

MEETING OF BORO DADS

The Usual Amount of Business Transacted at Its Regular Meeting.

Council met in regular session in council chamber on Tuesday evening. The following members were present: Bauman, Darnley, Weakland, Appel, Dia, and Deal. Absent—Boiden.

The minutes of the November meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Bowser was present and requested that council put a crossing near his property, corner of Lincoln and Chestnut streets.

Mr. Gurley was present in regard to a license for the picture show. He stated that the manager of the Bijou had absconded and that the theatre would be under a new management. On motion the license was transferred to Mr. Gurley, proprietor of the Pastime theatre.

Mr. Fike appeared in the interest of the Meyersdale Light, Heat and Power company.

On motion of Darnley and seconded by Weakland, that when the company changes to the series system as specified in the contract, the company be granted an extension of two years on contract and at the end of that time, if lights are satisfactory to majority of council the company be granted an additional extension to allow contract to expire with franchise. Carried.

Beal and Klingaman reported that they had completed the Main street paving job. The street committee approved the work.

Miss Myra Lichliter spent last week at Somerset and Johnstown. A full house greeted the second entertainment of the Salisbury Lecture course on Wednesday evening in Hay's Opera House, by the Weathernox Brothers' Quartette.

Household Notes.

In the new corsets, the bust is lower, waist larger, but the blouses are fewer and softer.

The slipper most preferred for afternoon wear is the Colonial pump, made of patent leather.

The two-button length glace gloves in the various shades are very smart for afternoon wear.

There is a watch bracelet with the bracelet of grosgrain ribbon and appliqued watch entirely encrusted in tiny diamonds.
