

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

News Items of Interest From Near-by Places, Gleaned by The Commercial's Special Correspondents.

SALISBURY.

The various church denominations of town will join in the Thanksgiving services which will be held in the Brethren church on Thanksgiving day at 10 a. m. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. H. Lewis Thomas, pastor of the Methodist congregation. The music will be led by a union choir.

The residence of John Platter in West Salisbury was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night about 8:30 o'clock. No one knows how the fire started but it is supposed a spark from the chimney dropped between the main house and a lean-to and thus kindled the fire. Most of the household goods was saved. It was partly insured.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Billmeyer and little son of Pittsburgh, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fogle from Wednesday until Sunday. They were accompanied on their return by Mrs. Fogle and her two boys who will visit them for several weeks, and before returning will visit Mrs. Fogle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Balliet at Elizabeth, Pa.

Miss Lulu Baumgardner, a trained nurse went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stevanus at Sand Flat last week to nurse Mrs. Sherman Stevanus who is stricken with typhoid fever. About four weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Stevanus and two children came from Sugar Creek, Ohio, to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stevanus. Several days after they arrived Sherman took the fever and the wife is down with the malady now.

J. Ed. Gross, merchant tailor of Frostburg, Md., was calling on some of his patrons at this place last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barchus entertained at "500" on Wednesday evening of last week. Five tables were occupied and the following guests were present:—Albert Reitz and wife, Otto Petry and wife, C. M. May and wife, R. H. Johnston and wife, Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Lichty, Misses Emma McClure, Nancy Walton of Sharon; Elizabeth Reitz, Amanda Martin, Mima Harding, Carrie Johnston, and Messrs. George C. Hay, Ernest Livingston and John O. Johnston.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran church met last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. N. B. Hanna. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Garletz of Akron, O., are visiting relatives and friends in and about town.

Mark Smith of Meyersdale, was a Salisbury visitor on Sunday.

Clay Newman, clerk in the Noah Newman store, was a business visitor to Johnstonown, one day last week.

Born to Rev. and Mrs. H. Lewis Thomas on November 19th, a son.

Mrs. Clarence Menhorn has for several days been very ill with pneumonia and a complication of ailments and on Sunday grave doubts were entertained for her recovery but at this writing she seems to be improving a little. Dr. McMillan of Meyersdale, Dr. S. S. of Greenville, and our home doctors Lichty and Swank attended the patient and did all they could to alleviate her great suffering.

Calvin Glottfelty is somewhat indisposed for the last week on account of a severe case of stomach trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Keatly and daughter of Scottsdale, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wagner.

John R. Boose of Somerset, was a business visitor to our city one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barchus spent last Thursday at Grantsville, Md.

John Reese, one of our oldest and most experienced miners, has on account of failing health decided to quit mining at least for the present.

Mrs. C. W. Stotler and Mrs. Clarence Stotler spent Tuesday of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boone Stotler at Meyersdale.

John White, a veteran of the Civil War, who has been making his home with his daughter, Miss Martha White on Gay street, has gone to make his home with another daughter, Mrs. William Engle, adjoining town.

Mrs. P. L. Swank left last week for a two weeks visit to her parents near Johnstonown.

Mrs. W. B. Stevanus, her daughter Thelma and son Allen, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Swanger on Sunday.

Mrs. Aaron Maust is suffering with an attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. Margaret Newman, who several weeks ago was stricken with pneumonia, is still confined to her bed. Mrs. Newman is nearly 80 years old.

Rev. O. G. Fye, pastor of the United Evangelical church, and family spent last week at Harnedsville, where Rev. Fye was holding a series of meetings.

Mrs. A. D. Johnson and daughter Florence, will this week go to Windber to join the husband and father, who has embarked in the moving picture business in that town.

Thomas J. Wagner was a Meyersdale visitor on Sunday.

Rev. L. P. Young and wife, and Albert Reitz and wife were among the many who went Johnston last week to hear Billy Sunday preach.

RIDGE VIEW.

Nov. 24—The menu now is buckwheat cakes, sausage and honey.

C. R. McMillan of Listonburg and Minnie Mason of Connellsville spent Friday evening at Ridge View.

Mrs. A. C. Jeffreys and family Sundayed with the former's mother, Mrs. E. R. Grimes at Ridge View.

The farmer who resides in Addison and has been shooting his neighbors dogs for the sport of it had better let up or he will be called to the County Seat to pay for the same. This is like the Pickwick Club; not intended to be personal, but whoever the shoe fits let him wear it.

Our farmers are busy finishing husking corn and have some plowing done.

The schools here have closed for the week as the teachers are attending institute at Somerset and the pupils are having a glorious time.

