THURSDAY NOVEMBER 26, 1914

The True Spirit of Thanksgiving.

Unhappy indeed is the man or woman who believes he or she has little for which to be thankful, especially at this Thanksgiving season and above all in this year of 1914. With most of the great nations plunged in the most terrible war ever known, this country is enjoying peace and a comparative prosperity. But the real essence of gratitude will not only cause us to be grateful for our many blessings but will result in helping to make others more happy.

In every town and hamlet there are those in poverty and ill health who need a helping hand. What have you done at this Thanksgiving time to lighten another's burden?

The Duplex Optical company of Philadelphia, Pa., will have their specialist and his assistants at the Colonial Hotel, Thursday, Nov. 26th, to Saturday, Nov. 28th. See their advertisement in this issue.

WELLERSBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fechtig, Levi Beal and son Bertin and W. K. Kennell, were business callers in Cumberland, Saturday.

Mrs. G. W. Witt and daughter Edna spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. Witt's daughter, Mrs. Frank Delbrook at Mt. Savage.

William Ellman, teacher of the public school, is attending institute in Somerset this week.

There will be a festival held in the Lutheran and Reformed Sunday school room, Friday and Saturday nights, Dec. 4th and 5th. All are cordially invited to come and have a good time.

Mrs. A. Gessner is spending a week with her niece, Mrs. Frank Delbrook, at Mt. Savage.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Shaffer, Wednesday, Nov. 11, a 12 pound boy.

Miss Florence Sturtz is spending the winter months with her grand mother, Mrs. Sarah Sturtz.

Miss Martha Delbrook was a caller in Cumberland, Wednesday.

Mrs. B. C. Weller was a caller in Cumberland, Tuesday.

A number of women from town hired W. K. Kennell's bus on Saturday evening and called on Mr. and Mrs. Knoble of Corrigansville, by surprise. Among the number were Mesdames G. A. Tressler, Walter Winger, G. W. Witt, Eleanora Shaffer, Joseph Sturtz, H. E. Baker, George Fechtig, F. P. Shaffer, George Obaker, and Mrs. Russell Kennell.

Ralph Poorbaugh was a caller in town Saturday night.

Rev. and Mrs. Knoble spent Sunday and Monday with Geo. Fechtig's.

Miss Elthea Wilhelm of Cumberland, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wilhelm.

Mrs. Ed. Wilhelm and son Carl spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Wilhelms sister, Mrs. Levi Shaffer of Frostburg.

GLENCOE.

Mrs. Leah and Mrs. V. F. Leydig are spending a few days in Cumberland this week, with the latter's daughter, Mrs. A. M. Raupach.

The school children are rejoicing in the long week of vacation.

The moving picture and vaudeville show held in Leydig's hall Saturday and Monday nights, was an event enjoyed by all.

Judging from the frequent visits Chas Lowe of Pittsburg makes to Glencoe, he is having a hard time capturing a "dear"

V. L. Snyder, B. & O. agent, who fell and hurt his foot a few weeks ago is slowly improving.

Leah Webreck is spending several weeks with relatives and friends in Friedens and Somerset.

A fine looking and happy bunch of teachers left for Somerset Sunday to attend the Teacher's Institute.

Marion Leydig, floor walker and efficient manager of I. D. Leydig's general store, left Friday last for Connellsville and Pittsburg, where she will spend a week or ten days.

Wilbur, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miller, is suffering from a severe cold.

Elizabeth Leydig, a student in the Meyersdale High School, is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Leydig.

Geo. Martz, a lumber dealer, was stricken with paralysis in his right side and was removed to his home in Bridgeport on train No. 57 Monday morning.

Mrs. W. H. Miller shopped between trains in Cumberland, Saturday.

A Home Missionary service will be held in the Reformed church on Sunday at 2:00 p. m.

Leah R. Leydig spent a few days in Cumberland, last week.

Don't forget the pumpkin pie social in Leydig's hall Thursday evening, where ice cream, doughnuts, pumpkin pie, and hot coffee will be served. Come everybody and let every lad bring his lassie.

I. D. Leydig is much enthused because the much longed for heat in is full working order at last.

Full line of Pratt's poultry supplies also beef scrap, charcoal, grit, oyster shell, etc., at Habel & Phillips.

VIM

Our schools are closed this week on account of the teachers attending the annual institute in Somerset and the pupils are enjoying their vacation in various ways.
