A CORRECTION.

In the issue of January 1st, appeared the announcement of the wedding of James M. Wise and Miss Lulu E. Davis, Rev. E. S. Hassler officiating, and in the issue of January 8th, the announcement came from another source, which inadvertently appeared in the paper, saying that Rev. G. C. Quinn officiated. The young people were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. E. S. Hassler. In this correction, at this late day The Commercial begs leave to extend its congratulations to the happy couple.

1 can Choice Apples for 10 cents at Bittner's Grocery.

OAKLAND, MD.

A fierce storm has been raging here and the roads are badly drifted. Sledding is good and considerable hauling is being done.

On last Friday while hauling limestone, Frank Arnold was stricken with paralysis. He was discovered by N. S. Lichty crouched on his knees behind his horses. Mr. Lichty helped him on his sled and he said he would be able to go home by himself. About a half mile from where he was first found he was picked up in a helpless condition by a Mr. Yutzky and Mr. Brenninger who at once summoned a physician. Upon examination his right side was found to be paralyzed, but the Doctor has hopes of his recovery.

Four young people from Ohio are visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lichty are visiting friends in Lancaster, Pa.

Two Great Classes.

The human race is divided into two classes: those who go ahead and do something, and those who sit and ask, "Why wasn't it done the other way?"—Holmes.

SHIRT FACTORY BUILDING.

The work of remodeling and enlarging the old municipal building for the shirt factory is going on rapidly. In course of ten days the building should be ready for installing the machinery. F. W. Plock, of the Commercial Club, was in New York assisting in the purchase of machinery.

The outlook is good for an early start in this new industry. The question of help should not be a serious matter. Applications are being received right along and every application is filed. Applications should be made at once.

4 lbs., Good Rice for 25 cents, at Bittner's Grocery.

SOCIALISTS PRESENT CANDIDATES.

At a meeting yesterday afternoon in the Somerset Socialists' headquarters, delegates from various sections of the county endorsed the following ticket for the spring primary election, which action will be submitted to the rank and file of the party on a referendum vote for their approval or rejection:

State Senator—Louis Cohen, of Meyersdale.
Assembly—E. K. Cockley, of Somerset; Frank Lowry, of Coal Run.
Delegates to the State convention—Charles A. Meisenberger, of Somerset; B. A. Brown, of Boswell.

The Somerset Socialists decided to refer the endorsement of a candidate for Congress to the Fayette county Socialists.

Sigot.

A bigot is a man who is quite sure of something that he doesn't know anything about.—Lippincott's.

SLEIGHING PARTY.

A sleighing party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Jared Walker, son James, and daughter Ruth, and Mrs. Knable, and daughter Marian, drove to the home of Henry Mankmyer on Monday evening, where they were royally entertained. Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served.

7 bars good Laundry Soap for 25 cents, at Bittner's Grocery.

CONNELLSVILLE'S NIGHT EXPRESS AGENT MISSING.

It was admitted at the office of the United States Express company at Connelville on Wednesday that a package containing $13,000 in bank notes consigned to a Connelville bank had disappeared.

Ralph Wyant, night agent for the company, is being sought in connection with the disappearance of the package. It is alleged that he left a note in the office addressed to his wife, in which he said, "I have committed a crime and you will not see me any more."

It was learned, however, that the packet of money arrived late Monday afternoon and was taken by a driver to the bank to which it was consigned. Flaming the bank closed for the day, the driver returned it to the office, where Wyant signed for it and took charge of it for the night. Wyant is said to have taken the packet and departed on one of the night trains. Nothing has been heard from him since.

Officials of the United States Express Company arrived in Connelville Tuesday morning at the call of Agent G. R. Zimmerman and spent the entire day going over the matter and putting the wheels in motion for the capture of the fugitive.

Various rumors spread to the effect that the sum missing was from $10,000 to $100,000, but local bankers scoff at the idea that such a large sum as the latter would have been sent here. They say there has been an inactivity in the shipment of money into town recently though the banks have sent large sums out. It is said that Wyant handled shipments as high as $70,000 only a short time ago, hence it is believed that the theft was conceived and executed within a short time. Had he planned a robbery, he would have had plenty of opportunities to get away with larger sums.

APPLE PACKING DEMONSTRATION.

The Department of Horticulture, Pennsylvania State College, State College, Pa., will conduct an apple packing school in connection with the State Horticultural Association of Pennsylvania at their annual meeting, January 20-21-22 at York, Pa.

Practice both in box and barrel packing will be given all interested parties. All parties interested in packing apples can secure instruction and practice at the packing room Coliseum, York, Pa., during the days of the State meetings.

Do Right.

Do right and God's recompense to you will be the power to do more right. Give, and God's reward to you will be the spirit of giving more; blessed spirit, for it is the spirit of God himself, whose life is the blessedness of giving. Love, and God will pay you with the capacity of more love; for love is heaven; love is God within you.—Rev. Frederick W. Robertson.

If angels had to live with some men there would be more fallen ones.

NEED OF THE "MUCKRAKER"

Term Should Not Be One of Reproach, Since Work Is for the Common Good of All.

What a confusion of ideas there is in our modern use of the word "muckraking!" It has been so wrested from its original meaning that John Bunyan would not recognize it. In the great allegory the sordid pilgrim gave his whole attention to the straws and rubbish and ignored the angel above his head. His conduct was reprehensible. But today when a brave man lays bare the corruption of a town or city it is called "muckraking" and sometimes frowned upon by easel-loving burghers, when it is really ethical and social sanitation. Often the investigator brings to our attention unpleasant facts; but if they are facts we ought to be grateful to him. Any man who warns us when our house is afire or informs us about some overlooked disease-breeding refuse near our house, that man deserves our thanks. Why vilify the person who is trying to prevent the spread of disease, physical or social? "Muckraking," forsooth! Our protest should be made not against the "raking," but against the "muck." And "muck" or graft or inefficiency must first be pointed out before the cleansing can take place. Many cities of our land have better public service today because of the efforts of certain resolute muckrakers. We need more of this work rather than less. As long as there is muck, just so long let it be raked out into view and condemned and removed. Let the reformer rake all the more bravely and thoroughly, because he lifts his eyes now and then and sees above his head the angel of a municipal ideal.—Christian Register.

Too Much Competition.

"Hang it!" mutters the enraptured youth. "What chance have I to get her alone? She has to go to the auto show, the food show, the flower show, the dog show, the millinery show, the land show and—Oh, well, there's no show for me!"—Judge.
