Resolutions

that are not kept don't amount to much.

Resolutions

to be kept should be faced in a clear, reasonable manner.

In 1914

you want the universal wish realized—want to progress, get ahead of your expenses.

The surest way to do this is to keep a record of your expenses by a checking account and stow away a five or ten dollar bill each month in a Savings Account.

Besides

the easiest part of it all is opening one or both forms of accounts with the bank that desires to be of assistance to you.
