A NURSE TAKES DOCTOR'S ADVICE

And is Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Euphemia, Ohio.—"Because of total ignorance of how to care for myself when verging into womanhood, and from taking cold when going to school, I suffered from a displacement, and each month I had severe pains and nauses which always meant a lay-off from work for two to four days from the time I was 16 years old.

"I went to Kansas to live with my sister and while there a doctor told me of the Pinkham remedies but I did not use them then as my faith in patent medicines was limited. After my sister died I came home to Ohio to live and that has been my home for the last 18 years.

"The Change of Life came when I was 77 years old and about this time I saw my physical condition plainly described in one of your advertisements. Then I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot tell you or any one the relief it gave me in the first three months. It put me right where I need not lay off every month and during the last 18 years I have not paid out two dollars to a doctor, and have been blest with excellent health for a wowoman of my age and I can thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it.

"Since the Change of Life is over I have been a maternity nurse and being wholly self-supporting I cannot over estimate the value of good health. I have now earned a comfortable little home just by sewing and nursing. I have recommended the Compound to many with good results, as it is excelent to take before and after child-birth."—Miss Evelyn Adelia Stewaler, Euphemia, Ohio.

TRY TO PUT STOP TO FIGHTING

During the Prolonged Battle Soth Sides Threatened to Execute the Wounded Which Resulted in Their Being Transported.

Naco, Ariz.—Two hundred and fifty Mexicans, wounded during the attack on Naco, Sonora, were brought to this city through special permission from Washington, which first had refused asylum here. The Carranza government has promised that they will be attended without expense to the American State or National government. This action came as a result of an appeal made through Governor Hunt, in which it was asserted that if the Mexican town was taken by Governor Maytorena's Indians the wounded would be killed.

During the prolonged battle both sides have been threatening to execute the wounded, but so far no wounded have been shot after being captured. The negro troopers of the Ninth and Tenth United States Cavalry assisted in bringing the wounded to the American side. They will remain in the care of Dr. J. I. Washington, D. C .- Hoping to stop Washington, D. LESSON FOR OCTOBER 25

JESUS AND JUDAS.

LESSON TEXT-Matt. 26:14-25, 47-50; 27: B-10.
GOLDEN TEXT—Woe unto that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed. Matt. 28:42 R. V.

No literature has a more terrible story than that of Judas. Matthew gives us perhaps the fullest account of his last acts and the part he had in those final hours of the suffering and death of Jesus.

Mary's act of anointing, by Jesus commended, and by Judas condemned, caused the latter to fare forth for his final act of faithless infamy. Con-trasted with the odor of her good deed, we here have the stench of an evil deed.

I. The Bargain, vv. 14-25. (1) The Price, vv. 14-16. Disappointed in his hopes that Jesus would establish an earthly kingdom wherein he should hold a high position, stung by the re-buke of vv. 10-13 (cf. John 12:4-8) and moved by cupidity, Judas hurries to the enemies of Jesus (see John 13: 27). He saw no further opportunity 27). He saw no further opportunity to profit through "holding ithe bag," John 13:29, and so got what he could from the rulers. He estimated his worth at 30 pieces of silver about seventeen or nineteen dollars, or the value of a slave; see Ex. 21:22 and Phil. 2:7, also the prophecy of Zechariah 11:12-13. Hate, envy, disappointed tah 11:12-13. Hate, envy, disappointed ambition, and cupidity drove Judas with relentlessness in his final act of infamy. Verily, "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap," Gal. 6:7. (2) The Penalty, vv. 17-25. As we read the various accounts of that tragic last night we note that being warned and singled from among the other disciples in no wise moved Judas to repentence. The conspiracy, see Matt. 26:1-5, 14-16, had been consummated before that last meeting in the upper room.

Must Be Born Again.

Must Be Born Again.

