OMISSION.

In the obituary of Albert Koeppe last week, we failed to mention the name of his son, Harvey Koeppe, who resides at No. 117 Singer St., Johnstown. The omission is due to the fact that nothing was mentioned about the son when we secured our data for the obituary. Mr. Koeppe said that he was at Cumberland at the time of his father's death and had not been apprised of the fact. He was in town on Saturday for a short time and returned on Monday.

GRADUATES TO VISIT WASHINGTON.

The graduating class of Somerset High School will visit Washington, D. C., instead of holding the customary commencement at the close of the school term next May, according to plans announced and it is believed that the students will derive more benefit from the trip than from lectures heard at commencement exercises. It is also expected that with a trip to the national capital at the goal there will be more incentive for students to complete the course of study.

Appropriate.

Charles Frohman, the theatrical manager, was once talking in London about his plans for the winter. "I hoped that Sir George Alexander would go to the states," he said. "Alexander isn't his right name, is it?" his friend asked. "No," said Mr. Frohman, "his right name is Samson. It was a pity to change the name of Samson for that of Alexander." "But Alexander conquered the world, you know," said the other. "Samson, however, is the more appropriate theatrical name," Mr. Frohman insisted. "Have you forgotten that Samson was the first man who brought down the house?"

"BILLY" SUNDAY

The Baseball Evangelist.

A Graphic, Thrilling Life Story of the Man Who Is Stirring Millions to Repentance.

Editor Theodore T. Frankenburg's fascinating story of Billy Sunday's remarkable career will be told in the Era soon. This interesting history is told in 42 columns, and includes many half-tone pictures of the evangelist and members of his party. The serial will run seven weeks—a page a week.

The exclusive story has been secured at a considerable expense, and is bound to prove highly interesting reading.

These seven numbers will be sent for 25 cents in stamps or coin. The paper will be promptly discontinued at the end of this period unless requested longer.