Lucindia Glover, a well-respected citizen, received a severe stroke of apoplexy on Saturday and died on Monday morning. Rev. Boyer of Confluence officiated, interment in the Addison cemetery on Thursday at noon.

Thanksgiving will soon be here and how many of us will offer up thanks for the kind mercies during the past year. We should be very thankful for what we have received and pray for a continuance of the same.

Mrs. E. Merritt of Pittsburgh is visiting her daughter, Miss Ruth, who has been employed in M. F. Straw's millinery department.

Miss Mae Jeffreys of Addison, will spend her week's vacation at Ridge View.

GARRETT.

Nov. 24—Miss Irene Weaver gave a farewell party in honor of Messrs. Alfred Beech and David Dempsey on Saturday as they are leaving for Pittsburgh. A party lunch was served and parlor games were indulged in. The following guests were present.

Misses Edna Nedrow, Fannie Lenhart, Ruth Hopkinson, Blanche Drener, Elsie Satterfield, Gertrude Haer, Clara Bittner, Irene Bittner, Messrs. Ray Nedrow, Earle Lenhart, Earnest Edwards, Alfred Beck, David Dempsey, Samuel Day, Clyde Satterfield, Norman Weaver.

Miss Ada Bittner left this morning for Elsworth College at Pittsburgh.

David Dempsey and Alfred Beck left town Sunday for Pittsburgh, where they are employed in the Westinghouse works.

Miss Elsie Satterfield went to Rockwood to spend the week with her friend, Miss Jennie Yutzky.

Misses Rene and Helen Bittner are going to spend the week with their cousin, Mary Bittner of Connellsville.

Professor and Mrs. H. B. Speicher and daughters are spending the week with his parents at Somerset. Mr. Speicher is going to attend Teachers' Institute.

Clyde Satterfield and Earnest Edwards were Rockwood visitors over Sunday.

SIPPLEVILLE.

Clayton Sperry and Leroy Carrey were in town on Friday.

Mrs. W. Ankley was calling on her mother, Mrs. Lucy Albright on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buschart and family were calling on friends in Sippleville on Sunday.

Geo. Sipple spent Sunday with W. P. Bear.

N. B. Heckler left Tuesday for Cumberland, Md., for a few days.

Harold Sipple is driving a team for Joseph Merzbacher at present.

Ira Pike was a business caller in Sippleville, on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Riber of Meyersdale, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Freeze.

Mrs. Lucy Albright arrived home on Wednesday evening after a few days visit with her daughter who is in the hospital at Connellsville.

W. Ankley was butchering for Ross Albright.

HOOVERSVILLE.

The smell of paint may be taken away by closing up the room and setting in the centre of it a pan of lighted charcoal, on which have been thrown some Juniper berries. Leave this in the room for a day and a night, when the smell of the paint will be gone. This is also effectual in removing the odor of tobacco smoke from the room.

Turpentine is also a sovereign remedy for Croup. Saturate a piece of flannel with it and then place the cloth on the throat and chest. Three or four drops on a lump of sugar may be taken inwardly.

At New York the longest day is about fifteen hours, and at Montreal, Canada, it is sixteen.

Shakespeare says, For live we how can, yet die we must.

Teachers in this borough and vicinity are attending the Teachers' Institute at Somerset this week.

ST. PAUL.

A. C. Lepley's sale last Friday was attended by many people from here.

Wilson Maust and family, who reside on a farm near Shanksville, are visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Morgan Walker and children were visitors last Wednesday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sipple.

The St. Paul Citizens band elected officers last Friday evening—Lester Engle, president; John Lowry, secretary; Lloyd Engle, treasurer; Rev. Hassler, manager, and Prof. U. D. Miller, teacher. There are upwards of 20 members, and much interest manifested by all.

John Lepley of Cumberland, and Charles Lepley of near Berlin, attended the sale of their father, A. C. Lepley, Friday afternoon.

Practice for Christmas has begun in the Reformed Sunday school. There will be meetings on the afternoons and evenings of Friday and Saturday of this week.

Rev. Mr. Young's sermon last Sunday afternoon hit hard the liquor traffic and the booze "hoisters" in this community. It was a masterly effort.

Reformed Sunday school next Sunday at 9:15 a. m.; church service at 7:30 p. m.

CONFLUENCE.

The funeral of Ambrose Sellers, son of H. L. Sellers who died at a Pittsburgh hospital on Friday after undergoing an operation for appendicitis, took place on Sunday. The young man was very popular with his associates and his death caused universal sorrow.

The school children are all enjoying a vacation this week on account of the teachers' institute.

C. W. Criss, B. & O. agent at Hooversville, spent Saturday here.

Quite a number of young people left here last week for Somerset, where they will attend the county institute in session there this week.

