Household Notes.

If citron hardens, let it stand a little while in hot water, then it will cut easily.

Every kitchen should have a kitchen window garden box in its south window.

Two people, one to wash and one to wipe, greatly expedites the dish-washing business.

Cookie cutters are now made which cut the cookies as fast as you roll it over the dough.

All stationary tubs should have oil-cloth covers. They are easy to clean and very durable.

On ironing day, keep an old folded sheet handy, to lay under garments with buttons, etc.

Some housewives find that changing washday from Monday to Tuesday simplifies things immensely.

The real test of a larder is jam; if you have a larder in which jam will not keep, it needs reforming.

To remove iodine stains from clothing or bed linen, soak the article twenty-four hours in cold water.

Ginger poultices are as efficacious as mustard and will not blister. They should be made in the same way.

Paper napkins at breakfast are not only economical, but they add to the gaiety of the breakfast table.

Two or three dozen dollies are much easier to handle in the wash than two or three large tablecloths.

To preserve brass without taking lacquer off, and stop from rusting, mix together a little beeswax and spirits of turps. Apply a small quantity, and then rub off with a soft cloth. This will make brass like new.

To make a light sponge cake, take one cupful of flour, one cupful of sugar, two eggs. Mix flour and sugar well together, then add the eggs, well beaten. Beat all together and bake in a hot oven about fifteen minutes.

Raisin Bread—To ordinary dough, made with one quart of whole-wheat flour, add one cupful of seeded raisins. Part of the flour should be reserved for dredging them. Do not put the raisins in until just before kneading.

To keep the coffee pot sweet, put a tablespoonful of baking soda into it, fill it two-thirds full of water, and let it boil for an hour. Then rinse very thoroughly. Do this once a week, and the pot will always smell fresh and clean.

Gruel for colds is made with one pint of milk, one tablespoonful of oatmeal, sugar and sherry. Cream the oatmeal with a little milk, heat the rest of the milk. Cook for ten minutes and add sugar and one teaspoonful of sherry.

Prune Salad—This is delicious for luncheon. Stew one pound of large prunes until soft, without sweetening. Drain and pit; then fill the cavities with nut-meats or cream cheese, and serve on lettuce leaves with mayonnaise dressing.

Prepare for the breeding season. Pratts Poultry Regulator given to all your birds will strengthen the parent stock increasing fertility and result in bigger hatches of healthy chicks. Sold on money back guarantee by Habel & Phillips and Cover & Son.

His Colors.

Gabe—Young Scribble, the author, seems very blue. Steve—Yes; it seems that he isn't read."

Fashions and Fads.

The short, loose jackets, which end in belts below the hip line, continue to be worn.

The frilly edge seems to be an indispensable detail in fashionable neck fixings.

Filet bands with jet are among the newest trimmings and are a French idea.

Large women should avoid the bright colors; modified colors are the safest for them.

With some of the new coats a four-in-hand tie of thick white chevrot is worn as a muffler.

There is no diminution in the liking for rattice; if anything, it increases in popularity.

The styles and materials which "trim themselves" are best to choose for children's dresses.

For negligees, the favorite colors are canary yellow, green, blue, pink, coral and poppy pink.

Figured designs appear in the new moire silks, either with or without the watered effect.

The bondoir caps are now worn with any type of negligee dress, from bed jacket to tea gown.

One of the prettiest necklaces is the velvet collar with its pendant or buckles. Short strings of very heavy beads are also liked.

Some of the new cotton crepes have a dash of silk mixed in with them to form a design, and this design is often as not a color.

In planning a blouse or gown, be sure always to have soft lines about the neck. The woman doesn't live who isn't improved by them.

Broad sashes of Roman striped ribbon are a pretty note of brightness in the simple dark dresses appropriately chosen for schoolgirls.

Coats to the new "sweater dresses" for spring are cut very full, hanging loose from the shoulder and springing into godets at the hem.

One of the most radical French dressmakers is showing gowns with draped skirts of black satin and bodices of peau de pesche in bright colors.

Duvetyne is a great disappointment so far as durability is concerned, but it is forgiven for its wonderful texture. Wool velour has its virtues without its vices.

Colds, constipation and headache are three common afflictions and relieving the constipation helps the cold and stops the headache. Use Foleys Cathartic Tablets because they are very prompt and thoroughly cleansing, with absolutely no unpleasant effects. A whole bottle full for 20 cents.
