Want Good Government Rather Than Party Exaltation

The line of the real issue in the present political campaign is being more clearly outlined. Perhaps as distinct a setting as has been given to it lately was that of Riley M. Little, who is general secretary of the Society for Organizing Charity, Philadelphia, in an address at Lebanon one day this week, when he said—

"Let it be understood at the outset that the movement in which I, in common with many other independent Republicans, am joined is not a political movement, but is solely in the interest of good government.

"Because the Republican party has become the refuge of those interested in the liquor business and special legislation, very frequently vicious in its nature, we can no longer support the candidates calling themselves Republicans, and I am here to-night to ask you to join with me in electing a clean, honest and honorable set of men who can bring the state of Pennsylvania out of the depths into which it has sunk through the activities of self-seeking politicians.

"I have always been a Republican, and Senator Penrose calls himself a Republican; but if Penrose is typical, I, with many thousands of others, can no longer wish to be called Republicans.

"Our opposition to Dr. Brumbaugh is based not only upon his association with Senator Penrose, but also upon the evasive manner in which he has addressed us in response to all our efforts to find out where he stands."

When he was asked directly whether for the rehabilitation and improvement of the Republican party, Penrose, the liquor candidate, ought to be retired, responded, "No, I am not willing to say that." Dr. Brumbaugh fully endorses Penrose. Do you?

LARIMER.

ST. PAUL.

The schools have been in session one month. We believe the teachers are trying to do their duty. We look for good results. Parents and pupils should work in co-operation with the teacher to produce the best results.

There are quite a number of pupils out of school who should be there. Some are working and will start in soon. What a pity that all cannot start in the beginning of the term and continue to the end. "To remain ignorant is to remain a slave". Education shows us our needs and opens the way to their attainment. One day last week both schools went out chestnut hunting and report a good time.

H. G. Lepley and family visited Mahlon Yoder's Sunday last.

Frances Sipple is now occupying his house he recently purchased from the Maust brothers.

It is reported that a number of our town people saw a representation of a black sword about twelve feet long, in the eastern sky. The sword soon turned red and it appeared as if blood was dropping from its end. A cannon ball with sparks of fire escaping from it was another phenomenon reported. It was also seen in the east. We know Europe is in the throes of a great war, but do not think it likely that a sword and cannon balls could be seen in this way from St. Paul.

There will be Sunday school at 9 a. m. and church services at 10 a. m. in the Reformed church at St. Paul, Sunday October 10th.

VIM.

MUNSING WEAR

whole family

Our trade in Munsingwear is family trade. Fathers buy it for themselves and for their boys, mothers buy it for their own use as well as for their daughters. And the fact that our trade is growing right along, seems to show that they all like it. There's a right size for everybody, from little tots to grandparents.

And what underwear can anyone in the family get that will wash so well, wear so long, fit so perfectly and give so much comfort and satisfaction for so little money, as Munsing Union Suits? As for us, we're glad to be able to distribute locally an article of such unusual merit as Munsingwear.

You can get it in any size at