Mrs. Annabell Burnworth and son John of Johnson Chapel, were shopping in town Saturday.

G. L. Morrison, who lately returned from a McKeesport hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis, is improving nicely.

Mrs. J. C. Kendall of Baltimore, was here Friday on her way to Friendsville, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Mason.

The Somerset Fuel Company, who will operate a mine at Beals' place on the White Creek branch, are receiving equipment daily and expect to begin shipping coal the first of next week.

N. M. Parnell of Somerset, was in town on business Saturday.

ROCKWOOD.

Mrs. C. H. Arthur, who has been residing in Rockwood for several months, left Friday for Marianna, where she will join her husband, who is employed with the contracting firm of E. E. Herr & Co.

Miss Elizabeth Walter, daughter of Engineer and Mrs. Foster Walter, of Rockwood, is spending several days with her sister, Miss Ruby at Beaver College, Beaver, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maxwell, of Cannonsburg, are guests of the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Miller.

J. D. Snyder, spent Saturday and Sunday with his family after spending a week as a United States Circuit court juror at Pittsburgh. Mr. Snyder will return to Pittsburgh Monday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Gardner has returned home after a pleasant visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Stayer and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gardner, of Johnston.

John Kretzman, of Ohio, is at present the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Hay, in Black township. Mr. Kretzman recently sold his farm in Ohio, and is considering the purchase of a farm in Somerset county.

INDIAN CREEK.

Nov. 20—Mrs. J. O. Williams from Smithton, spent yesterday evening here with her friend, Mrs. W. L. Zembamer, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Zembamer and daughter from California are spending a few days here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miller. Mr. Zembamer is on a hunting trip and expects to land a bunch of game.

Samuel Neiderheiser and two sons from Jones' Mill are visiting Connellsville friends today.

Grant Immell from near Mill Run is a Connellsville business caller today.

A. G. E. Sherbondy, our popular Justice of the Peace, from Normalville is a business caller at Connellsville and Uniontown today.

Mrs. W. P. Miller is shopping and calling on friends in Connellsville today.

Mrs. J. Laughery and daughter of Mill Run spent the day in Connellsville.

W. Gaumer, extra B. & O. operator of Hyndman, is holding down the 3d trick for a few nights.

J. E. May, one of our hustling Mill Run merchants, is a Connellsville caller today.

Miss Gertrude Hutcheson was shopping in Connellsville today.

Albert Woodmancy from Baer Run, is spending the day with his son Rodney.

Jake Cole from near Mill Run is circulating among Connellsville today.

Mr. Almond, B. & O. engineer from Connellsville, is in the vicinity of Roaring Run today, trying his luck on the bunnies and pheasants.

F. D. Swearman left for Meyersdale this evening to try his luck for rabbits and also to visit his parents.

Nov. 21—Lester Barry from Hazlewood spent a few days among Mill Run friends returning home today.

C. D. Hill, superintendent of the Schuler Coal Co., at Indiana Head, was a business caller here this morning.

C. S. Parl, coal operator from Indiana Head, was transacting business here today.

Walter Smith left for Roaring Run last evening to inspect and load several cars of lumber for the McFarland Lumber Co.

M. and Mrs. Frank Bower, from Roaring Run, are Connellsville callers today.

H. Miner, Justice of the Peace from Mill Run, is a Connellsville and Uniontown business visitor today.

John Arzbocher and Miss Myrtle Paul from Mill Run are calling on Connellsville friends. It looks as if the wedding bells will soon be heard.

Norman Hensel from Mill Run is in Connellsville today renewing old acquaintances.

W. J. McFarland was a business caller here this morning.

Hiram Connor, the expert car loader for the McFarland Lumber Co., was slightly injured yesterday by a fall. Mr. Connor left for Connellsville this morning for medical treatment.

A. B. Kern the springfield township assessor was here today. This winds up a 16 year term as assessor for that township. He will be succeeded by Mr. Elcher who was elected at the November election. We hope that the new assessor will meet with the same success as Mr. Kern.

Mrs. H. W. Miller is calling on Connellsville friends today.

J. J. Kidd of Kidd, Beckingham Lumber Co. of Baltimore, Md., was here today on business.

Nov. 22—Messrs. Frank Steindl and Frank Kaaser from Mill Run, are marketing in Connellsville today.

Mrs. William Prinkey and daughter Olive from near Killarney Park are Connellsville shoppers today.

Wm. Marriatta, the coal king in Connellsville today.

C. K. Brooks from Mill Run is a Connellsville and Uniontown visitor today.

Mrs. Cal. Price and daughter were shopping in Connellsville today.

