PICKED UP IN PENNSYLVANIA

(Western Newspaper Union, Special News Service.)

Clearfield.—William Caldwell, the last survivor of Gen. Custer's brave force, is dead here, where he had been a resident for several years. When 18 years old he was with Gen. Custer. He was sent with a message for aid to Gen. Reno and aside from another man sent on a similar mission was the only survivor in the famous fight with Sitting Bull's Indians 38 years ago. He is survived by a widow, one son and two daughters.

Columbia.—The Conestoga Traction Co. is making a survey of a proposed trolley line from Lancaster to McCall's Ferry and it is rumored that a line may be built, owing to a break in their relations with the York Furnace trolley line that now reaches that point. The new line would pass through a half-dozen towns along the route.

Pittsburg.—Success in the production of delicious fall strawberries has been attained by Jacob Leibold on his farm in Shaler township, and a portion of his crop was exhibited here. His plants are of the fall-bearing variety, and, according to Mr. Leibold, who has been a farmer in this vicinity practically all his life of 50 years, his are the first edible strawberries ever grown in the neighborhood of Pittsburg in the fall.

Huntingdon.—Put through the "third degree" process in his cell at the county jail, Lloyd Hampton, aged 25, of Petersburg confessed he attempted to wreck the evening train of the Pennsylvania branch road on a high trestle spanning the Juniata river, 12 miles away. Hampton's motive, he said, was revenge because the Pennsylvania railroad had refused him a position owing to physical deficiency.

Grampian.—Frank Rafferty was fatally burned while attempting to rescue his children from his burning home, two miles from here. Three children were terribly burned, one dying. The fire followed the explosion of a kerosene lamp.

Erie.—At the fourteenth annual convention of the Pennsylvania Congress of Mothers, held here, officers were chosen as follows: President, Mrs. George Knorr Johnson of Philadelphia; vice presidents, Mrs. E. E. Kierman of Somerset, Mrs. Kieffer of Williamsport, Mrs. John P. Green of Philadelphia; treasurer, Mrs. E. V. McCaully of Philadelphia; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mary S. Garrett of Philadelphia; recording secretary, Mrs. Henry Ferrin of Germantown; auditor, Mrs. G. M. Studebaker of Erie; board of managers, Mrs. Herman Birney of Philadelphia, Mrs. Charles Stone of Philadelphia, Mrs. George Cutler of Chester, Mrs. George Wheeler of Philadelphia, Mrs. Bertha Lyster of Lansdowne, Mrs. Robert E. Stevens of Erie, Mrs. Howard Lippincott of Philadelphia, Mrs. Charles Ringtsdorf of Wilkes-Barre, Mrs. Ed. J. Cummings of Philadelphia, Mrs. George Spencer Morris of Philadelphia, Mrs. Jennie Griffiths of Easton, Mrs. E. C. Emerson of Titusville. Many profitable addresses were given by speakers of note from all parts of the country.

Uniontown.—Claiming she was so affected by a refusal of marriage, which was to have occurred last March, as to require the care of a physician, Miss Margaret Adams instituted suit for $10,000 against William Brown, aged 30, a well-to-do man of Uniontown. The plaintiff claims she made loans to Brown, who failed to repay, and that at his request and with her own money she purchased him neckties, socks, hats, underclothing, gloves, etc.

Lewistown.—Two of the oldest hunters that have taken out licenses to hunt in Millin county are John Gantz, 83 years old, and Obadiah Umberger, 84 years.

Charleroi.—George Seracko, a sewing machine agent who, on October 13, swallowed three bichloride of mercury tablets by mistake, is back at his work again. He insisted he was not going to die. According to Dr. H. J. Repman, who has been attending him, one tablet would be enough to kill an ordinary man.

Wilkes-Barre.—Dr. Nathan C. Schaefer of the state department of public instruction in an address on "Bible Reading in Public Schools" before the opening session of the forty-sixth annual institute of the teachers of Luzerne county declared that the Catholic teacher has as much right to read the prescribed number of Bible verses of the Douay version as has the Protestant to read from the King James version.

Washington.—Charged with the theft of a Bible, which he was trying to sell, John Vertovic was placed in the county jail to serve a sentence of ten days.

Sandy Lake.—The Sandy Lake grange, at its regular meeting went on record as opposed to the $50,000,000 road bond issue, although declaring in favor of good roads.

Marysville.—Trailing arbutus in full bloom was found by a class in botany in the high school, while out on a chestnut hunt.

Mont Alto.—The first borough council met in special session and passed upon the following: Three ordinances were drafted, one prohibiting riding or driving at a fast or unreasonable pace within the borough limits; one prohibiting all loud, unruly, boisterous and disorderly conduct, fighting, drunkenness, etc., in the streets, and the other prohibiting animals, horses, sheep and swine, from running at large in the public highways.

What Fishes Know.
That fish possess a certain power of reason is affirmed by many who have studied them. They often learn to recognize the voice of the one who feeds them. Fish will congregate in places where food is habitually thrown to them. If a morsel proves too large to be swallowed, they have been known to divide it on a sharp stone.—Harper's Weekly.

Doan's Reguletes are recommended by many who say they operate easily, without griping and without bad after effects. 25c at all Drug Stores.
