

PERSONAL AND LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Items Pertaining to the Town in General and Prepared for the Readers By Our Busy Staff.

Walter Thomas and D. A. Shepard visited friends in Pittsburgh on Sunday.

The regular meeting of the Lyceum will be held Thursday evening, October 29th.

A son was born on 14th inst., to Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Reiber, of Meyers avenue.

John Macbeth, of Cumberland, Md., visited friends in town on Sunday and Monday.

Berkley Meyers and Kenneth Brant visited relatives and friends in Somerset Sunday last.

Miss Emma Hostetler, visited relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. D. H. Weisel, spent Sunday with her sister, who is in the Allegheny Hospital, in Pittsburgh.

Miss Margaret Hady, left Sunday morning on the Duquesne, for a visit with relatives in Steubenville, Ohio.

Mrs. Thomas Edwards, of Markleton, spent Thursday last here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanders.

Mrs. B. B. Collins, and son Frederick visited relatives and friends in Pittsburgh and Connellsville on Sunday and Monday.

Ray Leckemby, of Hooversville, spent Sunday here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Leckemby, of the South Side.

Attorney Curtis Truxal, of Somerset, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal, of Centre street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Daugherty, and son William of Listie, passed through town on Sunday enroute to Salisbury where they visited relatives.

Mrs. James Wilson, daughter Miss Margaret and son James spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. Mary Harding, at Pittsburgh.

Miss Anna Jean Randolph, of Connellsville, returned home on Sunday from a visit here with her friend, Miss Evelyn Leckemby, of the South Side.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Lepley, of Somerset, spent Sunday here at the home of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. James Darnley, of Front street, South Side.

Mrs. P. P. Hauger, and little daughter Dorothy of Rockwood, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bitner, of Lincoln avenue, a few days this week.

W. H. Deeter and D. J. Fike, respectively Pres. and Sec. of the Meyersdale Fair Association were at the county seat on Wednesday relative to matters of the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Habel left on Tuesday for a two weeks trip going to Akron, Ohio, and from there they will go to Illinois, and visit in different places in that state.

Rev. A. S. Kresge will occupy the pulpit of the Amity Reformed church in this place on Sunday evening in the absence of the pastor. His subject will be—"Seeing Strange Things."

Hudson Durst, of Frostburg, who had been visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Crowe, of Meyers avenue, for several days during the past week returned to his home on Sunday.

Automobile owners and drivers and motorcyclists are urged to send in their applications for licenses for 1915 at an early date, according to a statement issued by the State Highway Department.

Stephen, the three-year-old son of Pickney Lowney, of Keystone mines, has diphtheria. There has been as many as twenty cases of this dread disease this fall and considerable antitoxine has been used.

County Treasurer Markel has been swamped by the applications for hunter's licenses. They have been coming in at over two hundred and fifty a day. So far, 2050 have been issued and the end is not in sight.

The United Lumber company has begun the cutting of a large timber tract several miles from Humbert, this county. A branch railroad is being run to the tract and the lumber for a time will be stored.

The B. & O. railroad, owing to the increase in business, last week added 28 additional brakemen to the force on the Cumberland division. With the winter months not far distant the coal traffic is on the increase and in a short time still more men will be added.

The season opened Thursday for bear, pheasants, grouse and squirrels, while rabbits and quail will not come in until November 1. Bear in mind that you must wear upon your arm the white 1914 license tag or you are liable to arrest, as the buff tag of 1913 is no good for hunting this fall.

Miss Mame Weber is home after spending a week with friends in Salisbury.

Mrs. Emory George spent Sunday and Monday visiting relatives at the county seat.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hammers spent Sunday and Monday with relatives in Hyndman.

Rev. W. E. Brown of Baltimore, was a guest of Clarence Moore over Tuesday night.

Mrs. H. J. Wilmoth and son, F. L. Wilmoth were in Marlinton, W. Va., on Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Richard Breig left Sunday for Confluence, where she will remain for a week visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Sara Smith of Pittsburgh, spent several days of this week here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Smith of Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Adams and Mrs. D. W. Rhoades of Hyndman, were visiting relatives and friends here last Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Pearl Dicken, and Ethel Dickson of Cumberland, Md., were guests of their friend, Miss Lucille Conrad, of High street, on Sunday.

Miss Alice Quillman returned to her home in Norristown, on Monday, after visiting for a month at the home of Mrs. H. J. Wilmoth of the South Side.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Truxal following the close of the Synod, spent over night here Wednesday, previous to their going to St. Louis, for a two weeks' visit.

A motor tour from Altoona to Cresson via Duncannon has been included in the program of entertainment for the delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which will open in Altoona, October 27th. The route will be along the Old Portage railroad and through the prettiest scenery of the Allegheny mountains. A visit will be paid to the state sanatorium at Cresson.

Invitations have been issued for a masquerade Hallow'en ball of the Centurian club at the rink in Somerset, October 30th.

Mrs. U. M. Housel was at Boynton on Tuesday to visit her father, Mr. Abraham Shumaker, who is quite feeble. He is about 87 years of age.

Glen Crowe accompanied by his sister-in-law, Miss Kate Keidle, went over to Frostburg, Saturday and remained until Sunday visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crowe.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Gurley and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Plock left yesterday for Pittsburgh, where they are attending the automobile show. T. W. Gurley will leave tomorrow to take in the show for a few days.

Miss Agnes Deal left yesterday with her brother, Levi Deal, to spend a couple of weeks at the latter's home in Grove City, the trip being made in Mr. Deal's auto. Mrs. Roy Richards accompanied them as far as her home in Wilkingsburg.

The Meyersdale Shirt Factory following an idleness of three weeks due to lack of material will resume work next Monday. This local industry for its stability is one in which the community can take considerable gratification as well as the owners of the same.

Rev. Father Brady spent Tuesday at Windber, where he assisted in the dedicatory services of the new Catholic church at that place. From there he went to Altoona to attend the annual conference of the Catholic priests of the Altoona diocese, which met there yesterday.

Dr. F. B. Thomas left Sunday for Ada, Ohio, where he joined Mrs. Thomas, who has been visiting there for several weeks, and after a few days there, both left for Chicago, to spend several days visiting in that city. They are expected home the last of this week.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing up the Luther Brotherhood banquet. The name of Mr. S. C. Hartley was inadvertently left out. The address given by him of his recent touring of Europe was quite a treat to those who heard him.

Some editors are like some other people in that they will make mistakes. This editor reluctantly must admit he is in this class as just last week he omitted the principal speaker in writing