L. L. Fish left for Holsopple this morning.

Agnes Mine from Mill Run, is calling on Connellsville friends this morning.

H. I. Fisher, general manager of the McFarland Lumber Co., left for his home at Wilkinsburg this evening to spend Sunday with his family.

Maud Breaks of Mill Run is spending the day in Connellsville.

A. P. Doorley left for Scottsdale this evening to spend over Sunday with home folks.

Nelson Terwilliger from Roaring Run was here this morning transacting business with the McFarland Lumber Co.

Pay day at the McFarland Lumber Camp to day.

George Arzabacher from Mill Run, is in Connellsville on business today.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE # Citizens National Bank,

MEYERSDALE, PA.,

At the Close of Business, October 21, 1913.

RESOURCES.

Loans and Investments.....	$700,630 75
U. S. Bonds.....	75,000 00
Banking House.....	29,300 00
Due from Banks and Reserve Agents.....	159,282 13
Cash.....	64,948 21
	$1,029,161 09

LIABILITIES.

Capital Stock.....	$ 65,000 00
Surplus.....	100,000 00
Undivided Profits.....	20,012 06
Circulation.....	65,000 00
Deposits.....	779,149 03
	$1,029,161 09

RESOURCES OVER
A MILLION DOLLARS.

A VISIT TO

Holzshu & Weimer's STORE

Will show to you the best line of

Groceries, Flour, Feed, Etc.

We Buy in Car Lots, Hence
Can Save You Money.

Goods Delivered Free.

Both Phones.

Centre Street

MEYERSDALE, PA.

URSINA.

Miss Carrie Hook, of Somerset, spent several days with her friend, Miss Mae Zimmerman.

Miss Fern Zerfoss, of Rockwood, is spending several days with her cousin, Miss Frances Parker.

There will be Union Thanksgiving services held in the M. E. church, Thursday morning. Rev. Boyer, of Confluence, will preach.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give an oyster supper on Thanksgiving evening in Hell's hall. They will serve oysters, ice cream, cake and candies.

Frank Kuhlman of McKeesport, is here visiting with relatives and friends.

Quite a number of people of this place left for Somerset this morning to attend the Teacher's Institute.

SHAW MINES.

Good times for boys and girls this week. Schools are closed as the teachers are attending the institute at Somerset.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson of Meyersdale, was visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Houstons on Sunday.

Dr. W. D. Fuller of Somerset, who is the veterinary for the Consolidation Coal Co., was around looking after the interests of the company on Friday.

Mrs. Norman Barnhart of Meyersdale, was visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Shoemaker on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Toney Ross took their little girl to the hospital at Cumberland, on Saturday to have her operated upon.

A. G. Maust of Wood Lawn, visited our school last week.

Mrs. J. J. Reynolds left on Tuesday for Hermany, where she will visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. Miller of Coal Run, was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Paterine on Monday.

Dr. C. P. Large and W. H. Klingman of Meyersdale, was visiting our school last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glessner of Hays Mill, was visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Mehan, on Sunday.

Misses Edna and Emma Wellen of near Meyersdale, were the guests of J. J. Reynolds' on Sunday.

Household Notes.

One dessertspoonful of castor oil poured about the roots of dying plants will revive them.

New stockings will last twice as long if they are soaked in warm water for two hours before wearing.

In cooking apples, the more quickly they are cooked after paring the richer and better they are.

A cake pan is not so apt to stick if greased with sweet lard rather than butter, and sift a little flour over it.

The water rice has been boiled in is very nutritious and is a well-proved remedy for all bowel troubles.

Birmingham, Ala., F. L. Willis, suffered greatly from asthma and bronchitis. He writes:—"I got no relief until I took Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It entirely removed those choking sensations and never failed to produce an easy and comfortable condition of the throat and lungs."

Happiness.

Those who have the most of happiness think the least about it. But in thinking about and in doing their duty happiness comes—because the heart and mind are occupied with earnest thought that touches at a thousand points the beautiful and sublime realities of the universe.

For any pain, burn, scald or bruise apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—the household remedy. The sizes 25c and 50c at all drug stores.

How It Really Happened. Once man ground grain between two flat stones to procure meal.—Christian Science Monitor.

Never! Woman did it, while friend man sat around and told the boys about the big one that got away.—Detroit News-Tribune.

Doan's Regulents are recommended by many who say they operate easily, without griping and without bad after effects. 25c at all Drug Stores.

Tyranny Over the Mind. I have sworn upon the altar of God eternal hostility against every form of tyranny over the mind of man.—Jefferson.

Itching, bleeding, protruding or blind piles, have yielded to Doan's Ointment, 50c at all stores. ad