

PERSONAL AND LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Items Pertaining to the Town in General and Prepared for the Readers By Our Busy Staff.

J. M. Mortland, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

R. G. Hillegass of Doe Gully, W. Va., visited friends here on Sunday.

John M. Kelley visited relatives and friends in Pittsburgh Saturday and Sunday.

Charles and Alfred Dahl, visited friends in Longwood, Md., on Sunday last.

Herbert Rutter, of Ralphton, was a Sunday visitor here, with relatives and friends.

Russel Younkin, of Markleton, visited relatives and friends in town on Sunday last.

Miss Carrie Johnson of Salisbury, was shopping and calling upon friends here on Monday.

Levi Deal and son James of Grove City, were business visitor here a few days this week.

Miss Emma Gress, visited relatives and friends in Cumberland, Md., a few days last week.

Miss Mary Will, returned home on Sunday from a short visit with relatives at Kimmel, Pa.

Mrs. J. W. Cook and daughter Hazel, left Sunday for a few days visit in Bedford county.

Miss Mary Leckemby and brother James spent Sunday with relatives and friends in Rockwood.

Rev. A. S. Kresge is attending the Pittsburg Synod, of the Reformed church, in session at Jeannette.

Mrs. Joseph Tressler, returned home on Sunday from a two weeks visit with relatives at Kingwood.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Meyers and daughter, Miss Kathryn, were visiting in Pittsburgh, several days last week.

Prof. C. W. Baldwin, Meyersdale's veteran handmaster is instructor of Markleton's new brass band of fifteen pieces.

Miss Mayme Lynch, formerly of this place but now of Pittsburgh, spent Sunday here with relatives and friends.

Miss Mary Nedrow, of Confluence, was a guest at the home of Mrs. J. H. Pfahler, of Broadway street, on Sunday.

Miss Hazel Strayer has returned to her home in Johnstown, after spending a week here with her sister, Mrs. E. C. Kyle.

Miss Edna Kuhs, returned home on Friday evening from a two weeks visit with relatives and friends at Johnstown.

Cashier J. H. Bowman, N. E. Miller and E. C. Kyle, motored to Confluence Monday, where they transacted business.

Miss Evelyn Leckemby, spent Sunday with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Leckemby, at West Mewton.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Ford have returned to their home in this place, having spent the past two years at Doe Gully, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Crowe, and daughter Dorothy and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Crowe, and son Beryl spent Sunday with relatives near Frostburg, Md.

Herbert Stein was a recent visitor with friends at Johnstown and Holsopple.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pfeiffer, and children spent Sunday with relatives near Ellerslie, Md.

The Dorcas Thimble Club was delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. H. H. Williams.

Mrs. Roy Richards and little son of Wilkinsburg, were guests of Miss Aggie Deal, Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Sara Hartle, left Friday for Punxsutawney, where she will visit relatives and friends for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. U. M. Weimer, their daughter, Miss Nellie, and Miss Pearl Shultz motored to Grantsville, Md., on Sunday.

Misses Edith and Florence Just returned home Monday from Johnstown, where they had been visiting for several days.

Mrs. John Ryan, of Connellsville, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stein, of North street, a few days last week.

Mrs. Wm. Dahl, and children, who had been spending the past week with relatives and friends at Bedford, returned home on Sunday.

Messrs Frank Johnson, Thomas Henderson, Charles Edwards and J. F. Aherst, all of Cumberland, visited friends here on Sunday.

Miss Esther Conrad left this morning to spend a month in Washington, D. C., visiting at the home of her cousin, Claude Towles.

Prof. Henry Gress, of Coalport, Pa., spent Sunday here with his parents, Burgess and Mrs. Valentine Gress, of Salisbury street, South Side.

Miss Bertha Kuffert and Mrs. Norman Holzhauser and daughter, have returned from Somerset, where they had been visiting for few days.

Cashier R. H. Philson, of the Citizens National bank, is attending the American Bankers' convention being held at Richmond, Va., this week.

