

NOVEL IDEA IN WILL MAKING

French Farmer Had Little Money to Leave, but at Least He Could Show His Good Will.

Two New York business men were one day discussing the purchase by one of them of a certain mercantile concern with which the buyer explained, had come the "good will."

"I hope this 'good will,'" said the friend, "is greater than that of the old French farmer."

"I never heard the story."

"Here it is: The farmer was dying and he sent for the notary to make out the will. Propped up in bed, he dictated:

"To Jean Marcel, our superb coat-four, 10,000 francs.

"I bequeath 15,000 francs to the fearless Alphonse Bayard, that he may continue his valuable aeronautical experiments.

"To Pierre Deschamps, chemist, 20,000 francs as a mark of affection.

"To my physician, Monsieur Lelaire, 15,000 francs.

"To our eloquent pastor, 25,000 francs, to continue the restoration of—"

"But, my dear sir," interrupted the notary, "I don't believe you have all that money to leave."

"I know very well I haven't," said the farmer, calmly, "but I want to show them my good will."—Youth's Companion.

Cottages.

"Cottage accommodation," in the sense in which Mr. Runchiman's bill deals with it, is a phrase that would hardly be understood in the United States. Professors Greenough and Kittredge of Harvard, in their book on the ways of English words, points out that "cottage," in the strict sense of a laborer's dwelling, has never been adopted into popular American use, because America has never really had the thing. The word over there has always had literary and sentimental associations, and finally has come to be used for the most magnificent summer residences. This has gone much farther than the use of the word in England to mean a villa. In America a "cottager" definitely signifies a person who is above staying at a boarding house or hotel, and has his own summer home.—London Chronicle.

New Conundrum.

Here is a conundrum which your great-grandfathers asked each other when they were little boys:

"How many legs has a dog if you call his tail a leg?"

"Five!" shouted the little great-granddaddy of Mr. A.

"Wrong," corrected the diminutive great-granddaddy of Mr. B. "Because calling his tail a leg doesn't make it a leg."

I am reminded of this venerable brain twister of youth by the following lines in the Clayton anti-business bill:

"The District of Columbia shall be deemed a state within the meaning of this law."

So I shall modernize that ancient query by propounding the following: "How many states in the United States if you call the District of Columbia a state?"—Girard, in Philadelphia Ledger.

Evil in Nervous Excitement.

Professor von Pfungen of Vienna is conducting some interesting experiments which bear upon the relation of the state of the nervous system to the electric resistance of the skin, and he claims that nervous excitement of any kind lowers the protecting power of the skin to quite a marked extent.

A ragtime philosopher says that some men are inclined to blow out their brains because they haven't any.

The mule that gets in the first kick usually wins the scrap.

FOUND OUT.

A Trained Nurse Discovered Its Effect.

No one is in better position to know the value of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Speaking of coffee, a nurse in Pa. writes: "I used to drink strong coffee myself, and suffered greatly from headaches and indigestion."

"While on a visit to my brothers I had a good chance to try Postum, for they drank it altogether in place of coffee. After using Postum two weeks I found I was much benefited and finally my headaches disappeared and also the indigestion."

"Naturally I have since used Postum among my patients, and have noticed a marked benefit where coffee has been left off and Postum used."

"I observe a curious fact about Postum when used by mothers. It greatly helps the flow of milk in cases where coffee is inclined to dry it up, and where tea causes nervousness."

"I find trouble in getting servants to make Postum properly. But when it is prepared according to directions on package and served hot with cream, it is certainly a delicious beverage."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled. 15c and 20c packages.

Instant Postum—is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, made a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.

WHY PINCHOT WILL WIN

The solid Washington Party vote is behind him.

200,000 members of church and good government leagues, representing all political parties, have unanimously endorsed Pinchot.

Anti-saloon forces throughout the state in convention at Harrisburg overwhelmingly endorsed Pinchot.

National Republicans such as Harry L. Stimson, Secretary of War under President Taft; Herbert Knox Smith, formerly United States Commissioner of Corporations; Congressman William Kent of California, Lawrence O. Murray, Controller of the Currency for five years; Herbert Parsons of New York and other leaders have called on the Republicans of Pennsylvania for the sake of their own party to defeat Penrose and elect Gifford Pinchot.

Powerful Republican newspapers, such as the New York Tribune, the historic mouthpiece of the Republican party, call on the Republicans of Pennsylvania for their party's sake to defeat Penrose and elect Pinchot.

Leading National Democrats, such as Herbert Quick, leader of the Country Life movement; Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, head of the Pure Food movement; Charles S. Barrett, president of the Farmers' Union, an organization of 3,000,000 farmers, and Herbert S. Bigelow have endorsed Pinchot, and declared that he is the one man who should be elected United States Senator from Pennsylvania.

GIFFORD PINCHOT
Washington Party Candidate for U. S. Senator.

Labor leaders endorse Pinchot. In the western part of the state James H. Maurer, president of the State Federation of Labor, spoke from the platform with Pinchot.

Representative citizens of Huntingdon and other counties unanimously endorsed Pinchot and asked Palmer to withdraw.

The annual convention of the Epworth League of the Northwestern district of Pennsylvania, meeting at Norristown, unanimously endorsed Pinchot.

The East Pennsylvania conference of the United Brethren church unanimously endorsed Pinchot.

The Pennsylvania Sabbath School Association gives Pinchot great ovation and hails him as "Our next Senator."

The Pittsburgh M. E. conference unanimously endorsed Pinchot.

The East Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran church endorses Pinchot.

County good government leagues, county ministerial Associations, county local option leagues, county anti-saloon leagues, county "Billy" Sunday associations, have endorsed Pinchot all over the state.

