Rest in Forgetfulness.

"Who does not love to shuffle off time and its concerns at intervals—to forget who is president and who is governor, what race he belongs to, what language he speaks—and to listen to the great liquid metronome as it beats its solemn measure, steadily swinging, when the solo or duet of human life began, and to swing just as steadily after the human chorus has died out and man is a fossil on its shores."—The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table.

You Know What's Coming

the annual feast day is almost here; the bird is prepared to do his part. You can probably manage it successfully, but we suggest that you leave the "dressing" to us. We'll dress you in our special Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes; you'll be dressed right, too. If you need a full dress or Tuxedo or frock suit we'll see that you have the right thing. If you prefer to be in "everyday" attire, or if you want a good overcoat, here's the place to get what you need.
