

REMNANT SALE!

Our RED LETTER SALE just closing has been the largest and most successful we have had. More stock moved, more customers waited on and pleased than ever before. As a result we have a large assortment of remnants and odds and ends that we are anxious to move out to make the cleanup complete. Don't delay until the best selections in styles and materials are gone but come in early.

Saturday, February 7 to Saturday, February 14, 1914.

THE GREAT SALE AT TULMAN'S UNDERSELLING STORE IS THE TALK OF THE DAY!

Come here where you will be able to get your money's worth. We slashed the prices, not on account of selling goods, but to get you as our customer. Read every line in this Ad—there will be something that will interest you.

Men's Clothing We have a big lot of them and we are going to sell them at one-half the regular prices. So don't delay this for some other time.	Boys' Overcoats Here is something you do not want to miss, as every one must be sold, no matter how the prices will be, as we have marked them so cheap that you can't afford to miss this.	Ladies' and Children's Coats We have only a few of them left, but they must go. Nothing in Winter Goods we want to have left over for next year. Therefore we got the prices for you. Do not delay this, but come at once and get your choice.

RECENT MARRIAGES IN THE COUNTY.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon A. Shaffer, in the west end of Somerset was the scene of a quiet wedding when their eldest daughter, Miss Irma Belle Shaffer, became the wife of Charles Elmer E. Pile. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. I. Hess Wagner. Mr. Pile is a clerk in the P. A. Schell Hardware Store. After an eastern trip the young couple will make their home in Somerset.

Miss Edna B. Kurtz, and Ray W. Forquer, both of Addison borough, were married at Addison, by Rev. H. C. Thomas.

Miss Harriet Landis, of Shanksville and Chauncey L. Davis of Somerset township, were married at Johnstown by Rev. Wm. McCullum.

Miss Mabel Constance Lindbeck, of Jamestown, N. J., and Thomas Edward Murray, of Somerset, were married at Meyersdale by Rev. J. J. Brady.

Miss Mary Augusta Beck, and Roy Henry Shaulis, both of Bakersville, were married at the parsonage of the Lavansville Lutheran church, by Rev. H. M. Petrea.

Miss Anna Lavina Walters, of Confluence and Albert Padfield, of Meyersdale were married at the home of the officiating magistrate Justice of the Peace, W. H. Hay, in Meyersdale.

Miss Ida Belle Hoyle, and Wesley Mishler, both of Brothersvalley township, were married at the court house by Marriage License Clerk, Bert E. Landis.

Miss Goldie V. Stahl and Guy Shaulis, both of Lincoln township, were married at Friedens, by Rev. J. C. McCarney, pastor of the Friedens Lutheran church.

Miss Tillie M. Barndt, of Allenvale and Stephen Merringer, were married at Lavansville, by Rev. H. M. Petrea, of the Lavansville Lutheran church.

Miss Ella May Shaffer, of Somerset and William H. Mosholder, of Milford township, were married at Somerset by Rev. H. A. Buffington, pastor of the U. B. church.

Altogether Too Successful. Quizzer—"What's the matter, old man? You look worried." Sizzer—"I have cause to. I hired a man to trace my pedigree. Quizzer—"Well, what's the trouble? Hasn't he been successful?" Sizzer—"Successful! I should say he has! I'm paying him hush-money."—Judge.