Miss Lelia Conlehan visited her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walsh, in Cumberland, Md., for several days during the week.

Letters of administration have been issued to Annie Brougher and F. J. Brougher, in the estate of Harrison Brougher, late of Upper Turkeyfoot township. Bond $15,000.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hocking have returned from a visit to Beaver, and Dawson. At the latter place they were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Parsons.

The delightful dancing-craze musical play, "Seven Hours in New York" with a wealth of new costumes, scenery and electrical effects, clever comedians dainty dancers and sweet singers, comes to the Donges Theatre on Friday evening, October 23rd.

The company includes such well-known names as Trixie Mar, Joseph Mack, Della Clark, William Lewis, George Fredericks, Mergie Norworth, Will Hebert, Grace Witcher, and many others including the big beauty chorus.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Naugle, returned home on Saturday from a visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stiver, at Everett, Pa.

Miss Ida Pfahler, who is employed in a millinery store in Confluence, spent Sunday here with her mother, Mrs. J. H. Pfahler, of Broadway street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Stein and daughter Miss Thelma, were Cumberland visitors on Saturday. Miss Velma remained there longer the guest of Miss Mary Farrer.

Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Cook and their daughter Ruth of Troutville, Clearfield Co., spent Thursday of last week with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cook of High street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wynn, and two sons and Mrs. Dr. Miller of Centre county, spent Sunday at the M. A. Rutter home on Meyers avenue. The visiting ladies are sisters of Mrs. Rutter.

C. J. VonMoos, who for the past two years has been conducting a store near the Western Maryland station, is making preparations to move to Pine Hill, to open a store at that place.

Dr. H. Stanley Mitchell of Oakland, Md., was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Collins, stopping here a few days before returning to his duties in a Medical college, in Baltimore, Md.

J. W. Cook and C. I. Brant spent Wednesday of last week in Washington, D. C., where they met Webster Bittner, a former resident of this place, but for several years residing in Washington, where he is employed by the Allan Mitchell Garage Co.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has decided that the amount of damage collectible on growing timber set on fire through negligence is not only the value of the wood destroyed, but also the injury to the property as a whole through the destruction of the young growth.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hoffman and the latter's mother, Mrs. Cole, of Berlin, were visiting in Meyersdale on Monday. They were former residents of this place, when Mr. Hoffman was assistant cashier at the Second National bank, and have many friends here who were glad to meet them.

Visiting in this section a few days at the home of Mrs. Dennis Ward's, Glade City and at Dr. Bruce Lichty's this place were Dr. Milton J. Lichty of Cleveland and Dr. John M. Lichty, of Pittsburgh, brothers, with their families. Other places were also visited. The trip was made in automobiles.

Luke Hay, while on a business trip to Bedford last week attended the Bedford county fair and says it was the best he ever saw there and he has attended quite a number of fairs at that place. The horse racing and gate receipts and the privilege money were the largest ever taken in at the Bedford county fair. It was estimated that 2,000 automobiles and other conveyances were there on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Rohrbach, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Rohrbach and daughters, Rosedry and Drucelle, of Hanover, Pa., arrived here last Friday to visit Mrs. Walter Rohrbach's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lint of the South Side. The trip was made by automobile, the two former returning by the same route on Monday, while the latter will remain here for two weeks.

HUNDREDS OF BUSY TAILORS

have been working for weeks to supply the demand for the new Fall styles in Princess coats and suits. Thousands of these popular garments in an almost endless variety of style, material and color combinations have been skillfully designed that you might be well clad this winter.

Working on so large a scale, these garments have been produced at a considerable saving over the cost of smaller manufacturers, and this saving is shared by you when you buy a Printzess.

Why not wear one this fall—you are assured of the maximum in style and quality and the cost is no more.

May we look for you to come in, put one of these popular garments to the test of a personal try-on, and let us explain their superior points?

HARTLEY, CLUTTON CO.

Hartley Block,

Meyersdale, Pa.

RECENT SOMERSET COUNTY WEDDINGS.

