HOOVERSVILLE.

Dec. 29—One hundred children bore away a box of assorted candy at the annual Christmas celebration of the U. B. Church. The celebration was essentially for the children, the stage was prettily decorated with bells, tinsel and lights. A feature of the evening was an entertainment given by the scholars of the U. B. Sunday School in the form of singing, recitations, etc. After the completion of the children's share of the program, it was voiced by those present as a success.

A Difference in Working Hours.

A man's working day is 8 hours. His body organs must work perfectly 24 hours to keep him fit for 8 hours work. Weak, sore, inactive kidneys can not do it. They must be sound and healthy active all the time. Foley Kidney Pills will make them so. You cannot take them into your system without good results following.

The Spirit

of this 1913th Christmas-time prompts us to express our appreciation to the community collectively and to each of our friends individually, for any part they have played in making this a most prosperous year for us.

May December 25th be numbered among your Yuletide memories as the happiest Christmas of them all is the wish of

THE CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK

(The Bank With The Clock.)

We Wish You All A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR. Holzshu & Weimer.

SUMMIT TOWNSHIP.

We wish a prosperous year to the Commercial and all its readers.

Many people from the township attended the Christmas program at the St. Paul Reformed Church.

Calvin Maust is building an addition to his house.

E. J. Obrien, who conducted the W. H. and H. R. Kretzman farm for the last four years, has purchased the Marcellous Snyder farm in Milford township. Mr. Obrien is moving his personal property to his farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Leply, of Connellsville, were Christmas visitors at the home of the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Saylor.

Thomas Hudson, of Connellsville, was visiting at Summit Mills last Sunday.

A. G. Maust spent Christmas with his uncle, Mr. Perry Miller, of near Listonburg, this county.

Our public schools are all at work again, some taking several days vacation Christmas.

M. D. Johnson is busy digging coal in his mines in West Summit.

MARKLETON.

The Markleton Sanatorium is opening up a new coal mine.

Mr. Moon of Fort Hill, was taken to the Markleton Sanatorium with three ribs broken, and it is not known whether he had fallen off of train No. 56, or if he was trying to get on the train.

The Enterprise Lumber Company's mill is closed down for repairs.

There is a movement on foot to build a new church here; an option has been secured on a lot adjoining the school and some money subscribed toward the building. The meeting room in Sembower's old church is entirely too small to accommodate the present membership.

The movement was made by W. L. Lape, the superintendent of the Sunday school. This is a worthy cause and should be supported.

Employees of the Sanatorium, all received liberal Christmas gifts from Miss M. B. Barnett, the efficient manager of this institution.

Dwelling houses are very scarce here and in great demand. Several families are occupying some of the shanties formerly used by contractors working on the Western Maryland. There are no vacant houses here at present.

Women and Wet Feet.

Cold and wet feet are a dangerous combination especially to women and congested kidneys often result. Backache, urinary irregularities and rheumatic fever are not unusual results. Foley Kidney Pills restore the regular and normal action of kidneys and bladder and remove the cause of the trouble. Contain no habit forming drugs.
