PASTOR REMEMBERED.

Last week The Commercial mentioned of the Christmas donations tendered by the Mt. Lebanon and Glencoe congregations. That was not the end of the good will shown by his good people. The Greenville people made a nice money contribution on December 21st, and the White Oak people followed in the good work later on. All this speaks well of the people of the Wills Creek charge and of Rev. A. S. Kresge.

We had a few pretty cold days and the weatherman says there are some more coming, so come here and get an Overcoat from $4.98 and up. The Underselling Store.

FAMILY REUNION.

An interesting family reunion was held on Christmas day, when Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Rutter of Meyers avenue, were host and hostess. In addition to the big family dinner and the enjoyable social time of those who were present, the event was rich and full of thought and talk of those who were unavoidably absent.

Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Dinger and daughter, Miss Josephine, of Phillipsburg; Mr. and Mrs. C. Thomas Martin of Williamsport, Pa.; the ladies being daughters of Mrs. Rutter. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Agnew of Clairton, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rutter and daughters, Nancy and Nelle of Somerset; Mrs. D. C. Keller, and baby Byard Martin, of Hudson, Ohio, and C. Herbert Rutter of Jenner, Pa., are the children of Mr. Rutter.

The absent ones were A. W. Harkins and wife of Oradino, Neb., and Dr. Cloyd Harkins and wife of Phillipsburg, both sons of Mrs. Rutter.
