Help Wanted in Meyersdale.

And Furnished by the Help of Meyersdale People.

Those who suffer with kidney backache, urinary ills or any little kidney or bladder disorder, want kidney help. Who can better advise than some Meyersdale resident, who has also suffered, but has had relief. Meyersdale people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's one case and there are many others.

Mrs. Ross Albright, 601 Keystore street, Meyersdale, Pa., says: For a long time my back pained me and I had severe backache and spells of dizziness. In the morning, I felt tired and lacked strength and energy. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended so highly that I was led to begin using them procuring a supply at F. B. Thomas' Drug store. They soon relieved me and I have since felt better in every way.

If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Albright had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c at all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no others.

Some Geese—Some Ducks—Some Blizzard.

Some Geese, Some Ducks, Some Blizzard—some of the most stirring stories of outdoor sport that we ever remember reading—appears in the November Sports Afield, along with a dozen other articles of unusual interest to sportsmen. Wild-fowl shooting in Western Canada, in Minnesota, in Wisconsin, in Michigan and along the Arkansas Valley, is described by different authors with the unmistakable flavor of Truth. An Informal Thanksgiving typifies pioneer life in Iowa a half-century ago. Snow vs. Business is a spirited account of a timber cruising trip through the Rainy River Country. Troubles of a Game Warden; Fishing—A Procurement of Contentedness; Possom Hunting in the South; A Deer Hunt in the Sunken Lands of Arkansas, and An Illinois Squirrel Hunt are some of the unique articles in a rarely excellent number. Your newsdealer can supply you; if not, send 15 cts. to Sports Afield, 542 So. Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

For any pain, burn, scald or bruise, apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—the household remedy. The sizes 25c and 50c at all drug stores.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 16

THE DEATH OF MOSES.

LESSON TEXT—Deut. 34:1-12. GOLDEN TEXT—"Precious in the sight of Jehovah is the death of his saints." Ps. 116:15.

I. The Old Leader, vv. 1-8. We have now come to the last of our lessons which have to do with Moses. Following his lamented fallure at the time of the second arrival at Kadesh-Barnea, Miriam dies; at Mt. Hor, Aaron departed and his office is bestowed upon his son, Eleazar. Then quickly followed the plague of serpents, the defeat of the king of the Amorites, Balaam's folly, the apostasy of Israel which was cleansed by blood through the zeal of Phinehas, and finally the arrival upon the plains of Moab.

Law Confirmed. Here Moses repeats and confirms the law to this new generation of Israel, delivers his last charge, sings his last song, ascends Mt. Nebo to view Canaan, and is "forever with the Lord." In the passage marked out for this lesson we have the account of the passing of this wonderful servant of God. Returning to ch. 31:1-8 and 32:44-52 we see this journey in prospect, after that we read Moses' parting blessing and in this section we read of the fulfillment of that prospect. Moses anticipated his departure by a quiet dignity, absolutely divorced from haste or fret, that was characteristic of his life of submission and was the essence of his life of faith.

Before departure Moses solemnly charged this newer generation to observe the law, declaring that it is not a vain nor an empty thing, but in deed and in truth to them the way of life. Then comes the simple dignified account of this last act of obedience, simple, yet sublime. Yonder we see him, viewed by the hosts of Israel, as he ascends the mountain alone—yet not alone—prepared to spend his last hours upon earth with Jehovah, who doubtless appeared as the angel—Jehovah and pointed out to him the land he so much longed to enter, but could not because he failed to sanctify God in the sight of the people at a critical moment. Taking the glory to himself on that occasion demanded an act of punishment as a warning to the people, hence, "it went ill with Moses for their sakes," Ps. 106:32. There upon the mount God's covenant with Abraham is confirmed and with undimmed eye and undiminished vigor (v. 7), Moses was shown the fulfillment of that promise, his body was laid at rest by God himself, in an unknown and unmarked sepulchre, "over against Beth-Peor," v. 6.

II. The New Leader, v. 9. God never leaves his people without a leader and hence Joshua is exalted to compensate Israel for the loss of Moses. "The king is dead—long live the king." The worker dies, the work goes on and many times the victories of the new leader are fully as great and far reaching as any won by the former leader. Joshua was not Moses, he was Joshua and as such called to face new problems.

III. A Great Character, vv. 10-12. The description of Moses is of one who saw Jehovah face to face, a peculiar dignity, and the secret of his greatness. When Aaron and Miriam murmured God declared that Moses was different from all other prophets in that, "with him will I speak mouth to mouth, even manifestly, and not in dark speeches, and the form of Jehovah shall be beheld," Num. 12:6-8. Moses himself declared to Israel that when God spoke to them out of the midst of the fire, "I stood between the Lord and you," Deut. 5:4, 5. The supreme teaching of this lesson is the fact that great as Moses was, he was nevertheless excluded from the promised land as a warning to Israel.

On the other hand this story is a wonderful illustration of the tender compassion and watchful care of Jehovah even to the end. Even the discipline of Jehovah is accompanied by gentleness. If he must needs be excluded yet he is not excluded from communion with Jehovah.

Thus this saint who was separated to the will of God passes out of life. In the hour of the consummation of his life work his spirit passes into yet closer fellowship with God. The Psalmist in the words of the golden text most beautifully suggests that such an hour is a delight to God, and suggests the welcome which must be awaiting his saints. Do not forget the last glorious appearing of Moses after the lapse of the centuries when:

"On the hills he never tread Spoke of the strife that won our life With the Incarnate Son of God."

"Death and judgment were a constant source of fear to me until I realized that neither shall have any hold on the child of God." D. L. Moody: Do not put death out of consideration, but welcome it as Moses welcomed it. When we stand on Pisgah, can we say we did our full duty? In that hour the plaudits of men will be stilled. Moses was a great hero, prophet, priest, law-giver, poet and general, yet Israel could erect no monument over his grave to do him honor. It was a greater honor to follow his admonitions and obey the law.
