

SALISBURY.
The last week issue of the Commercial announcement was made of the Stevens Reunion to be held at the home of Jacob Stevens at Holsopple in this county. It may be of interest to some of the readers of the Commercial to know that the Stevens relationship of the southern part of the county are all cousins of the Stevens clan in the northern part of Somerset and in Cambria county, the original name of Stephanus, as some of the pioneers wrote it, having been changed by the later generations to savannus and Stevens. The children of John Stevens of Elk Lick, Pa., and Jacob Stevens of Holsopple, Pa., are well as enjoyable or the Stevens kin of this section to attend this annual event as many of them are not acquainted with their cousins at Holsopple and other places.

BUSINESS ANNOUNCEMENT.

The new management of the Commercial desires to inform the public that all outstanding subscriptions, job work and advertising accounts have been purchased from Mr. A. M. Schafer and settlement is to be made with the present owner.

REDUCTION TO PAY UP.
That the subscription list of the Commercial may be more of an advance payment list, up to November, all settlements for arrears or future payments will be made on the basis of $1.25 per year. For many people this would mean putting out their money at 20 per cent; surely this is worth considering by the Commercial subscribers, and those who purpose becoming such.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS FOR BACKACHE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER

OUR GREAT COMBINATION OFFER

Elsewhere in this issue is the greatest offer we have ever seen in combination with any newspaper. Subscribers to the Commercial for $1.85—only 35 cents more than our regular subscription rate, can obtain the greatest weekly farm paper in the world—the National Stockman and Farmer, the price from the publishers being $1.00 per year in advance; also the Dairy Farmer, published twice a month, the price of which is $1.00 per year. This is an invaluable aid to dairymen and all farmers; and last but not least, The Woman's World—all three with The Commercial for $1.85, when subscription is paid in advance. Send in your subscriptions at once so you may take advantage of this great offer. These are all high grade magazines not the trashy literature often offered in newspaper combinations.