Even grace cannot save us in our sins. All of his gifts, his nearness to the Son of God, his knowledge, first handed, of those marvelous teachings of Jesus, did not grip his heart. Head knowledge alone never saved anyone. It is not enough even to be numbered among the disciples. There must be a new creation, we must be born again, John 3:7. In verse 24 we read the final warning and John tells us (13:27) that following these words he is commanded to "go out quickly."

manded to "go out quickly."

II. The Betrayal, vv. 47-50. There are four stages in this episode: (1) In the house of Simon at the anointing of Jesus by Mary; (2) The one just considered and which took place in the "upper room" in connection with the Passover feast; (3) The third is the Passover feast; (3) The third is the subject of 'bis paragraph and took place in the Garden following the vents of last week's lesson. This picture has been painted so often as to be familiar to us all. The Son of Man, the advancing apostate disciple, the mob; what an appalling scene. Judds had probably led first to the house whence he had left Jesus. Finding Issues and the disciples had defined the property of the worst elements in corrupt politics, whose candidate Brumbaugh is, left a bad taste in the mouths of citizens. ing Jesus and the disciples had departed (v. 30) he knew where, in all probability, he would find the Master. probability, he would find the Master. It was a familiar resort for Jesus and his disciples, John 18:2, 3. Judas had often sat under these same olive trees and listened to him 'who "taught as never man taught." It was also a place sacred to prayer. How things are changed. Judas had allowed Satan to enter his heart (John 13:27, see also James 4:7) and with eager feet he crosses the brook Kedron, past the disciples and into the presence of

The Final Stage.

If the Went and Hanged Himstage is reached when, seeing that Jesus is condemned and about to be executed, Judas, filled with remorse, carried back the 30 pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders. What an exhibition of hypocrisy they evidenced, not to take the price of blood, forsooth! Judas did not really repent. The word here used for "repent" is rather that he suffered remorse, and that does not necessarily invalue.

Sand persons he originated and put into baking powder biscuits will make the white of an each pound pulp. One quart of flour made up into baking powder biscuits will make trom twelve to fifteen, according to the size of the cutter.

When he found that this was not the workmen's compensation act for government employes, and did not really repent. The thousands of men who now there used for "repent" is rather that he suffered remorse, and that does not necessarily invalue. The word here used for "repent" is rather that he suffered remorse, and that does not necessarily involve repentance as we all know. Had he truly repented he would not have hanged himself and he would have been saved even as the repentant thief was saved.

There is no necessary contracted between this and the account given in Acts 1:8. "If he hanged himself in the 'field of blood' and the rope broke the account given in Acts would naturally follow."

The Teaching. As we recall these final things in the life of Judas we must remember that they are not the beginnings of his defection. The de-

While the gang workers looked on, the band played "Onward Christian Soldiers," and "Come, All Ye Faithful." The Penrose and liquor politicians smiled a little at this.

Then the meeting was opened by a mission worker among the down and outs. Letters were read from ministers and from John Wanamaker who teaches a Sunday school class, lauding Brumbaugh.

To cap the climax, the name "Republican" did not appear on the Brumbaugh banner, when it was strung across the street.

A puree may be either an accompaniment to meat or form the foundation of a substantial soup. Whatever vegetable is turned into a puree must first be well boiled, then passed through a sieve—a work demanding patience, it is true. The puree will then have a little butter and seasoning added to it, cream or the yolks of eggs, or some gravy sauce, according to what meat it accompanies.

or white naricot beans accompanies roast mutton.

A puree of sorrel or spinach, or both combined, is really nicest when served without ment and placed in individual cocottes or in shells of fried bread. After passing the spinach, etc., through the sieve it is beaten up with a little butter and cream and liberally seasoned. It should not be boiled more than just enough to cook it tender, and then it will keep its color and flavor.

Cucumbers, marrows, turnips, artichokes and pumpkins all make delicious purees, sweet or savory. Another delicious puree of small white onions and new potatoes makes a dainty dish, if sufficient cream is added, and the mixture is put into small china dishes and browned on top.
