy to understand why an increasing number of bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is sold yearly. Thos. Verran, 286 Edward street, Houghton, Mich., gives an excellent reason when he writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has always proved an effective remedy, quickly relieving, tickling in the throat and stopping the cough with no after effects."
Sold by all Dealers Everywhere.

The New "Pure Seed Law."
The Secretary of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, Harrisburg, desires to call the attention of all persons interested to the fact that what is known as the "Pure Seed Law" enacted by the last General Assembly of Pennsylvania, goes into effect on the first day of January 1914.
This law provides that, no person, firm or corporation shall sell, offer or have in possession to sell any clover, alfalfa or grass seeds containing dodder or Canada thistle in excess of one seed in three thousand, and which do not conform to the following standards of purity: For medium red clover, crimson clover, alfalfa, timothy, barley, spelt, wheat, oats and rye, 97 per cent. pure.
For white clover, 90 per cent. pure.
For redtop grass, solid or hulled, 58 per cent. pure.
For Canadian blue-grass, orchard grass, Kentucky blue-grass, and redtop grass, unhulled, 75 per cent. pure.
The law also provides for the exam-

For Children There is Nothing Better.
A cough medicine for children must help their coughs and colds without bad effects on their little stomachs and bowels. Foley's Honey and Tar exactly fills this need. No opiates no sour stomach, no constipation follows its use. Stuffy colds, wheezy breathing, coughs and croup are quickly helped.
Sold by all Dealers Everywhere.
Was It a Hint? They had been talking as they walked. She had remarked pathetically: "Oh, it must be terrible to a man to be rejected by a woman!" "Indeed it must," was his response. Then, after a while, with sympathetic ingenueness, she exclaimed: "It doesn't seem that I could ever have the heart to do it." And there came a silence between them as he thought it over.

A Maker of Health.
A good honest medicine like Foley Kidney Pills gives health to many families. Mrs. O. Palmer, 625 Willow St. Green Bay, Wis., was seriously ill with kidney and bladder trouble. Mr. Palmer writes: "My wife is rapidly recovering her health and strength due solely to the use of Foley Kidney Pills."
