Thorley, the local agents for Hokara, who have sold hundreds of packages, say they have yet to find any form of wound or disease affecting the skin that Hokara does not heal, and its relief comes so quickly that those who try it are simply delighted with it. Pimples, eczema, blackheads, acne, barbers itch, and all skin troubles are quickly believed by applying this simple skin healer and tissue builder. It contains no grease or acids, and is cleanly to use. S. E. Thorley, is selling a large package of Hokara for 25 cents. ad

WEEK'S NEWS STORIES RETOLD

Events That Made a Stir Condensed to a Paragraph.

WHAT WASHINGTON IS DOING

News of Interest That Trickles From the White House and the Various Departments—Catalogue of Crimes and Casualties.

Washington

It was said the Senate committee that investigated the West Virginia mine strike would report that miners and other persons were imprisoned in violation of the federal Constitution. Lucy Burns, a militant suffragette, was fined $1 for writing "votes for women" on a sidewalk in Washington. President Wilson named Henry M. Pindell as Ambassador to Russia, but it was said the Senate Foreign Relations Committee would investigate the new charge that he used Federal office-holders to further his own business ends in Illinois. Postmaster-General Burleson issued 100,000 posters directing persons to mail their Christmas packages early.

Personal

Standord White, Jr., has been awarded a diploma of the French Beaux Arts in the architectural section. He has been studying architecture in Paris for several years and his mother, widow of the man slain by Harry Thaw, has lived there since a short time after the tragedy. President Wilson will absent himself from the White House on New Year's Day, thus doing away with the traditional New Year's reception. He will spend his vacation in the South. The women voters of California sent a silver service costing $1,500 as a wedding gift to Miss Jessie Wilson. Until his term as Governor expires, in January, 1915, Governor Tener will not accept any salary from the National League and will head that organization merely in an honorary capacity.