Miss Lottie Firestone and John B. Younkin, both of Upper Turkeyfoot township, were married at the court house in Somerset.

Miss Emma B. Spangler, and Clyde F. Brant, both of Shanksville, were married at the parsonage of the Shanksville Lutheran church, by Rev. M. L. Schmucker.

Miss Ella E. Topper, of New Baltimore and George A. Will, of Allegheny township, were married at St. John's church, New Baltimore, by Rev. Frederick D. Paulding.

Miss Bessie Berkey, and William Redfern, both of Windber, were married at Windber by Rev. H. G. Moody.

Miss Gertrude M. Stahl, and Charles W. Miller, both of Somerset township were married at New Centreville Lutheran church.

Miss Mary Ellen Hostetler of Greenville township and Ira Mendal McWilliams of Pittsburgh, were married at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Hostetler.

Just received another car of Golden Loaf Flour, $6.75 per bbl., and every bag guaranteed to make good bread, at Habel & Phillips.

The Woman Who Takes

the proper help to keep her digestion right and her system free from poisonous accumulations, is not troubled with headaches, backache, languid feelings, unnatural sufferings. All women who have tried know this famous remedy to be the proper for them. A few doses will make immediate difference and regular use will cause a permanent improvement in health and strength. They cleanse the system and purify the blood and every woman who relies on Beecham's Pills, not only enjoys better physical condition, with quieter nerves and brighter spirits, but she

BEECHAM'S PILLS

Enjoys A Clear Complexion

Directions of Special Value to Women with Every Box. Sold everywhere. In boxes, 10c., 25c.

GLENCOE.

A goodly number of young people from here attended the spelling bee at Wagaman school on Friday night. We boast of having one of the best spellers in attendance.

W. Love and family of Pittsburg, arrived Sunday. They will get some of their farm produce in shape for the city while here.

Samuel Poorbaugh, who has been ill for weeks, is much improved. Dr. Sals is his physician now.

A real corn husking was held at W. H. Smith's of Fairhope on Saturday. W. A. Raupach and family and Dora Raupach attended.

Weather again was kind to motorists on Sunday last. I. D. Leydig and family had a fine trip to Coleman, where they spent the day with Mrs. Elizabeth Pile and family.

Florence Diest visited with her aunt, Mrs. H. M. Bittner, a few days of last week.

A new heating plant is being installed this week by I. D. Leydig. Web Trent of Somerset is the plumber.

A foraging party in the form of Mabel Snyder and "Scout" Leydig drove to the Snyder estate north of town last Tuesday. They procured as booty frost bitten tomatoes and mammoth chestnuts.

DONGES' THEATRE

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22 One Night Only

Rowland and Clifford announce the successful Fun Show with Jingle Tunes.

"SEPTEMBER MORN"

With the Swiftest, Smartest Cast of the Year

50 PEOPLE 50

Biggest Sensation Ever Created in The LASALLE Opera House, Chicago

A Real Joy The satisfying compound of MUSIC, BEAUTY and FUN Superb CHORUS effects COSTUMING a riot of color. SCENIC ENVIRONMENT, BEAUTIFUL A REVEL OF FUN, SONG, AND TANGO. THE GREAT CYCLONIC DANCING MUSICAL SHOW.

Seats on Sale at Thomas's Drug Store Monday, Oct. 19. Mail or Phone your Orders in. We will handle same with care. DO IT NOW.

DONGES' THEATRE

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23RD.

ONE NIGHT ONLY WE AND LAMBERT PRESENT

THE LAUGHING SONG PLAY SEVEN HOURS IN NEW YORK.

35 PEOPLE 35

Complete Scenic & Electrical Production

A Gale of Laughter. American Beauty Chorus and the A Wealth of Song. Harmony Trio. A Genuine Treat. The Season's Greatest Timeful Triumph

A Splendid Company in a play of Real merit. 18 Big Song Hits 18

Seats on sale at Thomas's Drug Store

Mail or Phone Your Orders in, We Will Take Good Care of You and Give You the Best Seat. DO IT NOW.