HOW HE RECOGNIZED THEM

Youthful Picture Gazer Was Not Impressed by Beauty of the Faces of the Madonnas.

An art missionary was giving an exhibition of pictures to a crowd of settlement children. One small boy seemed especially interested in the Madonnas and listened attentively to her explanation of the meaning conveyed by each picture.

When half a dozen Madonnas had been shown he cried out excitedly: "Here's another of them like we've had before!"

"The earnest young woman turned with surprise. 'Why, did you really recognize it?' she questioned.

"'Yes—yes I can spot 'em every time,' was the prompt response.

"'Can you, truly?' she queried, touched and pleased.

"'Surest thing you know!' the small child replied.

The art missionary thought a moment, then said softly to him, 'Yes, you are right. You can distinguish them from other pictures. There is a tenderness, a beauty, a sort of brooding mother-love such as you never see anywhere—but in the face of Mary as she looks at the Child Jesus.'

"'Now, 'tain't that!' was the disgusted rejoinder. 'It's them rings around their heads that gives 'em away!'

DEFENDED WIFE; MUST GO TO JAIL

MONESSEN PHYSICIAN PROTECTED HIS HOME—COURT REFUSES LENIENCY.

Doctor Found Guilty of Voluntary Manslaughter for Killing Man Who Attacked the Former's Wife.

Western Newspaper Union News Service. Greensburg.—Dr. Martin Griffith of Monessen, Pa., who was convicted on a charge of voluntary manslaughter in connection with the death of William L. Robinson, was sentenced to six months in the Allegheny county workhouse. Sentence was imposed by Judge L. W. Doty in criminal court, who presided at the physician's trial some months ago. Attorney Adam Wyant, who represented Dr. Griffith, presented a petition to the court asking that the physician be paroled, but Judge Doty refused to grant the petition, which contained the names of several hundred prominent persons, including several ministers. Dr. Griffith returned home from Europe only a few days ago, and while there had a degree conferred upon him for distinction in surgery by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, which met in London. He was to have gone to St. Petersburg, Russia, to receive another degree, but was unable to reach there on account of the war. In refusing the petition for parole, Judge Doty said that Dr. Griffith was "guilty of a heinous crime," and as he had received a fair and impartial trial, he should not go unpunished. Dr. Griffith was convicted here last May on a charge of voluntary manslaughter, in connection with the death of Prof. Robinson. The attack took place at Dr. Griffith's home in Monessen, and at the time of the trial it was alleged that the dead music teacher attempted to attack the wife of Dr. Griffith when Griffith went to her assistance. Robinson died as a result of the injuries inflicted by Griffith, it is said.

Sharon.—That the English government has practically cornered the wheat market of Trumbull county indirectly was learned here. Practically every bushel of wheat that has been raised this year in that county has been purchased by the Richards & Evans Co. of Cortland, O. This mill has an order from the English government for a shipment of flour. It will require the entire output of the mills to fill the order this year.

Easton.—Nathan Levine, about 60 years of age, is in the Palmerton hospital with a fractured skull, sustained in a fight at Newport, this county. Levine, whose home is in New York city, has been visiting his nephew, Abraham Miller, and offered to go out and milk the latter's cows. By mistake, it is said, he got into the barn of John Wanco, a neighbor, and was milking the latter's cows when Wanco came in with his brother Peter. They accused Levine of trying to steal the milk. The Millers claim that Levine pointed out that he had made a mistake, apologized and offered to pay for the milk, but the Wancos insisted that he should be arrested. Terrified, he made an effort to escape, and in a scuffle that ensued was hit over the head with a broomstick. The Wanco brothers were arrested.

Kane.—Fearing arrest, Joe Ginnion of Wilcox took a daring leap from Pennsylvania's passenger train No. 41 and received injuries which may cause his death. The train was speeding at a rate of 30 miles an hour when he jumped through the window. Ginnion had been using profane language on the train and refused to quit until he saw Detective Caldwell coming towards him, when he made his fatal leap six miles east of this city.

Harrisburg.—The appointment of students to the State Forest academy for the year 1914 was made by the commissioner of forestry. These students were selected from a class of 16, from which group 12 were selected to go into the state forests for six weeks for trying out in practical work.

The classes at Mont Alto are limited to 10 men each, and out of the group of 12 the 10 best men were selected. These students were directed to report at the Forest academy on Tuesday, Sept. 1, on which day the opening of the instruction year takes place. These young men enter into a contract with the commonwealth to take a course of three years at the academy and then to serve the state for three years upon a state forest. Their contract is supported by a bond in the sum of $500 with sureties satisfactory to the department.

Uniontown.—One man was injured seriously, two houses were set on fire, a motorcycle was wrecked and a horse injured when a small boy, whose identity is not determined, put a lighted match to some gasoline which had dropped from a tank wagon standing in front of a garage in E. Main-st.

Kittanning.—Kittanning will get a new electric light and water plant, the voters of the borough having voted in favor of the $112,000 bond issue. Out of 1,228 voters only 568 visited the polls. The vote cast was 517 in favor of the issue and 51 against it.

Carlisle.—Mrs. Abigail Sims at the Brethren Old People's home, Huntsdale, celebrated her 100th birthday.

Mt. Holly Springs.—David Timmons, 25 years old, was jostled under a moving freight train on the Reading at Barnitz and fatally injured. He was taken to the Todd hospital, Carlisle, and died there.

THE BIG WEEK AT JOHNSTOWN.

Crowds getting off the train at Johnstown during the week of September 15th, cannot even get away from the depot without knowing something big is going on. All the streets will be decorated for the big Trade Expo and Fall Fashion Festival, five days of fun, frolic and festivity, that will be given for the benefit of all this part of the state by the Johnstown Chamber of Commerce. Every store and business house will be gaily decorated inside and outside. There will be souvenirs given away on all sides, orchestras and bands will play, pantomimes and vaudeville will be free, nothing will cost anybody anything because the business folk of Johnstown are footing all the bills and simply inviting the surrounding counties to come and have a good time.

Living models will be a special feature. The most beautiful women who can be hired from New York and other cities will be brought to Johnstown to show off stunning gowns and creations for women. They will be on the street as well as in the stores. The kind of men you see in magazines will display men's clothes.

Special attractions for the farmers are being prepared by the stores that handle their particular lines of goods. Machinery and equipment in special array will be added to exhibits of the most up-to-date methods of doing all sorts of work around the farm.

Canneries in This State.

The Bureau of Statistics of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture has been working in conjunction with the Bureau of Economic Zoology to prepare a list of the canneries of Pennsylvania. This is now completed and is in the hands of State Zoologist, H. A. Surface, Harrisburg, Pa., who will supply free of charge the information as to the location of canneries, and name and address of the owner or superintendent of each respective company. Such lists should be extremely valuable to fruit growers who may be wondering what to do with their surplus fruit during this year of such remarkable abundance.

It is naturally, and no doubt correctly, predicted that fruits will be scarce next year, and, consequently, it is but natural to believe that they will then be much higher in price, and the canneries can, consequently, use them this year to advantage.

The list prepared by the Department shows canneries in each of the following counties:

Adams, Allegheny, Beaver, Bucks, Bradford, Cumberland, Delaware, Erie, Greene, Lancaster, Luzerne, Lycoming, Montgomery, Union and York. It is hoped to make it complete with a view of aiding fruit growers and others who may have perishable fruits for sale, as well as helping consumers. It will be published in the next Annual Report of the Department of Agriculture, and in the meantime any person desiring knowledge of canneries in any one or more counties of the State can obtain this, free of charge by writing to State Zoologist H. A. Surface, Harrisburg.