THE WEAKNESS OF MR. PALMER

Palmer cannot even poll the full Democratic votes. The Donnelly-Ryan "Old Guard" Democrats of Philadelphia are for Penrose.

The Duffy "Old Guard" Democrats of Pittsburgh are against Palmer and for Penrose.

The Old Guard Democrats of the coal regions have repudiated Palmer's leadership and will stand with the Donnelly-Ryan crowd of Philadelphia against Palmer.

The J. K. P. Hall "Old Guard" Democrats of Elk county are against Palmer.

The good government forces of the state in convention at Harrisburg have asked Palmer to quit the race because Pinchot is the stronger man.

Voters allied with good government leagues, anti-saloon leagues, church associations and other good government forces have joined their state body in asking Palmer to quit in favor of Gifford Pinchot, who is a stronger man.

Voters of Warren county, Philadelphia county, Huntingdon county, and other counties who want to see Penrose beaten, have adopted resolutions asking Palmer to quit, so that all the forces of good government can center on Gifford Pinchot and make the defeat of Penrose absolutely sure.

EVIL INTERESTS WANT TO DEFEAT PINCHOT

The decent citizens of the state are rallying to Pinchot.

After a career spent in the public service he was fired from his job by President Taft because he fought for the people against the Morgans, the Rockefellers and the Guggenheims who wanted to grab the public resources.

Penrose was on the side of these grabbers and still is.

The fight of Pinchot is more than a local fight; it is a conflict where the forces of evil are trying to keep from an important post the man who they know will fight forever against them and their policy of grabbing the national resources.

CORPORAL O'BRIEN

Corporal O'Brien is one of the men who took part in the memorable charge of the Ninth British lancers under Captain Grenfell at Mons. He was wounded and sent home, and is shown here appealing to the men of Great Britain to enlist. His two brothers were killed within a hundred yards of him.

VILLA PLEDGES SUPPORT

Addresses Aguas Calientes Convention and Says War is Ended.

Washington, D. C.—General Villa has informed the United States government that, unless something unforeseen occurs, hostilities in Mexico are at an end, and he will support any provisional government set up by the National convention at Aguas Calientes. Villa said he would not accept Carranza as Provisional President, but was satisfied he would not be chosen. It is understood Carranza does not desire to be Provisional President, wishing to be free to enter the Presidential race at the election.

The latest official reports to the State Department describe the visit of General Villa to the convention at Aguas Calientes. When the commander of the Division of the North arrived, suspicions were awakened as to his purpose, but when he addressed the convention all doubt was removed. General Villa said he came to pledge his support to the acts of the convention and to take the oath and that he wanted to go on record so that no one could ever say that he was unpatriotic. He was received with storms of applause. Later he embraced General Obregon, over whom Villa's break with Carranza occurred recently.

As the two generals greeted each other effusively, the convention went wild with joy.

STEFANSSON EXPEDITION SAFE

Dr. Anderson's Party Will Winter Near Cockburn Point.

Ottawa, Ont.—The southern wing of the Stefansson expedition, under Dr. Anderson, is in good condition and will winter near Cockburn Point, according to a report received by the Naval Service Department, dated at Baile Island, August 21, brought out by the schooner "Teddy" Bear, which has been in the Arctic for two years trading with the Eskimos. The Anderson party has been busy with scientific work throughout the summer.

New Treatment for Leprosy.

Washington, D. C.—Treatment of leprosy in the Philippines by the hypodermic use of a chaulmoogra oil mixture has shown favorable results, according to a report by Dr. Victor G. Heiser, director of health for the Philippine Islands, who says in 12 cases of leprosy at San Lazare hospital, Manila, treated with it there were apparent cures 11.11 per cent; apparent clinical recoveries, 44.44 per cent; showing marked improvement, 33.33 per cent; showing only slight evidence of improvement, 11.00 per cent.

Coal Needed in Chile.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Specifications on a three-year contract calling for 300,000 metric tons of coal for the railroads of Chile were received by the Pittsburgh Foreign Trade commission, through the department of commerce in Washington.

STEAMER FOUNDERS

Freighter Strikes the Limer Metapan in New York Harbor.

New York.—The steamer Metapan, coming in from Colon, foundered in the lower harbor after a collision with the freighter Iowan, leaving port for San Francisco. All her 77 passengers and her crew were rescued. The Iowan, less seriously damaged, stood by and her boats took aboard two of the Metapan's passengers. The remainder were transferred to rescuing craft, and landed in New York.

Our Splendid Combination Offer

Three Fine Magazines for 35c
Extra, in Connection with the Commercial,

Not wishing to handle the cheap, trashy magazines, often filled with questionable stories and advertisements unfit for home and children's reading, we have made contract by which our subscribers can obtain splendid reading matter for a mere nominal price when combined with the Commercial, their favorite county paper, which is a leader in quality and circulation. We are planning to make it THE leader.

For $1.85 per year, only 35c added to the $1.50 price of the Commercial, we will send the following with our paper:

The National Stockman and Farmer, the world's Greatest Farm Paper. Note that this is a weekly farm paper—not monthly, as most others. The advance subscription price of this paper alone is $1.00 per year and you could not obtain it for less from the publishers.

The Woman's World, a fine home paper, is the second on our list, and Kimball's Dairy Farmer is the last of our combination offer which we have never seen equaled for real value.

Don't forget that you will each week get the finest farm paper published. Also a monthly woman's magazine and a dairy paper, besides the Commercial—all for $1.85.

See us for special rates on The Pittsburgh Post and The Toledo Blade for R. F. D. Routes.
